

Phi Delts Roll to Win Over Susie Courtmen

The "Tall Kincaider's" of Phi Delta Theta loomed down and plucked the intramural "A" basketball championship from the grasp of Susan Campbell Hall as the Phi Delts downed the Susie basketball quintet 45-29 in the final game of the intramural basketball play-offs, Thursday afternoon.

Opening the championship game with a perfect undefeated record, the Phi Delts and the Susie's fought "tooth and toenail" for the first eight minute quarter and emerged in a 6-6 deadlock. In the second quarter the Phi Delts opened the quarter on a fast breaking lay-in to take a commanding lead of the scoring which they never relinquished. Led by the towering Bob Wagner, who was high scorer for the contest with fourteen counters, the Phi Delts widened the gap to a 20-15 half-time lead.

The opening of the third quarter and the halftime break had little if any effect on the Phi Delt five as they continued their scoring spree, outscoring the Susies twelve to eight in that quarter to hold a 32-23 third quarter margin.

Lutheran Five Wins Playoffs

The "rags-to-riches" Lutheran Student House basketball five stormed the championship heights last weekend and carried off two trophies in four games.

After a mediocre regular season in which they barely clinched eighth place and a playoff slot in the YMCA-Church League tournament, the Lutheran Student House caught fire and swept through to the Eugene-Springfield area championship.

In the quarter-finals they knocked off the second place team in the league, followed that up with a victory in the semis, and then astounded the hundreds of spectators at Eugene High school gym last Thursday night with an upset win over previously undefeated St. Mary's for the title. Up until that game St. Mary's had carved out a victory string of 20 straight games and had twice defeated Lutheran House during the regular season.

It was big Jack Heacock, former Springfield high star, who was the hammer in the Luther House offense. Big Jack poured in 30 points, 14 points, 22 points, and 28 points in the four game tournament run. Backing up Heacock in the scoring department was Dick Schlosstein, who, together with Jack, monopolized the backboards as well as the scoring column. Bud Backen, freshman wrestler from Roseburg, and Jimmy Johnson, second baseman on the Oregon baseball team rounded out the starting five along with Arnie Levin.

Seattle U. Enters N.C.A.A. Tourney

Seattle university's high-flying Chieftains became the first at-large team to be selected for this year's National Collegiate Athletic Association Basketball Tournament.

It was announced Wednesday afternoon that the Chiefs would play a first round game, March 8 or 9, against the Rocky Mountain conference champion, Idaho State. The winner of this game will earn the right to enter the N.C.A.A. Western Regional play-offs, scheduled for Corvallis' Gill Coliseum on March 12-13.

DU's, Phi Delts, Hale Kane Humiliated In 'B' Tourney Final

The Phi Delta Theta "B" team, within minutes after their big brothers had won the Intramural "A" title, won the intramural "B" basketball crown by defeating the Hale Kane basketball quintet 51-18.

The Hale Kane five, completely baffled by the Phi Delts tight zone defense, could not hold the strong scoring punch of the Phi Delts as they submitted the crown.

The Phi Delts, led by Pete Williams with ten points, built a commanding 13-3 first quarter lead and went on in the second quarter to build this lead to a commanding 25 - 11 mark. The third quarter showed the score as 41-16 with the Phi Delts holding a strong command.

Frosh Scrimmage

The Oregon Frosh basketball team held a full game scrimmage with Northwest Christian college Thursday afternoon and came out victorious in the tussle by a 90-58 score.

The Ducklings are practicing this week and will continue workouts next week for their final series of the season against the Oregon State Rooks, February 26-27.

Say Dad—Those Phi Delts are the most!

Seems as if the Ducks have here an organization that really lays golden eggs when it comes to intramurals. The other eggs are all right, but they don't seem to get in the baskets.

Speaking of eggs and athletes, you get some good hard boiled eggs with all the "trimmings" served by some athletes—depending on the hours Len Barrie and John Reed are on duty at

'Mural Bowling

Delta Upsilon, Phi Delta Theta, and Theta Chi continued to lead their respective leagues as the intramural bowling program neared its conclusion.

The DU'S are currently out in front in the Tuesday night league with a won-loss record of 16 and four. Hale Kane is second with 14 wins and five losses and Sigma Chi, the league's early pace-setter is resting in the third slot with a 13-7 mark.

Sam Sorenson of Phi Kappa Sigma is the circuit's leading pointgetter with a per game average of 170.

In the Wednesday evening league the Phi Delts have a full two game lead over the second place team. They have won 16 of their 20 games and are trailed by Delta Tau Delta, 14-6, and Pi Kappa Alpha, 12-8.

Champ Husted of the Pi Kaps is out in front in the individual scoring race with a per game average of 175. Husted's mark is also top one for all three leagues combined.

Theta Chi, undefeated until last week when they lost three out of four matches to Campbell Club, are still in front in the Thursday night league with 13 wins and three losses. The Campbell Clubbers are pressing them for the top spot with a 12 and four slate. Third place is at present held down by Alpha Tau Omega with a 10 won and six lost standing.
