

Educational Movies to Show Foreign Summer Dances of Different Countries Sessions Offered

Six movies depicting dance and music in several countries are on the program for the educational movies series tonight in Commonwealth 138.

"Dance Festival," a movie showing successful contestants sent to the International Dance Festival in London are shown performing dances of the Ukraine, Caucasus, Uzbekistan and Armenia is the first show on the agenda.

Traditional Russian ballet is performed by the Ensemble of the Leningrad State Academy Theater of Opera and Ballet in the film "Bayaderka Ballet." Another film to be shown is Satin Slippers, a record of the history and growth of ballet in Australia.

The fourth movie to be shown is "Leningrad Music Hall," which presents the music, dance, and theater arts of the Russian people. The last two movies to be shown are "Accordion Serenade" and "The People Dance." The latter movie presents such dances as the slow tempo of the Indian religious dance, the pioneer's quadrille, old world folk dances, the art from the ballet, square dances and modern jive.

There will be two showings of these movies, at 7 and 9 p. m., according to Pamela Rabens, SU Movie committee publicity chairman. Admission is free.

Two separate overseas college summer sessions and conducted student tours in Europe will be offered by the modern language department of the University of San Francisco this summer.

Schools in beginning, intermediate and advanced Spanish and Spanish history and folklore will be held at Zacatecas, Mexico, and Segovia, Spain, running from June 28 to July 31.

A western Europe tour conducted by Luigi Sandri, professor of Romance languages, will include: France, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Belgium, Holland and England. This group will leave Quebec on July 1, returning there on Sept. 6.

For further information, write to the modern language department at the University of San Francisco.

ROTC Rifle Team Takes First Win

The Oregon ROTC varsity rifle team entered the winners' circle by picking up their first win of the season in Willamette Valley League small-bore competition against Junction City Rifle Club.

Total scores for the match were 791 points for Junction City against 902 points for the University team. Richard Buffington, sophomore in pre-dentistry, was high for Oregon hitting a score of 191.

UO Student Mural On Webfoot Wall

A new mural by Neil Tardio, graduate student in architecture and allied arts, is now being featured in the Webfoot restaurant, formerly Dell's Inn, next to the Mayflower theater.

The mural depicts campus life, activities, building and education all in a modern theme. It is done in bright colors in rubber base paint. The mural, Tardio's first, took about a month to complete.

It is situated in the room which the varsity and freshmen teams use as training tables.

The Webfoot is now under the management of James J. Metz.
