

Ducks Drill For Spartan Defense

Oregon's varsity gave special attention to fundamentals in a light practice Tuesday.

Play-in the line was given special notice. This was probably promoted after inspecting San Jose's offensive record. The coast's number one independent has scored 123 points with all but six coming on the ground. The Spartans run from both the straight and split T.

Defense Lauded

The San Jose type defense gave the Ducks noticeable trouble. The linebackers would alternate between crashing and floating. This along with a variety of defensive formations caused the blocking assignments to change on almost every play.

Passing Stressed

The Ducks continued to work on their passing offense despite the noticeable lack of capable receivers. This is probably founded on the Spartan's record in the past five games. They have been scored on six times through the air but have also intercepted 12 passes for a total of 188 yards in returns.

Left Tackle Hal Reeve has been selected as game captain for Saturday's game against San Jose on Hayward field.

Swim Team Drills Begin

Workouts have started for the freshmen and varsity swimming team, according to John Borchardt, swimming coach. The first practice was held Monday afternoon.

Workouts are scheduled for the rest of fall term, five days a week. The practices are scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays, and 2:30 on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Any frosh or varsity prospects interested in the teams should see Borchardt or turn out for one of the practices.

Swimming competition doesn't start until winter term. Last year the Webfoot splashers finished second in the dual meet schedule and third in the Northern Division meet.

The freshmen are not allowed to compete on the varsity squad because of a conference ruling, but they will enter the state AAU meet, which they won last year.

SAE Crowned Pigskin Champ

Sigma Alpha Epsilon showed themselves to be the class of the 1953 intramural touch football league by dropping Phi Delta Theta 12-0 in the final game of the season, Tuesday.

Two quick touchdowns in the second quarter wrapped the game up for SAE as the Phi Delt never seriously threatened during the game.

Savage to Davis

Stan Savage set off the scoring spark with a 40 yard pass to Rex Davis on the five. On next play Bob Britain fired a short pass to Jack Krieger in the end zone.

Moments later Savage snagged a 30 yard toss from Davis for the final TD.

Many Interceptions

Numerous interceptions throughout the game by both teams hampered each team's offense. SAE amused the crowd late in the final quarter with their hipper-dipper antics while grabbing a Phi Delt pass on the Phi Delt 40. Four hurried laterals succeeded in bringing the ball down to the 20 yard stripe of their surprised opponents.

Frosh Dormitories Win On Opening Day of Intramurals

Two contests, one between French hall A and Nestor hall A, and the other between Susan Campbell II A and Stitzer A vied Tuesday for the most thrilling games in the young 1953 intramural volleyball season. Both the victors, French hall, and Stitzer hall, came from behind after losing the first game to win the next two and win the set.

French hall was barely beaten in the first of its three games, as it went down to Nestor hall by a 17-15 count. In the second and third games the whole French team seemed to come out of a daze, to take the contests 15-6 and 15-9.

Stitzer hall also came from behind after losing their first game to the tune of 15-11, to win their set of three games. The scores in the second and third contests were 15-4 and 15-6.

Susan Campbell I A breezed over the Merrick A team in two consecutive games. Its scores were 15-8 in the first game, and 15-7 in the second and final game.

In other volleyball action today, there were three forfeits. Hale Kane, Phi Sigma Kappa, and Barrister Inn won over Alpha hall, Gamma hall, and the Legal Eagles in that order.

PCC STATISTICS

Oregons Have Best Air Defense; California Tops In Total Offense

LOS ANGELES — California's high-gear attack, which already leads the Pacific Coast Conference in passing and total offense, also is closing in on the rushing leadership, it was disclosed by statistics from the PCC Commissioner's office.

California has averaged 359.8 yards a game total offense, to 303.4 for UCLA and 296.8 for Stanford. Of this, 139.6 yards is by passing to give the Bears the lead in aeriels, too. Stanford ranks second overhead, with 124.2 yards a game and Washington third, 123.

Short on Ground

Only on the ground does Cal fall short, and it's here they're closing the gap. UCLA has 249.2 yards a game to 220.2 for California, a difference of 29 yards. The week previous, UCLA had a margin of 51.5 yards.

California's offense may be slowed this weekend, however, as they meet the No. 2 defensive team in the PCC, Southern California. UCLA ranks first, having given up but 189.6 yards a game. Southern Cal has allowed 202.6 and Washington 228.2.

UCLA's rushing defense is the stingiest, having held foes to 111.4 yards per outing. The Trojans are second, 124, and Washington, third, 145.8. Oregon has given up the fewest yards passing, 56, followed by Stanford, 72, and UCLA, 78.2.

Interceptions

Washington has the most alert secondary, having intercepted 13 passes and returning them 149 yards. UCLA has 11 thefts, and also leads in punting with a 39 yard average to 37.7 for Idaho.

Washington State is the No. 1 team in runbacks. They've returned 10 punts, an average of 17.6 yards, one going for a score. Their kickoff runback mark is 22.8.

This weekend: California-Southern Cal at Berkeley; Washington State-UCLA at Los Angeles; Washington-Stanford at Seattle; Oregon State-Idaho at Moscow; Oregon-San Jose at Eugene.

Shaw, James, Albright High on Figure List

Stanford's T-quarterback Bob Garrett, with assists from a pair of sticky-fingered ends, has bolted into the passing leadership of the Pacific Coast Conference.

His brilliant exhibition Saturday against UCLA gave him a total of 49 completions in 90 attempts for 602 yards and six touchdowns, thus wresting the lead from Washington's Sandy Lederman, who has been the No. 1 passer from the opening weekend. Paul Larson of California is third.

Garrett's favorite targets, ends Sam Morley and John Steinberg, rang one-two in receptions. Sam caught nine Saturday, one less than the PCC record, and now has 18 for 195 yards and two touchdowns. Steinberg has 13 for 173 yards and one touchdown with Flip Kleffner, Idaho, third with 12.

Paul Cameron of UCLA has a good margin in the rushing lead with 393 yards and 4.9 yards per play; Aramis Dandoy of Southern California is second with 317 yards and Idaho's Kleffner, third, 268. Larson retains the total offense leadership with 718 yards, all but 92 of which were gained on his passes. Cameron ranks second with 628 yards and Lederman third, 563.

A Conference record was broken in the Washington State-Idaho game when Kleffner punted 82 yards from scrimmage. Best previous marks were 78 by Bill May, Idaho (vs. Wyoming, 1950) and 77, Don Moll, Southern California (vs. Stanford, 1948). Kleffner is the top Conference punter at 45.8 yards.

Al Talley, California, leads in scoring with 42 points on seven touchdowns. He's followed by Jay Buhler, Idaho, who has five conversions and six TDs (five by pass receptions) for 41 points. Garrett is the No. 1 placekicker with 12 points in 13 tries. He also leads in interceptions with four. Dandoy has the most yards on punt returns, 206, and Ralph Carr, Oregon State, the most on kickoff returns, 203.
