Inter-Varsity

Christian Fellowship

The inter-denominational group is resuming its Tuesday evening weekly meetings for all interested students and faculty members. Tuesday at 7 p. m. a group of Oregon State college students will be here to take charge of the meeting.

Christian House

Tonight there will be an open house at Christian house.

Saturday, a work party will take place under the leadership of the chapel committee, with Roger Weaver, freshman in liberal arts, serving as chairman, to renovate the room that is being made into a prayer chapel.

Sunday morning Bible study is at 9:45, preceded by the donut hour at 9:15. The 5:30 p. m. fellowship discussion will be launched by Francis Dart, assistant professor of physics, who will speak on the topic, "Is Man Perfectable?"

The second International Fireside will be at 9 p. m. Sunday with Jalal-Uddin Ahmed of Pakistan, speaking. Bob Griffith, sophomore in political science, is in charge as chairman.

Hillel

Hillel held an informal fireside Tuesday evening at which Rabbi Joshua Stampfer spoke and led an enlightening discussion.

Paul B. Means, head of the religion department, will be the next speaker on the Hillel lecture series for winter quarter.

Wesley House

The subject for the Koinonia Klass, which meets at 9:45 a. m. Sunday, in the First Methodist church, is "The Message of Amos," in the topic of "The Prophet Motive." Those who wish rides from the campus are to meet at Gerlinger hall at 9:30 a. m. "Belief in Judgement" is the topic of the 11 o'clock sermon.

Sunday at 6 p. m. in Gerlinger hall, a light supper will precede a program on "Jesus' View and Use of Prayer," led by Rev. Ken Peterson. Nick Parker will be worship leader.

The Tuesday evening potluck will be held in the sunporch on the second floor of Gerlinger hall at 5:30. Dick Brown, freshman in liberal arts, will present "Music in the Church," at 6:30 p. m.

Thursday from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. there will be choir practice in the Wesley room of Gerlinger.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight after the game, there will be a chili feed at the foundation.

Sunday at 9 a. m. a coffee hour will occur, followed by a Bible class led by Rev. Thom Hunter, who will complete a study of the Book of Isaiah. A student-led vesper service at 6 p. m. will be followed by an exposition, "The Propriety of Miracles." A social hour with refreshments will be held afterwards.

Enrollment Up At Portland State

Winter term enrollment at Portland State college is 21 per cent higher than the figure for the same term last year, it was reported Wednesday.

Total enrollment at PSC is 1605. Of that figure, 1206 are men. Enrolled in night classes at the extension service are 2721, an increase of 100 from last year.

Monday Cast Meeting Called for 'Richard II'

There will be a meeting of the entire cast of "Richard II" Monday at 7:30 p. m. preceding the other Monday evening rehearsal, said Mrs. Otilie Seybolt, who will direct Shakespeare's historical work.

A list of the final cast for women's roles will be posted on the bulletin board opposite the speech office on the second floor of Villard hall.

Architecture Series Features 'Concrete'

"Concrete and Its Finishing," will be the second in a series of discussion topics sponsored by the Producers' council in arrangement with the school of architecture Monday at 3:30 p. m. in Architecture 138.

Representatives from Trinity White Cement Co., Master Builders Co. and L. Sonderson Sons, Inc., will participate in the panel.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Petitions for chairmanships for the Women's Recreation Association carnival are now being called for, according to Sally Stadelman, WRA publicity chairman. They are to be turned in at the cage in the women's locker room at Gerlinger hall by Wednesday. Feb. 28 has been set as the carnival date.

A special eight page Dad's Day edition of the Emerald will be published Saturday morning and distributed on campus and to the living organizations.
