Paired Rally Due Before OSC Tilt

by Sam Vahey

Emerald Assistant Managing Editor

It'll be the Hilltop vs. Millrace vs. Campus vs. Upper Alder vs. Lower Alder when Oregon students assemble Wednesday night in the Student Union ballroom for the pre-OSC game rally.

Instead of pairing individual houses, the rally board has decided to try out a pairing system which pits the five campus geographic locations against each other.

Included in the Millrace section are: Beta Theta Pi, Phi Sigma Kappa, Chi Psi, Alpha Phi, Gamma Phi Beta, Lambda Chi Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Phi Kappa Psi.

Hilltoppers Listed

Those houses which form the Hilltop group are: Alpha Tau Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Zeta, Theta Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, Delta Upsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Highland house and University house.

The "Campus" rooting section will consist of Rebec house, Philadelphia house, Ann Judson house, Carson hall, Sigma Chi, Hendricks hall, John Straub dorms, Orides, Yeomen, Phi Sigma Sigma, and Susan Campbell hall.

Alder St. Divided

Bolstering the "Lower Alder" gang, below 14th street, are: Campbell Club, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Delta Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Xi Delta, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Pi Kappa Alpha.

The final area, Upper Alder, above 14th street, will consist of Delta Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Mu, Zeta Tau Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, and the Vets' dorm.

The rally will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. and a trophy will be awarded to the campus location which makes the most noise.

American Friends Secretary Conducts Student Interviews

Students interested in participating in the American Friends Service committee projects this summer are being interviewed today and Tuesday by Wilton Hartzler, committee secretary.

The interviews are being conducted in the YMCA office in the Student Union. Appointments to see the secretary are to be made through that office, according to Russ Walker, executive YM secretary.

Students selected will have a chance to participate in work camps in this country, Mexico and Europe, and may work in mental hospitals, slum areas or industrial areas.

Hartzler will show slides of the committee's work tonight at 8 in the SU. He will also give a short talk explaining the purposes and goals of the service projects.

Carsonites Like New 'Mom'

by Anne Ritchey

Emerald Feature Editor

Fast becoming one of the best-known and best-liked people around campus, with men and women alike, is Carson hall's substitute house-mother, Mrs. Elvina Stedman.

Friendly and pleasant, exactly like a mother to every girl in Carson, Mrs. Stedman always has her apartment full of girls who just go to see her to talk.

Mrs. Stedman is used to having young people around her. She has two daughters and a son of her own, now all married. In addition to her own family, three nephews lived with her and her husband, while they were in high school.

Taught in Alaska

Immediately after completing her education, in North Dakota, Mrs. Stedman and a sister went to Petersburg, Alaska, where she began teaching.

Exactly four months after arriving in Alaska, she married Mr. Stedman, whom she had met there.

A very real love for young people has caused Mrs. Stedman to have several jobs as advisor or helper in their activities. For several years she was a chaperone and advisor to Campfire Girl and Blue bird groups, and she taught Sunday school for "just years," in Alaska.

Didn't Consider Housemother

When Mr. Stedman died in 1941, Mrs. Stedman stayed in Alaska for awhile, then went to Vancouver, B. C. to visit her son and his family. At that time she hadn't ever considered being a housemother.

And then, thinking about a suggestion made by the superintendent of schools in the town in which she lived in Alaska, she decided that the life of housemother would suit her well.

Pleasant 'Goodnight'

One of the most wonderful things about her, the Carson girls all agree, is the delightful way she tells fellows good night at closing hours time. She walks through the lobby with a smile on her face, cheerfully waving goodbye.

This, she maintains, is the result of what her daughters told her during their dating years. Their boy friends always liked her, and she showed through this, as everything else, her love and interest for young people.

Mrs. Stedman came to Carson Feb. 5, immediately after Mrs. Edna M. Stokes' sudden illness, and does not know how long she'll be able to stay. "It will probably be until at least the end of this month," she said.
