

Table to Feature Nun Journalist, Honor Awards

Sister Mary Gilbert, instructor in journalism at Holy Names college, will be featured speaker at the Theta Sigma Phi sponsored Matrix table, Oct. 20.

Sister Mary Gilbert, who attended Oregon for both undergraduate and graduate work, is the author of "The Springs of Silence," an autobiography in which she includes a chapter on her campus experiences.

The women's journalism honorary will also honor a "Woman of Achievement" selected from University students and an outstanding Eugene woman at the dinner.

Identities of the two women will be kept secret until announcement of the honors at the dinner. Basis of selection for the University woman will include service to the University, interest in and contributions to campus activities and scholarship, according to Virginia Dailey, chairman of the selection. Reservations for the Matrix table may be made at the school of journalism office, according to Kitty Fraser, Theta Sigma Phi president.

Gallery Asks Student Art

Student art work is being sought for the Student Union art gallery exhibit of campus work, October 25 to November 4, according to Barbara Johnson, SU art gallery committee chairman.

Any student, whether or not he is in the art school, may submit sculpture, ceramics, weaving, painting, water-color, jewelry, engravings, architectural work or photography to Sue French at Chi Omega.

Work must be submitted by Oct. 22 and will be returned after the exhibit.

Demos Slate Address

Charles O. Porter, a Eugene attorney, will address the University chapter of the Young Democrats at their meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the Student Union. Porter's topic will be "Your Fight—Hell's Canyon."

The speaker is president of the Lane County branch of the National Hells Canyon association. The talk will be a preliminary to an address to be given by State Senator Richard L. Neuberger, Oct. 16 at the new Eugene high school auditorium. Neuberger, a possible 1954 gubernatorial candidate, has been active in the Hells Canyon controversy.

Hank Orner, acting president of the campus Young Democrats, has invited all interested persons to attend Tuesday's meeting.

Prof to Describe Japanese Politics

Paul S. Dull, associate professor of history and political science, will speak at the first 1953-54 meeting of the social science club tonight. Dull, who returned from a year in Japan, will speak on "Some Dynamics of Japanese Politics."

Members of the club and visitors will meet in the Student Union at 6 p.m. for dinner. At 7:30 p.m., the group will adjourn to the SU Dad's Lounge for the meeting.

Asked to Give Blood Donors

The Red Cross Blood Drive on the University campus has been scheduled for October 26 and 27. The blood donation center will be set up in the Student Union ballroom from 1 to 5 p.m. October 26, and from 9 to 3 p.m., October 27.

Goal of the Red Cross Blood Drive this year is one pint of blood from every student. Any healthy normal person between the ages of 18 and 59 may give blood. However, unmarried students between the ages of 18 and 21 must have the written consent of their parents even though they have donated blood before.

According to the American Red Cross, the need for blood is greater this year than ever before since the supply at present is low and an emergency would deplete it.

Campus Grades Show Slight Rise

The all-University grade point average for the three regular terms of the 1952-53 academic year was boosted to a 2.586, for a .4 per cent rise over the previous year, according to a final tabulation of the year's grades.

University House had the highest grades of any living organization on campus with a 2.971 average for the three terms. Second on the campus and first for men's organizations was Sigma Hall with a 2.953 average.

Rebec House and Alpha Delta Pi were second and third respectively, in grade competition for women's houses. Alpha hall was second and Barrister Inn third in men's competition.

The grade point average for all women's organizations was 2.670, and that for all sororities was 2.691. Women's dormitories had a 2.486 average. Non-organization men had a 2.683 average, and men's clubs had a 2.485. The fraternity average was 2.473 and men's dormitories earned a 2.414 grade point.

Applicants Needed For SU Vacancies

Petitions are now being called for four vacancies on the Student Union board. Openings are for a one year term from the graduate school, a one year term for a senior from the school of education and two year terms for a junior from school of health and physical education and the school of architecture and allied arts.

Applicants will be interviewed by a joint ASUO and Student Union board committee at a later date. Deadline for the petitions will be announced later. Petitions may be secured from the box on the third floor of the SU.

Group Leaders For Homecoming To Hold Meeting

The Homecoming committee, composed of all committee chairmen, will hold its initial meeting Tuesday in the Student Union at 4 p.m., according to Bob Pollack, co-chairman of the event.

Committee chairmen include Bob Kelly, bonfire; Bob McCracken, dance; Germaine LeMarche, luncheon; Gwen Zinniger and Bob Giersdorf, promotion; Ann Bankhead and Ann Gerlinger, sign contest; Geri Porrit and Barbara Wilcox, theme contest, and Marilyn Parrish and Jerry Farrow, half-time entertainment.

Other chairmen are Verla Thompson, radio promotion; Sally Ryan, hospitality; Walt White, noise parade; Marcia Tamasi and Ann Blackwell, queen selection; Don Crawford and Gloria Lee, variety show; Janet Wick, general secretary, and Milan Foster, finance.

Assistants have also been selected for several committees. These include Phyllis Pearson, dance; Edna Humiston, noise parade, and Gary West, finance.

Also assisting on the finance committee are Jean Piercy, campus button sales, and Bud Hinkson, public school buttons sales.

Britain Offers Marshall Gifts

Competition has opened for the newly-founded Marshall Scholarships, Great Britain's practical means of thanking the United States for the aid offered under the Marshall Plan. Scholarships for two years study at any university in the United Kingdom will be awarded 12 graduates of degree-granting colleges or universities in the U.S. who are citizens of this country and under 28 years of age when study is to be taken.

Value of the scholarships, which includes transportation to and from place of study, will vary with the different universities, and will be increased for married men.

With the United States divided into four different regions for the contest, three scholarships will be awarded in each of the four regions.

Prospective candidates from this area should obtain explanatory documents and application forms immediately from the British Consulate-General, 310 Sansome Street, San Francisco, 4, California, according to K. S. Ghent, foreign student adviser. Deadline for applications to be filed with the regional committee is Nov. 1. Successful candidates will be notified of their appointments in the spring.

Alltons File For $175,000 Damages

Donald Allton, former assistant professor of music at the University, and his wife filed suit Thursday against the city of San Diego, the San Diego police chief and the operators of a San Diego food market for $175,000 damages. Allton resigned last spring and

Beard-Sprouting Race Underway

Five o'clock shadow will be the style for sophomore men until the annual Sophomore Whiskerino. The traditional two weeks period of no shaving before the dance began Sunday night.

Freshmen women will check beards and report violators during the evening meal Wednesday, according to Dick Gray, co-chairman of the beard growth contest. Sophomore men will not be allowed to shave for the Portland game with the University of Washington this weekend.

Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's service honorary, will also check for violators and will tub the traditional breakers in Fenton pool.

Prizes awarded on the basis of originality and neatness will be given first, second, and third place winners in the contest during the intermission of the Whiskerino.

Names of candidates for the Betty Co-ed and Joe College contest should be turned in to Marilyn Parrish at Delta Delta Delta or Bob McCracken at Alpha Tau Omega by 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Men's living organizations are to sponsor a sophomore man, and women's living organizations are to nominate a sophomore woman.

First interviews of candidates have been scheduled for Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. Campus clothes will be in order.

Nominees will be narrowed down by interviews to either four or six finalists, depending on the number of candidates, McCracken said. Final voting for Betty Co-ed and Joe College will be held at the "Stubble Stomp," Saturday, Oct. 24.

All candidates will be judged on a basis of personality, appearance and campus interest by a board of judges composed of townspeople, faculty members and students.

NAACP to Hear Labor Official

Mark Smith, of the Oregon State Bureau of Labor, will be the guest speaker at the first meeting of the University chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People tonight at 7:30 in the Student Union.

Smith will speak on "The Challenge of Opportunity on Merit—Not Race, Religion, or Nationality." He will also conduct a brief workshop on the subject.

"The Challenge," a film concerning the extent of four rights in the United States, safety and security of persons, citizenship and its practice, freedom of conscience, and equality of opportunity, will be shown before the discussion.

The film has been endorsed by such organizations as the A.F.I., C.I.O., American Veterans of World War II, National Student Association of the United States and the Unitarian Service league.

The public has been invited to attend the meeting.

University Singers Elect New Officers

Newly-elected president of the University Singers is Larry Swanson, graduate student in music. Other officers chosen in elections held last week include Doug Stobie, tour manager; Mary Sweeney; and Mary Lou Teague, co-librarians, and Joyce Sinner, accompanist.

Science Students Urged to Register

Pre-professional science students who have not filled out short registration forms in the science office are urged to do so as soon as possible, according to department heads.

Pre-dental, pre-medical and medical technology students are also asked to register.

Commission Plans Grants to Teachers

United States Educational commission in the Federal Republic of Germany will provide 25 grants this year for American graduate students for teaching assistantships in secondary schools in the larger cities of West Germany.

Tuition at the nearest university, as well as travel and maintenance, are provided for the grantees, who are required to spend twelve hours weekly teaching English conversation and providing information on American life.

Qualifications for these grants are the same as for the Fulbright awards. All information regarding these opportunities in Germany can be had from K. S. Ghent, associate professor of mathematics in Emerald hall.