Wesley House

Sunday at 9:45 a.m., the college-age Koinonia Klass will learn of the teachings of the prophet Isaiah. Rides to the First Methodist church are furnished from Gerlinger hall at 9:30. The sermon by Rev. Berlyn Farris at 9:45 and 11 a.m. will be "Belief in Forgiveness." At 6 p.m. there will be a light supper at Wesley house, followed by a worship workshop, led by Rev. Bob Burtner of Trinity Methodist church. "The Place of Public Prayer" will be discussed. Byron Turner is in charge of the worship service for the evening.

Tuesday evening in the Gerlinger hall sunporch, there will be a potluck dinner followed by a panel discussion of "Understanding Our World Community," at 6:15. Education will be the focal point of the panel members who are Husam Al-Dahi, Iraq; Ephraim Layode, Nigeria; Mitsugu Sakihara, Okinawa; and Paul ten Hove, The Netherlands. Crystal Hecker, freshman in liberal arts, will serve as worship leader.

Wednesday at 12:30, Marilyn Fullerton, sophomore in education, will lead the Wesley chapel service.

Wesley choir will rehearse from 6:30 to 7:30 Thursday. These practices are open to anyone who wishes to sing.

Next Friday, there will be a skating and swimming party at Benton Lane park. The group will leave Gerlinger hall at 7 p.m.

Christian House

Tonight there will be an informal "Hearts" party at Christian house.

Donut hour at 9:15 a.m. Sunday will be followed by two study classes. Victor P. Morris, acting president of the University, will teach the regular college class and Clarence Elliott, dormitory foods storekeeper, will teach the class for married and graduate students. At the evening fellowship hour beginning at 5:30, Charles Blackburn, a freshman in liberal arts, will show colored slides of his trip to Greece and Palestine. The international fireside at 9 p.m. will feature as its guest Agnes Weitz from Germany. Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. the executive council will meet.

The annual Valentine formal banquet is scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 20. It will take place in the Osburn hotel, with tickets available for $2. Ticket chairman is Al Busby; general chairman, Lyle Spears and publicity chairman, Jan Milton. The theme for the banquet is "Singing in the Rain."

Newman Club

"The Natural Law and Man's Happiness," will be the topic of discussion at the Sunday meeting of Newman club, which will meet at 7 p.m. in the chapel of Sacred Heart hospital, to begin with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. A social hour in the recreation room will follow the meeting. Newmanites are urged to attend and are also reminded of the 7 a.m. Mass held for their benefit each morning in the chapel. Confession is heard between 4:45 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. Saturdays.

Canterbury Club

Sunday, at St. Mary's Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Pearl streets, the inquirer's forum will feature Lansing E. Kempton, rector of Trinity church in Portland, who will report on his recent European tour. Kempton, a member of the board of examining chaplains of the Oregon diocese, is a examiner of church history in this diocese. At 6 p.m. there will be a service of evening prayer and an informal supper will precede the lecture.

According to Pat Hartley, president, the new pledges include speech students Laura Harper and Donna Ruth Joseph. From the school of music, Donna McQueen, Shirley Tobey, Helen Johnson, Donna Brewer, Frances Kasper, Jean Badorek and Glenna Pearl were pledged.

Amphibians Stage Annual Water Show 'Under the Big Top' Theme of Pageant

Circus clowns, trapeze artists, monkeys and elephants will cavort on campus next Thursday and Friday night, when Amphibians, women's swimming honorary, stages its annual water pageant, according to Sally Stadelman, Amphibian president.

The pageant is slated both nights for 8 p.m. at the Men's pool. Tickets are 80 cents and may be obtained from any Amphibian member who is in the pageant or before the show at the booth outside the pool.

The ten act production will center around the theme of "Under the Big Top," portraying various aspects of a circus. Special features will be a merry-go-round, clowns for the intermission act, and the use of black light in several of the numbers, said Miss Stadelman.

Red Cross Drive Slated For March

Each living organization should select a representative for the Red Cross fund drive, Co-chairmen Carol Huggins and Cynthia Long have urged. The representatives are to attend a meeting Feb. 27.

The drive will be held on campus from March 1 to 6. Goals will be set for each of the campus living organizations, the chairmen have announced. Donors of $1 or more will receive membership cards.
