SU Currents

"Pagan Origins of Christmas" will be the topic discussed at the Friday evening coffee hour tonight at 7:30 in the Student Union rowing room.

The speaker will be Dr. Paul B. Means, head of the department of religion. Coffee will be served after the lecture.

The last Sunday movie of fall term, "Topper," will be shown this Sunday at 2:30 and 4:30 p. m. in the Student Union ballroom, according to Barbara Wilcox, SU movie committee chairman.

"Who Are the Troubadours?" a concert-lecture by C. L. Johnson, associate professor of romance languages, is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Peter Benson Howard music listening room of the Student Union.

Johnson will try to clarify in his lecture ideas about the troubadours by discussing who they were, where they lived, what they wrote, about and their importance to poetry and music. He will read several poems written by them and will also use some records with his lecture.

Dad's Day Petitions Due Tuesday at 5 P.M.

Petition deadline for Dad's Day sub-chairmen has been set at 5 p. m. Tuesday, Phil Lewis and Mary Wilson, general co-chairmen, have announced. Petitions are to be turned in at the ASUO petition box on the third floor of the Student Union.

Chairmen are needed for the following six committees: promotion and publicity, reception and hospitality, sign contest, special events, hostess selection and luncheon. Dad's Day will be held Jan. 23.

In 1902 Tommy Leach of the Pittsburgh Pirates led the National league in home runs with six.

How the stars got started...

Tyrone Power says: "I had it tough bucking 'tradition' to get into movies. First, a famous great-grandfather actor, same name. Grandfather and Dad, too - both big in the theatre. I was barker at a Fair before anyone gave me a chance. Then, bit player, understudy, hard work and eventually I made it!"
