

Sigma Nu, Fijis, Phi Psi, Sig Ep Top Mural Foes

In intramural action Monday afternoon, Sigma Nu blasted the PiKA's; the Fijis came from behind to defeat Theta Chi in two sets; Phi Psi's walked away from the DU's in two games; and Sigma Phi Epsilon upset the Kappa Sigs. Two games were forfeit.

Sigma Nu's spikers pounded Pi Kappa Alpha in two consecutive sets by the same score, 15-2, in a quickly played game. Sigma Nu remains undefeated and on top of its league.

Fijis Drop Theta Chi

Phi Gamma Delta, staging a big comeback in their first game and employing a strong defense in the second, toppled Theta Chi 15-13 and 15-8. Behind 6-13 in the opener, the Fijis fought back to tie the score and then scored twice to win. Numerous side outs marked the second game with the fine defensive plays of the Fijis prevailing.

Phi Psi's Post Win

Phi Kappa Psi easily won over Delta Upsilon by scores of 15-4 and 15-5. In the first set the score was 11-0 before the DUs broke the scoring ice with four straight counters. The Phi Psi's defense then stiffened up to nab the remaining points and the next game.

Sig Eps Over Kappa Sig

Sigma Phi Epsilon ended the reign of Kappa Sigma as the league's sole leader by rudely upending them 15-6 and 15-2. The tall Sig Ep team wasted no time in showing their superiority over the Kappa Sigs and climbed into a tie for first spot with them.

Fresh volleyball B teams from Stitzer and Susan Campbell II failed to make their appearance against French and Nestor Halls respectively.

LYNN "PAPPY" WALDORF Trains Dancing Bears

With three consecutive wins under their wings, the Oregon Ducks moved onto the practice field Monday in preparation for their coming encounter with Coach "Pappy" Waldorf's California Golden Bears, this Saturday at Berkeley.

Emerging in grand style with a 25-6 victory over the Idaho Vandals, the Ducks set right to work on how to stop the strong California offensive move. California showed its potential against the strong Washington Husky team, as they completely overpowered the Huskies 53-25. Both the Ducks and the Bears have the same won-lost percentage of four wins and four losses.

The travel south by the Ducks this weekend will be more or less a revenge game as the Ducks have not been able to win over the Bears since 1946, and took a 41-7 defeat last year.

Only 3 IM Leagues Tied; Hale Kane on 31st Straight

Last week's action caused a big change in the intramural volleyball sports picture. Last week, nine of the leagues were tied up; this week there are only three.

The deadlocks remain in League 3-A, where Barrister Inn and Campbell Club share top spot; League 2-B, where the Sip Eps and Phi Deltas each are undefeated; and League 5-B, where the Betas and SAE's are deadlocked.

Hale Kane's A and B squads, both on top of their leagues, are entering their four straight undefeated season. They have not lost a game in 30 starts.

Bowling to Remain As Mural Sport

Intramural managers decided, last week, to continue bowling as a part of their IM activities. Student Union Recreation Manager Lou Bellissimo explained that it would be possible for the teams to bowl throughout the IM season for $21.00.

There had been some controversy over the high price required for a team to enter the league, as prior to this change, it had cost $31.50 for a living organization to enter a team. This price change should make a decided change in the number of teams that enter the IM league.

The other item of business taken up at the meeting concerned the matter of freshmen who are veterans. In an amendment to the intramural rules, it is now possible for any freshman who is eligible to live in a fraternity to participate in that house's sports activities. This ruling pertains to veterans, as they are the only ones that are allowed to live in the houses as freshmen.

Gaffney Spark In Ducks' Rise

By John Cary
Emerald Sports Writer

Oregon's football fortunes have taken a sharp rise the last three weeks, and the performance of halfback Walt Gaffney is one of the reasons behind the Webfoot's improved showing.

Gaffney came to Oregon from Binghampton, N. Y., via San Bernardino junior college. In Gaffney, the Ducks got one of the top J.C. halfbacks in Southern California. For two consecutive years he was chosen all-conference halfback in the southern Cal J.C. conference by the Los Angeles Times. He also played a year of varsity baseball, alternating between third base and shortstop.

Gaffney graduated from Binghampton Central high school in 1951. He had a scholarship offer to Brown university, member of the Ivy league, but decided to matriculate at San Bernardino.

At Binghampton Central high, he played two years of football and was chosen on the all-conference defensive team his senior year. Baseball is one of Gaffney's favorite sports and he lettered three years in high school. He hit a resounding .452 one year.

The 21-year-old Gaffney stands only 5'7", and weighs 174. Despite his size, he is a good blocker, a hard runner, and plays safety on defense. Only a junior, Gaffney will be back to play a lot of football for Coach Len Casanova.

YOU CAN'T GET A GIRL WITH A GULP

OR.. How do you know when your best foot's forward?

Once there was a Senior who was Shy. (Look, this is a story. It permits certain liberties with the truth.)

He'd call up a Girl, stammer incoherently through the Preliminaries, gurgle helplessly through the Bicuspids, and hang up. Dateless. One day his room-mate took him in hand. "Herman, old buddy," he said, . . . and unfolded a Plan.

Next day the Big Girl on Campus got a Telegram. A terse message. Simply: "Will pick you up at eight P.M. Friday. Regards. Herman H. Glockenspiel." She was Intuckered and waiting when Herman sheepishly up the steps of her Sorority house.

"Are you Herman H. Glockenspiel?" she cooed. "Ulp," said Herman. "Ooooh," she said, taking his arm, "I just love Original, Masterful Men." Herman was on his way.

Now Herman has more dates than the Syrian Desert. Still makes 'em all by Telegram. No fool, this Herman.

When you've got a Date in mind — Whether it's with the Campus Queen, a Smith Siren or a Big Moment Back Home—a Telegram has the Man-of-the-world Approach that pleases. Equally effective, too, for birthdays, Mother's Day and Easter Messages, congratulations, or yaps to Pop for Cash, or to Sis to Airmail you The Baggy Sweater. Just call Western Union and see.

Lettermen Meet

Order of the "O," Oregon's lettermen club, will hold a meeting Wednesday noon at the Alpha Tau Omega house, according to Don Hedgepeth, club president.
