FROM ASHLAND

Banquet Scene Music Presented In Concert

A concert of Elizabethan music as it was performed after dinner in Shakespeare's time will be presented on tape recording Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Student Union Browsing room.

Mrs. Ottilie Seybolt, associate professor of speech, will comment on the Elizabethan songs used in the presentation. Don Hunter, head of the audio-visual department, who made the recording during the last Shakespearian festival in Ashland will explain some of the technical aspects of it.

In this concert, known as "An Evening's Revels," the Ashland audience saw a typical banquet scene of Shakespeare's time where the King and his court were favored by the dancing and singing of the court entertainers. Dialogue in the production was taken from a large number of plays of the Elizabethan period.

The plays include Much Ado About Nothing, Romeo and Juliet, Winter's Tale, Two Gentlemen of Verona, Merchant of Venice, Midsummer Night's Dream, As You Like It, Twelfth Night, all by William Shakespeare.

Other plays are Ralph Roister

Doister, Nicolas Udall; The Old Wives Tales, George Peele; The Shoemaker's Holiday, Thomas Dekler; The Maid's Tragedy and The Knight of the Burning Pestle, Beaumont and Fletcher; The Wild Goose Chase, John Fletcher; Woman Killed With Kindness, Thomas Heywood.

Sources of the music in "An Evening's Revels" are Thomas Morley, John Dowland, Adrea Gabrielli's "Three Ricercari" (Allegro, Andante, and Puesto); and lyrics from "As You Like It," and "The Tempest."

Dancers parts were taken from Pavanne, Guillard, Cinquepace and The Coranto. The famous old ballad "Greensleeves" is presented as the finale using the tune which Shakespeare knew.

The concert which was given twice during the last Shakespearian Festival at Ashland is entering its third year of production.

Yates Opens Speech Slate

A member of the British Labor party in Parliament, Victor Yates, will open the first assembly program of the year Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Classes regularly scheduled for 1 p.m. Thursday will be held today at 1 because of the assembly. This includes the regular 1 p.m. ROTC drill.

"Parliament from the Inside" will be his topic. Yates, elected to Parliament in 1945, is touring the country under the sponsorship of the American Friends Service committee.

A member of the Labor party for 30 years, he is a member of the House of Commons. Select Committee on Estimates — the watchdog of national expenditures. He also is secretary of the Peace Aims group which opposes military conscription.

Yates appears here under the auspices of the University assembly committee.

Concert Set By USN Band

The first of the fall term schedule of concerts will be presented by the United States Navy band at McArthur court Oct. 22. The concert is sponsored by the school of music in cooperation with the junior programs of Eugene.

The official Navy band will present a varied program under the direction of Lt. Cmdr. Charles Brendler, conductor. The numbers offered will include works from such composers as Tchaikovsky, Richard Rodgers, Johann Strauss, and Franz Liszt.

The approaching concert will mark the band's first appearance on campus. It makes two tours annually, one in the spring and one in the fall.

Brendler conducts the band from memory, without a musical score. He holds the highest rank ever granted a Navy musician. John Philip Sousa was the only other musician who has ever held the same rank.

FEPC Deputy Sees Change

Mark Smith, deputy commissioner of the state Fair Employment Practices commission, stated that we are "witnessing an amazing revolution" in the development of an unprejudiced society, in a speech Monday evening to the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at the Student Union. Smith pointed out that the idea of "opportunity on merit" is growing and he predicted that America will "wipe out all discrimination in public schools."

Beginning the meeting with a film, "The Challenge," a story of reporters finding out about the problems of civil rights, he then described what had been done to remove discrimination and what there was yet to do. The job of the NAACP was to try "to make democracy work." He pointed out that members of the group weren't "crackpots and leftists" but were the real 100 per cent Americans.

The speaker listed ignorance, caused in part by movies and customs, and economic fears as substantial factors in creating prejudices. Two big aids to the elimination of prejudices in the recent years were the fair employment practices laws which were a result of the last war and the more recent and "greatest thing in the last 10 years" was the signing of Jackie Robinson to the Brooklyn Dodgers.

In regards to the activities of the local NAACP, Smith stressed the importance of keeping people in the community informed of the problems of discrimination. He declared that the group "has got to let them," the community, "know our goals."

Sigma Chi Title Candidates Named

Twenty-six girls have been selected to participate in the annual Sweetheart of Sigma Chi contest which will culminate with the Sweetheart Ball Nov. 7. These girls, representing every women's living organization on campus, will first be entertained by the men of Sigma Chi at an informal dessert Oct. 20.

There will be a total of 10 Sweetheart contest functions which will finish with a radio show announcing the new Sweetheart on Nov. 5, and then the Sweetheart Ball, two days later.

Actually the Sweetheart Ball is just the beginning for the Sweetheart. She will be dined at the Sigma Chi house at least once a week for the rest of the year, and she will also participate in various other functions of the fraternity. "It is our goal," said Dick Reinhart, social chairman, "to find as wonderful a Sweetheart as Patty has been." Patty Fagan, Pi Beta Phi, is the 1952-53 Sweetheart.

The following girls have been selected by their organizations as Sweetheart candidates: Connie Long, Alpha Chi Omega; Mary Dee Fulp, Alpha Delta Pi; Jean Passmore, Alpha Gamma Delta; Janet Filbert, Alpha Omicron Pi.

Betty Bartz, Alpha Phi; Julia Detrick, Alpha Xi Delta; Joanne Cowart, Chi Omega; Dennice Parr, Delta Delta Delta; Carol Aiken, Delta Gamma.

Joanne Jolley, Sigma Kappa; Blanche Hall, Zeta Tau Alpha; Cris Hecker; Highland House; Jean Holznigel, Rebec house; Sue White, University house.

Marcia Mauney, Carson 3; Sally Greig, Carson 4; Carlene Howard, Hendricks 1; Glenna Pearl, Hendricks, 2, and Dawn Critchley, Hendricks Annex.

Houses Give Names For 'Swamp Girl'

Candidates for the first Swamp Girl of Sigma Phi Epsilon will attend first eliminations Monday. Campus clothes will be in order.

After a series of interviews five finalists will be chosen. The five will be honored at the "Swamp Stomp" Nov. 7 when the Swamp Girl will be announced.

Sue Benedict, Alpha Xi Delta; Arlene Moad, Chi Omega; Charlee Sommers, Delta Delta Delta; Sue Erickson, Delta Gamma; Donna Fox, Delta Zeta.

Mary Sanderberg, Gamma Phi Beta; Carol Kern, Kappa Alpha Theta; Ruth Hoppe, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Sharon Snyder, Pi Beta Phi; Jackie Jolly, Sigma Kappa; Joyce McKenzie, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Barbara Hogard, Carson 3; Jan Hargis, Carson 4; Sue Spears, Carson 5; Rosalie Todd, Hendricks hall.

Kay Whiteman, Hendricks Annex; Sharon Finchum, University house; Mauryne Nichols, Rebec house, and Bev Fernimen, Highland house.

Senate Vacancy Applications Due

Deadline for graduate students planning to petition for the graduate student vacancy on the ASUO Senate is 5 p.m. Thursday.

Petitions may be picked up on the third floor of the Student Union. They are to be returned to the ASUO President Tom Wrightson's office.

The vacancy on the Senate is the result of the constitutional amendment passed spring term providing for a graduate student member of the governing body.

Students petitioning will be interviewed at Senate meeting on Thursday night.

Parking Problem Eased in Portland

Portland's parking problem will be partially eased early next month when a parking ban will go into effect in parts of the downtown area. The city council Monday unanimously approved Commissioner William A. Bowes' proposals for curtailing downtown parking to ease traffic congestion on key streets.

However, the plan will not be put into effect in time to alleviate the parking problems for Oregon students attending the two Portland games, University of Washington this Saturday, and University of Southern California, Oct. 31.

4 to 6 p.m. Parking or stopping will be prohibited on both sides of Southwest Stark, Washington, Alder, Morrison and Yamhill streets from 10th to Front avenues.

WHISKERS FLOURISH

Deadline Today For Betty, Joe

Who will be this year's Betty Co-Ed and Joe College? That is the question foremost in everyone's mind as preparations for the Sophomore Whiskerino get underway.

Candidates for Betty and Joe are to be sophomores, and are to be sponsored by their respective living organizations. Deadline for turning in names of candidates is 5 p.m. today, according to Marilyn Parrish and Bob McCracken, co-chairmen.

The names should be given to Miss Parrish at the Tri Delt house or to McCracken at the ATO house, they said. First interviews for the candidates will be held tomorrow at the SU at 6:30 p.m. "Candidates should wear campus clothes for the interviews," McCracken said.

Twelve men and twelve women will be selected at tomorrow's elimination, and the field will be narrowed to six finalists Thursday, according to McCracken.

Judging throughout the contest will be based on personality, appearance and campus interest. Serving as judges will be students, townspeople and faculty members.

As an additional part of the activities leading up to the annual Whiskerino, freshmen women will go to men's living organizations tomorrow night to check beard growth of the sophomore men, Dick Gray, beard growth chairman, said.

The "Stubble Stomp," the dance itself, will bring to a close both contests and will see the crowning of a new Betty Co-ed and Joe College.

Voting on the finalists will be done by those attending the dance, and successors to Gloria Lee and Alex Byler, last year's "Betty" and "Joe," will be named at intermission.

Faculty Donates $2000 To Current Chest Drive

The Community Chest drive is running well ahead of last year reports C. F. Ziebarth, associate professor of business and the University Chest chairman. He added that the committee is very gratified with faculty contributions, now running over $2000 with a third of the collectors yet to be heard from.

On the student side of the drive $287 has been collected to date reports Russ Walker, executive secretary of the YWCA. Walker expressed some hope that the student goal of $500 would be reached providing the houses yet to report come through in strong shape.

A prize, not yet determined, will be presented to the men and women's organization contributing the greatest amount per capita. Last year's winners were the Alpha Phis and the Alpha Tau Omegas.

Just 25 cents or more by each student would push the total well above the student goal, Walker reported. Containers for last minute donations can be found in the Fish Bowl and the Co-op.

Living organization collections are to be turned into Mrs. Donna J. Overen, public services secretary, at the president's office in Johnson hall.

YWCA Sophs Hold Dessert

First sophomore dessert, sponsored by the YWCA Sophomore cabinet, will be held tonight from 6:15 to 7:30 p.m. at Alpha Chi Omega, according to Carol Huggins and Donna Buchanan, cabinet social chairmen.

All sophomore women, whether they are Y members or not, are urged to attend the affair, at which sophomore members of Zeta Tau Alpha and Sigma Kappa will be assistant hostesses. "This is a good opportunity," said Miss Buchanan, "for sophomores to renew dormitory acquaintances from last year."
