

Biography Essay Contest Offers Tuition Scholarship

A four year tuition scholarship is being offered by the American Institute of Management to the student writing the best biographical essay of a living American.

This scholarship may be used at any American college or university. Students already enrolled in college are eligible. If a college student should win, he will be reimbursed for prior tuition.

Four other prizes will be offered to the runners-up. Second prize will be $500; third, $300; fourth, $200 and fifth, $150.

Members of the American Institute of Management's board of directors will judge the entries. Both style and content will be considered. The winning essay will be published in "National Biographic," a publication sponsored by the American Institute of Management and the educational division of "Who's Who in America."

Rules for the contest include:

1. Biographies submitted in the competition must be about a person listed in either the current

"Who's Who in America" (1952-1953, Volume 27) or the succeeding edition (Volume 28, to be in circulation by March 1,) and should emphasize that person's contribution to society.

2. Manuscripts should be from the urged that all of them be in attendance.

6,000 to 8,000 words in length, and should be submitted in triplicate by May 15 in order to be considered for next year's award. They should be typewritten, double or triple spaced, on 8 1/2 by 11 inch paper.

3. All manuscripts should be addressed to: Scholarship committee, American Institute of Management, 125 East 38th Street, New York 16, New York.

4. All students who decide to compete for the scholarship are requested to signify such intention in writing to the Institute, on or before March 15 and to designate at the time the subject of the biography. Only a letter of notification is required.

5. All entries shall become the absolute property of the Institute and may be used by it in any manner whatever.

Senate Passes Screening Plan

DuShane said the department of internal revenue recommended that athletic cards be revoked on first violation, but the athletic department requested that cards be revoked only after a second offense.

Reports Accepted

A motion was passed authorizing the senate to work with sponsoring groups to complete the questionnaires on World University Service, (formerly W. S. S. F.). WUS is conducting a survey at 30 colleges to determine whether or not international relations are actually being furthered by the drives.

The senate accepted a report by Dick Bruce, graduate representative, on housing of visitors for such events as Duck Preview, the high school press conference and the international relations conference. A motion was passed creating a committee to assist university officials in housing.

Cosmo Club Meet Slated for Tonight

Cosmopolitan club will meet tonight at 8 at Plymouth house, 18th and Ferry, with featured entertainment by Edith Rosario, graduate student in business.

Jesus Untalan, sophomore in business, will present dances of Guam, and the group will plan their ski trip to Willamette pass. The ski trip will be for members only, and is to be held Feb. 13.

Foreign Language Sessions Slated for Informal Practice

Anyone who speaks Spanish, French, German or Italian can have conversational practice at informal get-togethers on the campus. J. B. DeVine, instructor in romance languages, has announced.

Foreign language luncheon tables are for the benefit of students who want to develop their speaking abilities, according to DeVine.

"We'd like to encourage people who speak these languages as natives to come," he said. Students are invited especially to the Charle Espanola, which is held upstairs in the College Side Fridays at 4 p. m.

Table hours scheduled include Spanish, Monday at noon, Student Union; Italian: Tuesday at noon, College Side; French: Wednesday at noon, and German, Friday at noon, SU.

Variety Feature Of 'Friday at 4'

Featured on today's Friday at 4 will be Cece Inman, playing the accordion; Bill Hathaway, singing and accompanying himself on the piano; Jeff Davis, singing and playing the guitar; the Dixie Land Band and Marilyn Patterson, doing a monologue.

Mary Gerlinger, freshman in liberal arts and Don Smith, a special student are in charge of this weeks program. Stan Smith, junior in speech, will be the master of ceremonies.
