

Webfoots Face Beavers In Crucial N. D. Game

shooting eyes. Coach Bill Borchers has stated that his team will have to outshoot the Beavers by at least 10 per cent if they are to be on top when the final buzzer sounds.

In the first two games with OSC the Webfoots were not able to get nearly as many shots at the hoop as the giants from Corvallis and only some brilliant field shooting on the second evening saved them from two straight losses to the Orangemen.

Same Line-Up

Borchers plans to stick with the same line-up that he has used in most of the games to date and if he does Ed Halberg and Ken Wegner will get the starting calls at the forward posts, Max Anderson will open at center, and Barney Holland and Howard Page will handle the backcourt positions.

Gill, who has shifted his starting five constantly all season long has decided to string along with the same men that were so successful

Northern Division Standings

	W	L	Pct.
Oregon State	10	4	.714
OREGON	8	6	.571
Idaho	7	7	.500
Washington	5	7	.417
Washington State	4	10	.286

last Saturday night in the Beavers' conquest of Washington State at Pullman.

This line-up would have Tex Whiteman and Jay Dean at forwards, Wade Halbrook at center, and Ron Robins and Ron Fundingsland at the guard positions.

Anderson Important

The key man in Oregon's plans for an upset win will be six-foot, seven-inch Max Anderson who will be given the formidable assignment of checking the visitors' "Mr. Points," Wade Halbrook. Halbrook has made better than twice as many points as any of his teammates in Northern Division warfare and just how many counters he pours through the hoop this evening will have a definite influence on the final outcome of the game.

Another Beaver who will bear close watching will be pint-sized guard, Ron Robins. Robins always seems to play his best against the Ducks and only last year he completely baffled the Eugene lads with his sparkling long shooting. More than likely it will be Barney Holland who gets the job of holding Robins in check.

The two teams will move to Corvallis for a return match in Gill Coliseum on Saturday night.

Webfoot Matmen Meet Cal Bears

The University of Oregon wrestling team will entertain the California Bears in a duel match this Saturday afternoon at McArthur court. The affair will get underway at 2:30 p. m.

The Ducks, who have not shown too much power this year, will go into the match as a definite underdog to the powerful Bears.

This will mark the first time that the Webfoots of Bill Hammer have met California this season and it ought to give the Duck mentor a good idea of the kind of competition his boys will run into when they travel to California for the P.C.C. meet in mid-March.

BARNEY HOLLAND, Oregon guard, will be an important cog in the Duck attack tonight and Saturday when the Webfoots play their most important series of the season against OSC.

Halbrook Stays Atop

Oregon State center Wade Halbrook has the Northern Division scoring championship all sewed up and is virtually assured of two other titles, it was disclosed today by statistics released from the Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner's office.

The figures which included games of Feb. 20, showed Halbrook atop the scoring race with 297 points in 14 contests for an average of 21.2. He needs only 11 points to become the second highest scorer of all time in the Northern Division behind Bob Houbregs, Washington (406 points last year). Chet Noe of Oregon (307 points in 1953) is the only other man to exceed Halbrook's present total.

Bennink Second

Ranked behind Halbrook in the scoring race are Ron Bennink, Washington State, 18.0; Dean Parsons, Washington, 14.9, and Dwight Morrison, Idaho, 13.7.

The 7-foot 3-inch Halbrook paces the field in field goals with 47.3 per cent on 105 baskets in 222 tries and needs only an average final series to beat off his only threat, Ed Halberg of Oregon, who is shooting 45.1 per cent. Halbrook also has a solid margin in rebounds, averaging 11.9 per game to 10.7 for Parsons and another good weekend on the boards should wrap up this title for him.

Shack Rats Play Brass Railer Five

Sigma Delta Chi, journalism honorary, will get into the basketball act this Saturday afternoon when they travel to Corvallis to play the Oregon State "Brass Railers," a similar honorary of the Beaver school.

Better known as the "Shack Rats," the Oregon team will be in search of revenge when they take to the Gill Coliseum floor at 3:00 p. m., Saturday. Last year the "Brass Railers" won easily by a 50-23 score.

Leading the way for the "Shack Rats" in their search for a revenge win will be a starting line-up composed of Gordon Rice and Al Karr at the forward posts; Bill Frye at center; and Ron Miller and Bob Robinson at the guard spots.

Backing up this opening five will be reserves Sam Vahey, Al Martin, and Len Calvert.
