

Ducks Prepare For Inland Trip

Coach Bill Borchers ran his varsity cagers through a final practice session Wednesday afternoon, rounding them into shape for a trip into the Palouse hills this weekend where they engage Washington State college.

The Ducks put in quite a bit of time working on offensive patterns. Borchers practiced with a first unit consisting of Jerry

High Pointer

BARNEY HOLLAND, Oregon's senior guard, ranks eighth on the list of Northern Division scorers, according to Pacific Coast conference statistics. Last year he amassed a .380 shooting percentage from the floor.

Ross and Ed Halberg at forwards, Max Anderson at the pivot, and Kenny Wegner and Barney Holland at the guard slots.

Wegner and Ross showed no effects of the ankle injuries that hampered them during the Idaho series last week.

Rex Davis, junior from Milwaukie, Ore., was back in training after a period of ineligibility, putting the squad at top physical

Team Leaves Early

Oregon's basketball quintet left at 6:45 this morning on Southern Pacific's Cascade train for a pair of contests in Pullman, Wash., with the WSC Cougars.

The team will arrive in Spokane at 10:35 this evening and stay all night there. They will depart for Pullman by bus early Friday morning where they will hold a light workout in Washington State's Bohler gymnasium.

strength for the Pullman invasion.

WSC and Oregon are currently deadlocked with the other three Northern Division teams with 1 win and 1 loss. Oregon has shown the most potent offense in the northwest during the young season, but Washington State has demonstrated the second best defense.

Third Year

DUCK BOSS, Bill Borchers, in his third year at the Oregon basketball helm, has coached his Webfoots to two unexpected second place finishes in conference action. He, himself, played basketball for Oregon in 1940-41.

DU's Topple SAE In Handball Clash

Delta Upsilon's handball squad eliminated Sigma Alpha Epsilon from the intramural handball tournament yesterday with a 3-0 triumph.

In single's action Sam Kent downed Carl VomClegg 17-21, 21-3, and 21-19 and Bruce Blackledge defeated Don Lewis. Delta Upsilon's double team easily won over George McElveny and Jay Withington of SAE by 21-5 and 21-4 scores.

Halbrook on Top In Statistic List

LOS ANGELES, January 14 — Oregon State's giant sophomore, Wade Halbrook, has jumped into an early lead in three statistical departments but is closely pressed by several others, according to Northern Division basketball figures released today by the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

Only in scoring does the 7-foot 3-inch center have a commanding lead. He averaged 30 points a game in his first two conference outings with 22 field goals and 16 free throws for a total of 60 points.

Ron Bennink, Washington State, heads a host of others who are hitting at a heavy clip, yet are far off Halbrook's pace. Bennink has a 20.5 average followed by Ed Halberg, Oregon, 18.5; Dwight Morrison, Idaho, 15.8, and Don Tripp, Washington, 15.0

Top Marksman

Halbrook tops the list of marksmen from the floor with 57.9 per cent on field goals having hit 22 of 38 tries. Halberg is just a shade behind with 57.2 per cent with Ron Robins, Oregon State, third, 56.2 per cent. Halbrook also is the No. 1 rebounder, again by a narrow margin, with 14 a game to 13.5 for Max Anderson, Oregon; 10.5 for Halberg and 10.3 for Morrison.

Halberg, Oregon's lanky forward, has the best free throw mark with 92.9 per cent on 13 points in 14 tries. Bennink is second ranked with 88.3 per cent and Harlan Melton, Idaho, third, 81.3 per cent.

Oregon State leads as a team in field goal marksmanship with 42.2 per cent while Washington State has the best free throw mark, 60.9 per cent. Oregon State has shown the best rebound game, having picked off 70 to its opponents 43. Oregon leads in scoring with a 67.0 average and Washington has the best defense, 50.0.

The Northern Division currently is in a 5-way tie, with all teams knotted at .500. The title race should begin to take shape this weekend with Oregon State meeting Washington in Seattle and Oregon facing Washington State in Pullman. Both are two-game series.

Oregon Ranks High

Other University of Oregon players among the top twelve scorers in the conference are Anderson, sixth, Barney Holland, eighth, and Bob Stout, 12th. Anderson and Stout are in a tie for fourth in the field goal percentages, each shooting away at a .500 clip.

Stout is the third Oregon player in the top five rebounders, placing fifth behind Halbrook, Anderson, Halberg and Morrison.

As a team, Oregon has the second best field goal percentage, .373.

Hale Kane, Barrister Inn, Susan Campbell Score Intramural Wins

Suzan Campbell, Hale Kane, and Barrister Inn A basketball quintets scored victories over Nestor hall, Alpha hall and Sigma hall in intramural action yesterday afternoon.

Tom Crabtree sparked his Suzan Campbell teammates to a 28-23 triumph over Nestor hall in a fast-moving opening contest. Suzan led by a 14-12 margin at halftime but Nestor battled back to knot the score at the end of the third five minute period, 18-18. Midway through the fourth quarter, James Lehl of Suzan Campbell swished a one-hander from the key to break a 22-22 deadlock. Crabtree followed with two free-throws before Spike Hillstrom potted a gift-loss for Nestor, making the score 26-23. A final basket by Bill Jonesners was second in the scoring column with 12 points while Lee Jackson, who played a fine all-around game, and Bill Deatheridge accounted for Alpha hall's entire total, each scoring 10 counters.

Barnes High Man

In the second contest, Hale Kane's tall team easily downed Alpha hall, 41-20. Six-foot, six-inch Emery Barnes had a field day for Hale Kane as he pushed 24 points through the hoop. Hale Kane had quarter leads of 12-6, 21-10 and 27-19 and was never threatened by the short but scrappy Alpha hallers. Pat O'Brien of the winners was second in the scoring column with 12 points while Lee Jackson, who played a fine all-around game, and Bill Deatheridge accounted for Alpha hall's entire total, each scoring 10 counters.

Barrister Inn defeated Sigma hall in the final game of the day by a 23-16 margin. The title was close all the way with Barrister pulling away in the fourth session after leading by only three points at the end of the third quarter, 17-14. Cameron potted 7 points for the winners while Bob Hedgecock led the losers with 6 markers.
