

Campus YWCA Membership Drive Enters Second Week of Activity

"The YWCA is your campus treasure chest" is the slogan for the 1953-54 YW membership drive which is now going into its second week.

Anyone interested in the program of the organization has been asked to contact Tina Fisk, membership chairman; Eileen Lindblad, YW executive director, or any of the house representatives.

The organization is divided into three commissions, freshman, sophomore and upperclass, with various committees in each division.

The freshman commission includes committees for international affairs, public affairs, religious and worship, and service. The sophomore commission sponsors the Kiddie Carnival for all children in the community, and two special service projects. The upper-class commission is divided into service, worship, religious growth, international affairs, public affairs, and student-faculty at home committees.

The house representatives for the membership drive are C. G. Goodwin, Alpha Chi Omega; Dernelene Crawley, Alpha Delta Pi; Dolores Tye; Alpha Phi; Carolyn Keith, Alpha Xi Delta; Pat Peterson, Ann Judson House; Nancy Hooper, Chi Omega.

Charmayne Charley, Delta Delta Delta; Sue Smyth, Delta Gamma; Nancy Gilbert, Delta Zeta; Sally Cummins, Gamma Phi Beta; Jo Kopp, Kappa Alpha Theta; Jill Hutchings, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Germaine LaMarche, Orides; Pat Case, Pi Beta Phi; Jan Williams, Sigma Kappa; Namiko Ikedo, University House, and Ellen Wheeler, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Petitions are now being requested for chairman of the Browsing Room committee of the Student Union. Deadline for petitions will be announced at a later date.
