Mu Phi 50th Year Celebrated Today

Mu Phi Epsilon, national professional music sorority, will celebrate its 50th anniversary today with a regional celebration. It was founded in 1903 at the Cincinnati conservatory. Nu Chapter on the University campus was the eighth chapter, with a charter issued in 1911. It is now the fifth oldest existing chapter.

A regional celebration honoring the founders is planned for this afternoon and evening in Portland. Similar celebrations will be held throughout the nation.

Members of the honorary are chosen on a basis of musicianship, scholarship and personality. The purpose of Mu Phi Epsilon is to provide a harmonious atmosphere for musical presentation by the members.

for the team. All but two members of the rally squad were going to the California game, it was stated in the report.

ASUO Vice Pres. Don Collin reported on the freshman election, mentioning in particular that there was still some misunderstanding of the preferential voting system. He said a public explanation of the ballot counting procedure will be held later in the year.

Dick Bruce and Elsie Schiller volunteered to meet with Donald DuShane, director of student affairs, to discuss the possible formation of a University housing committee which would be in charge of arranging housing for the various conferences held on campus during the year, particularly those for high school student.

Annual Fall Shop Slated

The annual fall term Panhellenic workshop will be held this evening and Saturday morning in the Student Union. Attending will be members of the Panhellenic executive council, house presidents, rush chairmen and Mrs. Goyda P. Wickham, associate director of student affairs and adviser of the organization.

The program for this evening, which is to start at 7 p. m., includes a rush week evaluation by Sally Thurston, Panhellenic president; a standards discussion led by Sally French, standards chairman, and a discussion of alumnae relations.

Saturday morning sessions start at 9 with discussions on scholarship led by Jeanette Kimball; dormitory relations, Mary Ann Herron; pledge training and Junion Panhellenic, Barbara Rubin, and a commentary by Mrs. Wickham. A luncheon will be held from 12 noon to 1 p. m.

Brouwer Math Speech Scheduled For Today

L. E. J. Brouwer, professor of mathematics at the University of Amsterdam, will speak at 4 p. m. today in Deady 102 on the topic "The Order in the Continuum."

Brouwer, who is currently on tour through American and Canadian universities, was a guest lecturer at the Canadian mathematics seminar congress at Queens university in Kingston last August and September.

TV at Rod Taylor's? "CRAZY!"

quacked the Oregon duck. "This stuff is real George dad," said his mate as he put his wing around her ducky shoulders.

This duck got to be a real poster when he sampled those cool beverages and watched some of that gone TV so he made up his mind to celebrate again this weekend at...
