Special Events Chairmen Needed

Deadline for submitting petitions for chairmanships for the Student Union special events committees has been set at 5 p. m. Wednesday, according to Andy Berwick, SU board chairman.

Chairmen are needed for the national billiard and campus ping pong tournaments, for the national and campus bridge tournaments and for the Creative Arts Workshop program, he said.

Carter Announces New Appointments

Three new appointments have been made on the advertising staff of the Oregon Daily Emerald, Business Manager Dick Carter announced today.
Valera Vierra, senior in social studies, is the new advertising manager, taking over the post vacated by Carter when he became business manager.
Miss Vierra has worked on both the advertising and news sides of the Emerald for two years.
Other appointments include Jean Sandine, sophomore in liberal arts, to the post of office manager and Donna Hill, sophomore in political science as head of special editions.

It's 'The Word' On Dad's Signs

Signs for this year's Dad's Day weekend will differ from those made in the past and for other campus events. The signs will have no picture — they will consist of words only.
Jingles, poems or clever sayings will form the signs, Mary Wilson weekend co-chairman, said today. The words may be set up in any way and a list of contest rules is being sent to living organizations.
Miss Wilson said that the committee made the change in sign form because of the work involved in making signs for Junior Weekend and Homecoming. "We also felt this would be something a little different for Dad," she explained.
Judges of the contest will be dads from around the state.
Signs will relate in some way to the weekend theme, "King for a Day."

Today Is Deadline For Editor Petitions

Today at 5 p. m. is the deadline for the submission of petitions for editor of the Oregon Daily Emerald.
The petitions may be turned in to Dick Williams, secretary of the student publications board, on the mezzanine floor of the Student Union. The publications board will interview candidates and make its selection of the new editor at its monthly meeting Jan. 13.
The new editor will take over the Emerald at the end of this month.

Moonlight Girl Finalists Will Be Announced Today

Five finalists for the Moonlight Girl of Phi Sigma Kappa will be announced at noon today at the girls' living organizations by members of the fraternity.
The finalists will be introduced to the fraternity and to Beverly Kreick, 1953 Moonlight Girl, at an informal dinner Tuesday night at Phi Sigma Kappa. The 1954 Moonlight Girl will be chosen sometime during the week, and the winner will be announced Saturday evening at a fireside.
Twenty-three women were nominated by their living organizations last week. The five finalists will be picked from among Barbara Beaver, Hendricks Annex; Marilyn Berry, Carson hall; Sue Silverthorne, Kappa Alpha Theta; Rhoda Wolfe, Zeta Tau Alpha; Sally Hayden, Orides; Nancy Gale, Delta Zeta; Mary Allen, Rebec House; and Joyce Bearden, Alpha Phi.

YWCA Skip Day Petitions Needed

More petitions are being asked for by Betti Fackler and Hanna Sue Hansen, general co-chairmen of the YWCA sophomore-cabinet sponsored Sophomore Skip Day.
Areas of committee-work for the weekend, to which all sophomore women are invited, include programs, arrangements and promotion.
Under programs, sophomores may petition for speakers, schedule, discussion groups and entertainment.
The arrangements committee is divided into chairmen of housing, finance, foods, registration and transportation. Promotion is subdivided into flying speeches, posters, Emerald publicity, and records.
Miss Fackler stressed that all sophomores are eligible to petition for the positions for the weekend.
"There will be lots of entertainment," she said, and the two chairmen are now planning the discussion groups and other speakers.
Petitions for the weekend, which will be held March 6 at Kitson Springs, in the Cascades, are due Friday by 5 p. m. at either Chi Omega or the YWCA office in Gerlinger.

YOUR EMERALD CLASSIFIED ADS GET RESULTS!

Below is a copy of a letter recently received in the Emerald office.

Dear Mr. Brandness:
Enclosed please find our check for $13.67. This is to pay for the insurance ad which ran in the Emerald in the amount of $8.00 plus a small classified ad which I ran for my daughter in the amount of $5.67 making a total of $13.67. You and your staff will be delighted to know that the classified ad had to do with a small home which my daughter and her husband had to sell and that while similar ads had been run in the Eugene and Portland dailies and the property had been leased by leading real estate concerns in Eugene that the buyers for the property came from a reader of the Emerald. The ad was run only three times so we know that the Emerald has real drawing power and that it is a splendid medium for advertisements and that it does get results. With every best wish for a continued successful year, I am
Yours Truly,
E. S. Lindley,
District Manager
Mutual of Omaha

Place your Emerald Classifieds ads at the SU main desk, in the Emerald Shack, or Ph. ext. 219 in the afternoons.
