Wegner, Hawes Pace Friday Duck Triumph

Led by the clutch shooting of Ken Wegner and Bob Hawes, Oregon came on with a rush in the second half to down the hard-fighting Washington State college Cougars 75-73 Friday night in the first of a two-game ND basketball set.

Wegner was high for the Ducks with 18 points, including eight out of ten from the field and two free throws, and Hawes chipped in with seven points in the deciding quarter. But topping all scorers was Cougar Ron Bennink, a 6'1 junior from Linden, Wash., who counted 25 points.

Paced by Bennink, Jack Friel's cagers hopped to a 30-23 lead. Wegner hit for five for Oregon, but Bennink, who totaled 18 points in the first half, Bob Klock, and Al Perry all scored from way outside to boost the Cougars to 37-32. Jerry Ross deuced twice for Oregon as the half closed 45-38 in favor of WSC.

At the start of the second half Max Anderson, Ed Halberg and Wegner stuffed in baskets before Perry scored from 20 feet for WSC. Free throws by Barney Holland, Wegner, Anderson, a tip in by Ross and a two-hand set by Howard Page finally tied the score at 55-all with a 1:00 left in the third quarter.

Bob Stout layed in another basket for Oregon, but the Cougars led at the quarter's end on a doubleton by Rehder and singleton by Captain Bob Swanson.

Page hit on another set to begin the fourth quarter and Halberg added a free throw to give Oregon its first lead since the opening minutes. Bennink and Perry put in gifters for a 60-all tie, but Bob Hawes, who went into the game very late in the third period, found the range on a 35-foot one-hander to give Oregon a lead it never relinquished.

Wegner added two on a jump, Hawes scored two more fielders and a free throw, and Anderson contributed a charity toss for a 70-65 Duck lead.

Bennink and Rehder put in baskets for WSC, but Wegner counted a lay-in and Holland a free throw and the Ducks went into a freeze with 2:42 left with the score 73-71. The stall lasted till 0:45 when Swanson intercepted a pass and soloed in for the cripple and a 73-all tie. Here the clutch-shooting Wegner came back to sink another layin and give the game to the Ducks. Bennink and Perry shot for the Cougars in the closing seconds but failed to connect.

Final shooting averages were .547 for Oregon on a phenomenal 29 for 53 and .360 for WSC on 27 for 75. The Cougars shot only eight for 34 in the second half.

The high-scoring Bennink hit nine field goals but took 25 shots and exactly equaled the overall Washington State average of .360. Rehder added 14 to the WSC cause and Perry chipped in with 11.

The entire Webfoot team shot at a good pace. Halberg hit four for nine, Page four for seven, Anderson two for five, Wegner eight for ten, Holland four for ten, Ross three for five, Stout one for two, and Hawes three for five.

Houses Reminded To Pay Insurance

Men's living organizations participating in intramural ball have been reminded by the office of student affairs to obtain their accident insurance, if they have not done so already.

Cost of the insurance is $3 per term, and organizations wishing coverage are urged to pay $6, which will provide for the rest of the school year. Checks should be made payable to the Intramural Accident Reimbursement fund.

KWAX to Feature Request Program

Student requests will be featured on the KWAX Thursday evening program beginning next Thursday according to the SU radio publicity committee.

A request box for this purpose will be placed in the SU lobby, and the committee asked those making requests to mention a reason for it.

Oregon Ties for First With Win on Saturday

University of Oregon finds itself in a pleasant position after two weeks of Northern Division basketball action. The Ducks are tied with Oregon State for the league lead, and have just completed a two game sweep of a dangerous invasion into the Inland Empire.

The 65-56 victory over Washington State Saturday night marked the sixth straight victory over the Cougars during the last two years. The Ducks now return home to the Willamette valley where they prepare for Washington's Huskies who gave Oregon State two bad nights before finally falling to the Beavers by three and 12 point margins.

The Oregon squad, which barely squeaked past the Cougars Friday night, was much improved in their second encounter, while the WSC performances fell off.

Anderson Shines

Max Anderson, Coach Bill Borchers' prize sophomore in the pivot slot, had one of his best nights, garnering 15 points. Eleven of these came from the free throw stripe where Big Max connected on 11 out of 13 attempts.

Ed Halberg, pogo-stick forward, captured high point honors, however, with a 20 point output. Driving Kenny Wegner completed Oregon's "Big 3", amassing an even 10 markers.

Coach Jack Friel's home lads started like a ball of fire, and held the lead until Barney Holland canned a hook shot late in the first canto. The score switched back and forth five more times before Oregon finally took over for good.

Fast Break Smoother

The Ducks' fast break was smoother, and their ball handling was more accurate in the easy triumph.

Oregon lost a chance to gain undisputed possession of first place in the division when Oregon State fought off a late rally by University of Washington in Seattle, to win, 54-51.

OSC's Wade "Swede" Halbrook, failed to hit double figures for the first time this year. The 7'3" giant was covered by a blanket of Huskies all night and managed only one field goal over the whole distance.

OREGON-HAWAII TOUR of 1954

An Invitation...

... is cordially extended to all University of Oregon Co-eds, University housemothers, and friends to attend a meeting on Tuesday, Jan. 19th, at 7:00 p.m. at Sigma Kappa House, 851 East 15th.

We would like to show you Matson's film on the Lurline and Hawaii and we'd like to answer any questions regarding our tour.

As you know, the OREGON-HAWAII TOUR is arranged especially for the co-eds at OREGON, even though we have always had a few members from other schools in the state. This is not a "mass production" affair but a small group of congenial members who will live in the nicest part of Waikiki Beach, and return as a group on the LURLINE.

Our Tour leader, Mrs. Thomas Graves, of Sigma Kappa Sorority, has proved her ability as a guide and counselor in the two previous years that she has lead the group. We want you to meet Mrs. Graves, and to meet us—Tuesday night at 7:00 p.m.
