

Waffle Breakfast Set for Saturday

The annual YWCA waffle breakfast will be held Saturday, Jan. 30, at 9:30 a. m. in the YW lounge, Gerlinger hall.

Featured at the "waffle splash" which is for all university women, will be a style show. Girls from the four commissions of the organization will model clothes from Kaufman Bros. of Eugene. Admission will be 50 cents.

Betty Anderson and Sally Allen are co-chairmen of the event, with the four commissions making up their committees. The religion and worship commission, under Connie Long, is handling publicity. The service commission, led by Cynthia Vincent, is in charge of the style show. Arrangements for food, serving, and clean-up are being made by the international relations commission, under the direction of Sally Calkins. The public affairs commission, led by Luanne McClure, will provide decorations and handle ticket sales.

College Capers...

From Coast to Coast

By Tina Fisk
Emerald Exchange Editor

Underclassmen at Centenary college staged a new kind of raid this fall... a beanie raid. Freshmen hid beanies and scrambled other possessions of the upperclassmen who had gone to a meeting.

The Iowa State Daily commented about Homecoming. "Lest it be a tradition, it's not Homegoing." The remark was directed at "students who love their school so much that they can hardly wait for the weekend, homecoming or otherwise to make tracks for home."

Honors Students To Hear Tugman

William Tugman, Eugene Register-Guard editor, will speak to sophomore honors students at a coffee hour Wednesday at 4 p. m. in the Student Union dad's lounge.

"Ways of Weighing and Considering - Senator McCarthy and His Actions" will be Tugman's topic. The Register-Guard editor was a member of the committee of newspaper publishers and editors who reviewed a recent incident involving McCarthy and the editor of the New York Post.

All sophomore honors students have been urged to attend the coffee hour, according to Vivienne Brown, secretary of the planning committee. A fee of ten cents will be charged for refreshments.

Traffic Delegates Hold Annual Meet

Approximately 70 delegates from Oregon have registered for the third annual traffic court conference, which opened on campus Monday.

The meeting, scheduled to run through Wednesday, is being sponsored jointly by the school of law and the General Extension Division of the state system of higher education. Also participating are the American Bar Association and the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University.

This afternoon's session will deal with "The Drunken Driver". Robert Y. Thorton, state attorney general will preside and James Economos, Chicago, director of the traffic court program for the American Bar Association; Dr. E. D. Furrer, Eugene pathologist, and John W. Pennington, Eugene city attorney, will participate.

The morning session today opened with a discussion on "Traffic Legislation: Uniform Tickets: City and State Problems," presided over by H. R. Jordan, Ashland municipal judge.

"The Speeding Driver" will open Wednesday's meetings. At this session, a demonstration of the use of radar for detection of speeding will be presented under the direction of Clyde Warren, Salem police chief.

John L. Barber, Eugene municipal judge will preside at the discussion. Chris Kowitz and Tom Churchill, Salem city attorney and assistant city attorney, respectively, will discuss legal problems concerning the use of radar in this way.

Franklin M. Kreml, director of the Traffic Institute, will speak at the luncheon at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday on "Traffic Law Enforcement: Police and Court."

Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry will preside over the final session on "Traffic Court Procedure" Wednesday afternoon. Also participating in the last meeting will be Economos, and Alvin J. Gray, Bend attorney.

Psychology Professor Schedules Coffee Hour

S. R. Pinneau, assistant professor of psychology, will be the featured speaker at the Friday evening coffee hour in the Student Union browsing room, sponsored by the SU browsing room committee.

Pinneau will speak on "Sullivan's: The Interpersonal Theory of Psychiatry" at 7:45 p. m.

Coffee will be served during the discussion period following the lecture. The lecture is one of a series of weekly Friday evening coffee hours.

Hunter Slates Song Tryouts

Tryouts for the singing-dancing chorus for the University theater's musical production of "One Touch of Venus" will be held Wednesday at 4 p. m., said Frederick J. Hunter, instructor in speech, who will direct the modern musical comedy.

Ten to twelve men and women will be cast in the chorus, Hunter said. The musical, which will open April 23, was written by S. J. Perleman and Ogden Nash with music by Kurt Weil.

Special 'Squeeze' Music, Show Set

The "Four Shades of Rhythm" will furnish the music for the annual Lemon Orange Squeeze to be held in the Student Union ballroom Saturday night after the Oregon - Oregon State basketball game.

Intermission entertainment will include a tap dance by Donna Aaris, freshman in art, two vocals by Ann Stearns, freshman in music, and Bob Kelly, sophomore in liberal arts, will furnish novelty piano numbers. Boyd Harris, freshman in art, will be the master of ceremonies.

Admission to the dance is free, according to Stewart Johnson, SU dance publicity committee chairman.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

I've tried so many cigarettes,
All brands from A to Z—
But nothing beats that better taste:
It's Lucky Strike for me!

Charlene Bernstein
State University of Iowa

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

If you're the kind of guy that hates to see his money partin', Here's a tip to save you dough: Buy Luckies by the carton!

Allison Danzig
Cornell

Where's your jingle?
It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles—and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

In all the campus coffee shops where students congregate, You'll hear this oft-repeated phrase: "Smoke Luckies—they taste great!"
