Newman Club

"Basic Requirements for the Development of a Christian Character," will be the topic discussed at the Newman club meeting Sunday, beginning at 7 p. m. with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the chapel of Sacred Heart hospital. A social hour in the recreation room will follow the meeting.

Wesley House

Merilyn Fullerton, sophomore in education, has invited all Wesley students to her home for refreshments following the game Saturday. Those planning to attend should meet in front of Gerlinger hall immediately after the game.

In Sunday's Koinonia Klass at 9:45 a. m. the prophet motive of Hosea will be discussed by Ken Peterson, junior in education. Those who wish a ride to the class at First Methodist church should meet in front of Gerlinger hall at 9:30 a. m. The sermon by Rev. Farris at 9:45 and 11 a. m. will be "Belief in the Holy Spirit." At 6 p. m. in Gerlinger hall, the worship workshop led by Jackie Meadows, a sophomore in sociology, will present "Obstacles to a Meaningful Personal Prayer Life." A light supper will be served before the program. Helen Hall, freshman in liberal arts, is in charge of worship for the evening.

Tuesday evening, W. S. Baldinger, associate professor of art and curator of the Oriental Arts Museum, will talk on "Religion and Art." Ted Goh, junior in journalism, is in charge of the worship for that evening.

Stan Ruckman, freshman in architecture, will direct the Wednesday noon chapel service. Those attending are to bring sack lunches.

The Wesley choir, under Betty Peterson's direction, will practice from 6:30 to 7:30 Thursday.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 6 those wishing to go to the game at Corvallis are to meet at Westminster house, where transportation will be provided. Call 4-4143 before 4 p. m. today if you plan to go.

Coffee hour begins at 9 a. m. Sunday, followed by a Bible class on the Book of Isaiah, led by Rev. Thom Hunter. At the 6 p. m. vesper service, Hunter will discuss "The Probability of Miracles." A social hour with refreshments will follow.

Wednesday at 12:30 Myrla Thomas, junior in liberal arts, will lead a chapel service. That evening at 5:30 the fellowship supper will feature Francis Dart, assistant professor of physics, who will speak on "A Time for Greatness."

Canterbury Club

Sunday evening Rev. Robert Ellis will present another inquirer's forum in a series of lectures following the order of instruction for confirmation. The topic is "The Church and the Fall of the Empire." Preceding an informal supper at 6 p. m., there will be a service of evening prayer at St. Mary's Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Pearl streets.

Christian House

Tonight at 7:15, students are to meet at Christian house to go in a group to the Northwest Christian college symposium.

Saturday, starting at 10 a. m., there will be a work party to continue throughout the day. A noon lunch will be served for 25 cents. Doug Calef, sophomore in liberal arts, is chairman for this activity.

Sunday morning at 9:15, the regular doughnut hour will take place, followed by a class taught by Victor Morris, acting president of the University. Also beginning this Sunday is a married students' class led by Clarence Elliott.

That evening at 5:30, following a worship service, Rev. Charles Epple of the United Lutheran church, will speak on "Is Man Sinful by Nature?" After the evening church services, another formal international fireside will be held, with Hanny Gallusser of Switzerland as the guest.

Tuesday at 6:15 p. m. there will be a married students' potluck. Host and hostess for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chaney. Mrs. Hjalmer Rathe will show colored slides of her European trip.

Wednesday at 6 p. m. there will be an all-student potluck. Libby Briscoe is chairman of the event. Executive council will meet immediately following the dinner.

Civic Orchestra Concert Monday

The first performance of the Eugene Civic orchestra will be presented Monday night at 8:15 in the Eugene high school auditorium. Admission to the concert, which is open to all of those interested in attending, will be free.

Composed of University students and townspeople, the orchestra was started last fall. Edmund Cykler, professor of music, directs the group.

The program for Monday's concert includes "Symphony 88 in G Major" by Haydn; "Caprica Espanol," by Rimsky-Korsakov, and the "Prelude to the Meistersingers," by Wagner.

Also on the program will be a soprano solo by Exine M. Anderson, assistant professor of voice. Miss Anderson will sing arias from Massenet's opera "The Cid," and from Verdi's "Aida."

OSC 'Goose' Fest Slated After Game

All Oregon students attending tonight's basketball game in Corvallis have been invited to attend the Oregon State college AWS carnival, "Mother Goose Midway." The Midway is scheduled to open at the Oregon State armory at 9:30 p. m.

General admission to the carnival will be 30 cents. Various OSC women's living organizations will construct booths around themes such as Humpty-Dumpty, Jack be Nimble and Old Mother Hubbard.
