Luther House

F. Clark, head of the education department at Monmouth college, will be at Luther House, 1376 Alder, for the weekly Sunday evening meeting. Formerly a professor at St. Olaf college, Northfield, Minn., his topic will be "The Christian Teacher." Lunch is served at 5:30 p. m. Worship and the speaker will follow.

Wednesday noon luncheon discussion this week will center on the Apostle's Creed, one of the five parts of the catechism. Bible study will be held as usual at 9 p. m. Thursday.

On February 28, no lunch will be served. Instead, a basket social (boys furnishing the baskets, girls doing the bidding) will take place. Proceeds will go to the support of the Luther house basketball team which is now planning for the regional YMCA tourney in Salem. The team has won both the city and district tournaments, and has won two trophies.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

A combined fellowship retreat for the OSC and UO chapters of Inter-Varsity Christian fellowship will be held Friday evening through Sunday afternoon at the conference grounds at Nelscott.

Paul Byer and Rosalind Rinker, Inter-Varsity staff members for the Pacific Northwest, will be the principal speakers for the retreat. The weekend program will be under the direction of the Oregon State chapter. Persons planning to attend the retreat should contact Harvey Richmond, 3-1321, no later than Friday afternoon for complete details.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 8 p. m. is game night at Westminster house, with a million and one games and Pronto Pups planned.

Sunday at 9 a. m. the usual coffee hour will be followed by the group's participation in the World Student Day of Prayer service, sponsored by the University Religious council, at Gerlinger hall, 9:45 a. m.

The vesper service at 6 p. m. at the house will be led by Ralph Beardsley and Nancy Quinn. Wilton Hartzler from the American Friends Service committee, will speak on "Summer Service Projects." A social hour with refreshments will follow.

Wednesday's 12:30 p. m. Chapel service will be led by Bob Dean. At the 5:30 fellowship supper, the guest speaker will be the Honorable William C. Perry, justice of the Oregon Supreme Court, who will speak on the topic, "The Layman Carries the Ball." A discussion period will follow.

Christian House

"Singing in the Rain," is the theme for Christian House's big social event of the year, to be held Saturday night at the Osburn hotel beginning at 6:30. The master of ceremonies for this formal banquet will be Al Busby, graduate student in history. Phyllis Bates, freshman in liberal arts, is chairman of the entertainment committee. Reservations for the banquet may be made through Friday by calling Christian house, 5-3491.

Housewives To Debate Advertising at ONPA

"What We Think of Newspaper Advertising," will be presented by a panel of Eugene housewives at 3:20 this afternoon in the Student Union as a part of the annual Oregon Press conference. Willard L. Thompson, assistant professor of journalism and business administration, will lead the women in their discussion.

The press conference, co-sponsored by the school of journalism and the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association, began this morning on the Oregon campus and will conclude with a luncheon at the Eugene hotel Saturday.

Miss Gwladys Bowen, society editor of the Portland Oregonian, will address the conference at its annual banquet tonight at 6:30 at the Eugene hotel on "Thirty Years of Bowen's Brides." Gordon A. Sabine, dean of the school of journalism will emcee the banquet.

Other speakers for the conference include William F. Johnston of the Lewiston Idaho Morning Tribune, who will give the Eric Allen lecture; State Senator Stewart Hardie of the Condon Globe-Times and the Fossil Journal; Robert W. Chandler of the Bend Bulletin; Giles A. French of the Sherman County Journal in Moro and Philip N. Bladine of the McMinnville News-Register.

An ONPA Mechanical conference will be held Saturday afternoon at the Eugene hotel in conjunction with the Press conference. It will conclude with a 6:30 p. m. dinner at the hotel where Roy C. McCall, head of the University of Oregon speech department, will speak on "It's All a Matter of How You Say It."
