

Three Players Set Point Pace

With only two more games left in the regular season, the Oregon scoring statistics have boiled down to a three man race between Ed Halberg, Max Anderson and Barney Holland.

Halberg is the current leader of the bunch with 160 points and an 11.4 average. But right behind are Anderson with an 11.0 mark, and Holland with a 10.5 record.

Besides leading the scorers, the jumping-jack forward from Port Angeles has the upper hand in field goal percentage, .440, and is tied with Holland in the field goals department with 55.

"Big Max" holds a big margin over his nearest pursuer in the free throws attempted column with 120 tries. He also leads the Webfoots in gift' leads, 68.

The tall sophomore from Portland has also collared the lead in rebounds, 131 (11.0 per game), and personal fouls, 52.

Howard Page, who rounds out the top five scorers, has taken the lead from Holland in free throw percentages with 19 out of 24, for a .792 mark. Holland fell from above .800, before the weekend, to .725, (37 out of 51.)

Vandals Eliminated

The Washington State Cougars blasted Idaho's last remaining Northern Division title hopes Tuesday night with a convincing 56-44 victory at Pullman.

The Cougars built up an early lead and held it all the way for the victory. The defeat gives Idaho a 7-7 mark in conference competition, three full games behind Oregon State, with only two games to play.

edge over their foes in all departments except free throws and rebounds. Their margin in most cases is not too large, however.

In total scoring, Oregon tops its foes by a scant 7 points for the whole season. This averages out to a .4 margin per game.

THREE UNANIMOUS

Wagner, Barnes, Crabtree Lead All-Star Selections

Bob Wagner, Phi Delta Theta, Tom Crabtree, Susan Campbell hall, and Emery Barnes, Hale Kane were unanimous choices for this year's intramural all-star basketball team, chosen by the Emerald I. M. sports staff Tuesday afternoon.

Wagner, the high scoring forward who led his team to the championship, and Crabtree, the flashy Susie front court performer, were paired at the forward spots on the first team. Barnes was picked as the starting center.

The two guard posts went to two players whose teams failed to make the playoff tournament. They are Bob Hazel of Phi Kappa Psi and Dick James of Theta Chi.

In the "B" league the starting all-star quintet named included Dick Johnson, Sigma Nu, and Bill Haney, Phi Psi, at the forwards; Sam Duncan, Hale Kane, center; and Al Mundle, Phi Delta Theta, and Dick DuBosch, Alpha Tau Omega at the guard posts.

Phi Delts Monopolize IM's

With the intramural basketball leagues all finished and the I. M. tournament in the history books, it would probably be interesting for some people to scan over the results and see just which teams were outstanding in this year's court play.

Phi Delta Theta won both the "A" and "B" team circuits with Susan Campbell hall finishing second in the senior tourney and Hale Kane nabbing the runner-up spot in the junior playoffs.

League champions in the "A" leagues were the Phi Delts, Alpha Tau Omega, Sigma Chi, Sigma Tau Omega, Susan Campbell, Hale Kane, and Northwest Christian College.

In the "B" division the top fives were the Phi Delts, Theta Chi, Sigma Nu, Nestor hall, and Hale Kane.

By virtue of their double crown, the Phi Delts will definitely strengthen their hold on the lead of the intramural race for the year's highest number of points.

Following are the standings of all the teams which took part in the I. M. basketball program this year:
