

WSC Scores Early, Holds Lead, 7-0

Washington State steam-rolled its way for 83 yards and the game's only touchdown in the second quarter to defeat Oregon, 7-0, at Pullman, Saturday afternoon. A delighted Homecoming crowd of 15,000 fans watched the Cougars rally back after their humiliating loss to Iowa last week and really look sharp in this fray.

Al Kircher's fired up eleven marked up their all-important touchdown midway through the second period when Quarterback Red Golden sneaked over from the two yards line to culminate an 83 yard march down the field by the Cougars.

Vaughan Hitchcock, a substitute fullback, was the hero of the drive as time after time he ripped through the stubborn Oregon line for substantial gains. His big gainer came when he broke loose for 27 yards from the WSC 43 to the Oregon 30.

Scoring All Over
From the Oregon 8, it took just three plays for the Cougars to score. Hitchcock carried the oval twice for a total advance of six yards and then Golden boomed across on his quarterback sneak. Frank Sarno kicked his extra point try squarely through the uprights and although nobody realized it at the time, this game was all over as far as the scoring was concerned.

Len Casanova's favored Oregon squad tried desperately in the second half to get some kind of a scoring maneuver underway but found the Cougar defense too tough to crack. The nearest they managed to get to their host's goal in the final two quarters was the WSC 35 midway in the last stanza.

Best Chance in First
Actually, the best Oregon scoring bid came in the first quarter. Starting from their own 15 yard marker the Ducks marched 68 yards to the Cougar 17 before relinquishing the ball on downs. Larry Rose, Dick James, and Farrell Albright handled the ball-carrying assignments on this early Oregon assault which came to an abrupt halt when Quarterback George Shaw's fourth down pass intended for Dick James in the end zone was knocked down by the alert Cougar secondary.

The Webfoots had another scoring effort stopped by the half-time gun. Led by the brilliant passing of Shaw, Oregon moved from their own two yard line all the way to the WSC 35.

Running Game Stalls
On the other hand Oregon saw their running game stalled almost completely in the final two fifteen minute periods and relied on the passing arm of Shaw for nearly all their yardage. General George did not let his teammates down either. His aerial thrusts were accurate all afternoon as he completed 12 out of 25 tosses for a total of 145 yards. But the Ducks lacked a scoring punch and as a result were unable to match their opponent's first half six-pointer.

The Ducks almost matched the Cougar touchdown with less than two minutes remaining in the game. In sheer desperation Shaw threw a tremendous 50 yards pass aimed at left end Dick Mobley in the WSC end zone. But the play all went for naught as Hitchcock deflected the ball away from Mobley.

Rose Plays Well
For Oregon, besides Shaw, sophomore fullback Larry Rose played a stellar ball game. Left halfback Dick James was also a standout for the Ducks. He proved to be especially adept at snagging aerials from Shaw.

Statistically speaking the two teams were very evenly matched. Both the Cougars and the Ducks rolled up 18 first downs. Washington State was the stronger of the two from the rushing standpoint but Oregon was superior in the passing department.

The victory for Washington State gave them a one won and one lost record in Pacific Coast Conference action and left them in sixth place. The Ducks now have a record of no wins and three losses in the PCC and are in seventh place. The Oregons have failed to tally a point in their three league contests so far.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Beclaws He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"Go jump in the lake," squalled Sheedy's mermaid with baited breath. "You look simply crabby with that messy hair. Better get your books into Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's favorite hair tonic. Keeps hair combed with no trace of greasiness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Relieves annoying dryness. Contains lanolin. Non-alcoholic. I shall never see you again until you start using it." Paul crabbed 29¢ and bought Wildroot Cream-Oil. Now he's the crab-apple of her eye. So water you waiting for? Hurry and get a bottle or handy tube at any toilet goods counter. And next time you visit your barber, ask for Wildroot Cream-Oil on your hair. Then you'll be the best catch on campus.
