

Political Movies Slated Tonight

Educational movies to be shown tonight in Commonwealth 138 will be "Will Europe Unite?," "Tito—New Ally?," "Moslems and the West—Crisis in Iran" and "Fight in Malaya."

There will be two showings of each program, the first beginning at 7 p.m. Admission is free.

Browsing Room Petitions Are Due

Petitions for Browsing Room committee chairman are due today at 3 p.m. on the third floor of the Student Union, according to Andy Berwick, SU Board chairman.

This committee sponsors faculty lectures and Friday night coffee hours.

UO Rates Offered To Civil Workers

Student Rate cards to Student Union Board-sponsored functions are being made available to civil service employees of the University, according to Andy Berwick SU Board chairman.

These cards will admit employees to these functions at student prices. They have also been mailed to all faculty members, and a sign-up sheet will be left at the SU main desk.

Two opportunities to use these cards winter term will be when the SU Board brings both the Mount Angel Seminary Gregorian Choir and the Budapest String Quartet to the campus, Berwick stated.

Faculty Children's Art Classes Started

Saturday morning art classes for the children of faculty members will be offered starting Saturday, according to the school of architecture and allied arts. The class for seven and eight-year-olds are held from 8:45 to 10 a.m. Nine and ten-year-olds meet from 10:15 to 11:30.

Nineteen Women Pledged by Orides

Nineteen women were pledged by Orides, women's off-campus social organization, at their meeting Monday night. The women will be initiated at the end of the term.

Money Featured in Libe Bank Exhibit

Several types of money will be on display in the circulation lobby of the library until Nov. 3, according to C. W. Hintz, head librarian. The exhibit, prepared by the social science division, illustrates with books, pamphlets, pictures and actual samples the history of money and the contrast of hard and soft money.

The development of banking on the Pacific coast will also be featured. Account books of pioneer merchant-bankers and photographs taken in 1860 of the bank at Jacksonville, one of the first in the state, will be shown. The Jacksonville bank was in the gold fields of the Siskiyou mountains, and its outstanding feature was an elaborate scale for weighing gold dust.

Castell to Relate Immortality Topic

Alburey Castell, head of the department of philosophy, will be the featured speaker at the Westminster group of the Presbyterian church tonight.

Castell's speech, "The Greatest Obstacles to Personal Beliefs in Immortality," will be followed by a question and answer period on basic philosophical beliefs. The program will be preceded by the Westminster club's annual fellowship dinner.
