

Oregon's Halberg Tops in Shooting; Ducks Rate High

Ron Bennink, Washington State's high-g geared point producer, and Oregon's Ed Halberg, who connects with the accuracy of a top secret bomb sight, have taken the spotlight from Oregon State center Wade Halbrook in the hectic Northern Division race, it was disclosed today by figures from the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

The statistics for games through January 16 showed Bennink had taken over the scoring lead with a 21 point average after four games, to 20.8 for the 7-foot 3-inch Halbrook. Bennink had 29 field goals and 26 free throws in his point total. Halberg ranked third with a 16.8 average while Dwight Morrison, Idaho, had 15.8 and Tony Vlastelica, Oregon State 13.3.

New Record

Halberg set a new Division game record last weekend when he dropped 9 of 11 floor shots for journeys to Moscow for a show-down series Friday and Saturday night with Idaho, while Oregon, tied for the lead with the Beavers, entertains Washington in Eugene.

Four Among Top 12

Other Oregon players among the top 12 scorers are Anderson, sixth with 12.3; Holland, ninth with 11; and Ken Wegner, 11th with 10.3.

In other departments, Howard Page is fifth and Wegner seventh in free throw percentages; and Halberg is fourth among the rebounders.

Sherries, PiKAs, Beta Theta Pi Score Intramural Cage Victories

Wednesday's intramural basketball results saw Sherry Ross grab B, Beta Theta Pi A and Pi Kappa Alpha A cage quintets roll up victories over French hall B, Chi Psi A and Pi Kappa Phi A, respectively.

Billy Stoner and Jim Davis led Sherry Ross to a 30-22 triumph over the French hallers in the only tied at 11-11 at the end of the first half but Sherry Ross grabbed B of the day. The score was tied a slim one-point lead by the finish of the third five-minute canto. At this point, Stoner and Davis, together, poured ten of Sherry Ross's twelve last quarter points through the hoop to pull away from their rivals.

Beta Theta Pi's A squad grabbed its second straight victory by dumping Chi Psi, 37-21. Chi Psi scored first but after that it was all Beta the rest of the way in a walk-a-way contest which was marred by numerous fouls. Gordon Dahlquist, the Beta's speed merchant guard, poured 11 points through the hoop and was followed by teammates Norm Fenton and Norm Forbes, both collecting 10 counters.

In the final clash of the day, Pi Kappa Alpha A downed Pi Kappa Phi, 28-25 in a tight ball game which saw the lead change hands several times. High point man for the contest was Rines of the Pi-KA's, with 11 while Pete Tyerman potted 11 for the losers.

Free Toss Marks Fall to WSC Man

Two free throw records of former Oregon basketball players were broken Tuesday night when Bill Rehder of WSC took 26 shots at the hoop from the free throw line and connected on 16 of them.

The record for most free throws attempted by any Northern Division player in one game used to be held by Oregon's Chet Noe, who set the mark in 1953.

The record for most free throws made in one contest was held jointly by Oregon's Bob Peterson, (1951) and OSC's Roy Pflugrad, (1938).

The new record came about as a result of Washington State's screening offense which was supposed to have protected high scoring Ron Bennink.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

We didn't like the pretty hat
That I had set my heart on;
No argument on Luckies, though—
We buy them by the carton!

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES

A comprehensive survey—based on 31,000 student interviews and supervised by college professors—shows that smokers in colleges from coast to coast prefer Luckies to all other brands! The No. 1 reason: Luckies' better taste!

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

You may be from a northern state;
You may be from Kentucky;
But, nation-wide, here's one good tip:
Be Happy and Go Lucky!
