

Co-op Store Sales Hit $50,000 Mark In Year

The Webfoot Consumers Co-operative store has passed the $50,000 mark in sales receipts in the first year and two months of service to the student families at the Amazon housing project, according to Norman Peterson, manager.

A group of married students organized the co-operative under the laws of Oregon in August, 1952. The co-op first established the grocery store and has since brought savings to the members of the co-op through reductions in the price of gas, auto service, auto accessories, dry cleaning, fuel oil, electric trains, wool blankets, watch repairing, case goods, and other products. Profits made in the operation of the store will be divided among the co-op members according to their purchase receipts.

The co-op idea started when several families in the housing project bought case lots of canned goods together and then divided the goods among themselves. Later the co-op became a legal organization. When the private operators of the store in the Amazon closed their store because of business difficulties, the co-op bought the assets of the private party and rented the building from the University.

Membership in the co-op is opened to anyone and may be obtained by a payment of $25 to the store manager. An installment payment of $5 a month can also be made.

The more than 70 families which belong to the co-op control the organization through a board of directors which they elect. The officers are Gordon Moore, president; George McElhoe, vice president, and Lionel Chadwick, secretary. Other board members are Carl Weber, Jesse Himmelsbach, Lois Thornton, Charles Hawkes and Marbeth Braun. Dick Uhde assists Peterson at the store.

"As long as China is outside the UN," said Lerner, "Russia stands as the spokesman for China. As soon as China enters the UN, it can assume Communist leadership in Asia." The speaker emphasized the importance of destroying the Moscow-Peiping axis which he felt could be accomplished in this manner.

"Our Dad led the brass band in our home town. He started us on our way tooting in the band when we were eight years old. We watched and studied successful musicians as much as we could, worked real hard, and little by little began to get there."
