

All-Star Selection

KENNY WEGNER, who alternates from the forward to guard position, is the only returning player from the 1952-53 Northern Division All-Star team. He is captain for the Webfoot quint, and leads the Ducks' famous fast break. He is a senior from Portland.

Oregon, Huskies Set for Contest

Holland has often been called the bread and butter man of the Oregon team. One of the coolest players on the Pacific Coast, Holland is also a great competitor. He shoots well both from a distance and close in and many times this season he has walked off with high point honors for his team. Barney is one of the best defensive men on the team and to him will probably go the tough assignment of guarding Washington Captain, Don Tripp.

Other Oregon players who will no doubt see much action this weekend and will be counted on for added scoring punch are forwards Bob Stout, Kent Dorwin, and Ray Bell; center Bob Glaves; and guards Howard Page, Jerry Ross, and Bob Hawes.

After the Washington series the Ducks will be idle until Friday and Saturday nights, January 29 and 30, when they play their traditional rival, O. S. C., in a two game set.

"GREETINGS, DAD!"

said the Duck as he held out his wing for a fin.

"It's swell that you could visit our pond. You'll find that we hate to splash around going to classes but we sure get a charge out of flying around to our various extra-curricular activities."

Among these activities there is one unscheduled but participated in by all the Ducks in the know. It's a jaunt out to

Duck Wrestlers Vie With MAC Saturday

Oregon's varsity wrestling team, enthusiastic after last week's win over Lewis and Clark, are finishing their final drills before tackling the Multnomah Athletic club this Saturday at 2:30 at McArthur Court. Dads are cordially invited to witness these matches as they will prove interesting and enjoyable.

The Multnomah Club boasts a fine previous record and will field a few of last year's Far Western champions. Herb Haberlach, MAC's heavyweight, is one of the nation's top wrestlers; two years ago he appeared in the Olympic championships in Europe. Paul Buhler and Lloyd Mendenhall are also outstanding wrestlers on MAC's wrestling team.

The probable lineup for the MAC will be 130 lb. — Art Solum; 137 — Larry Day; 157 — Lane Goodell; 167 — Art Whitbeck; 177 — Paul Buhler or Lloyd Mendenhall; 191 — Bill Mosby; and heavyweight — Herb Haberlach.

The Oregon grapplers have been going through rugged drills all week and will undoubtedly want to win this match. Oregon's tentative men will be: 130 lb. — Klampe; 137 — Bob Williams; 147 — Bob Shirley; 157 — Roland Wilson; 167 — John Woyat; and Heavyweight — Dick Barker.

Next week the Oregon varsity and freshmen will meet the Oregon State mat team in Mac Court.

Webfoots Swim Next Saturday

University of Oregon's swimming team under Coach John Borchardt continue their splashing antics as they ready for their dual meet with the Multnomah Athletic club here in Eugene, January 30.

The swimming team, dropping down to seven members, consists of Harry Fuller, Henry Kaiura, Phil Lewis, John English, Jerry Froebe, Yogi Matsushima, and Orlando Mathias. Froebe and Matsushima are the only two up from last years Frosh squad. The other five, although lettermen last year, lack the conference experience that some of the past Oregon teams have had. Coach Borchardt exclaimed "This is a build-up year for Oregon."

In individual placement, Fuller, Lewis and Mathias head in the sprint events; English and Kaiura in the individual medley events; English, converted from back stroke to breast stroke, and Fuller in the distance events. Although eligibility and personal showing have yet to prevail, these will be the probable events in which these swimmers will be seen in the coming meet.

UO Ad Groups Plan Promotion

A county-wide promotion of National Advertising Recognition week is being planned by members of Alpha Delta Sigma, men's professional advertising fraternity, and Gamma Alpha Chi, women's professional advertising sorority.

Gordon Rennie, president of ADS, reports that plans include radio announcements, newspaper advertisements, billboard displays, advertising cards in the local buses, and downtown store window displays.

Cooperation is expected from local service clubs where speakers from ADS and GAX will give talks on the importance of advertising in our society.

IM Office Says Eagles are Illegal

Legal Eagles, intramural basketball team, made up of law students, has been playing illegally in intramural action. They have been playing the same team in "A" games as in their "B" games, except in the latter contests the hoopers play under an assumed name. The names they are using are the names of the law professors.

Last Tuesday's game between the Eagles' "B" squad and Campbell Club, played under protest, is where the IM department finally caught up with them.
