

Webfoot Bowlers Roll To Wins Over OSC

The University of Oregon co-ed bowling team scored a double victory over Oregon State over the past weekend as the two teams took part in a home and home series.

Friday afternoon at Eugene the Ducks won out in two straight games, winning the first match 1962 to 1935 and the second by a 2417 to 2285 score. Pacing the Ducks were Norm Ruecker with a 577 tally, Champ Husted with 575, and Jim Neal with 510. Ruecker marked up the highest one game score with a 208. For the Beavers the top man was Mike Clobes with a 564 total and a high game of 215.

On Saturday at Corvallis it was much the same story as the Webfoots of coach Lou Bellissimo rang up two more wins, 2591 to 2243 and 2019 to 2001. In the first match a team composed of Mary Brooks, Beth McCormick, Bob Boyle, Sam Sorensen, and Bernie Streifling rolled up a remarkable one game team average of 918 which is a very neat average of 183 per bowler. Leading the way for this high score was Boyle who came home with a scorching 246 for one game and wound up later with 653 for the whole series.

Mary Brooks rolled a 469 in this first match to gain high individual honors for the girls in the meet.

Bruce Koppe marked up another very good score for the Ducks when he tallied a 225 single game mark in the last match of the day.

Ducklings Lose To Rook Quintet

The Oregon State Rooks came back with vengeance Saturday night at Corvallis to score a 55-49 victory over the favored Oregon Frosh and earn themselves a four game split in games with the Ducklings this season.

The Rooks, who only Friday night were completely smothered by Don Kirsch's Oregon yearlings, took the lead from the very start and were ahead all the way.

The Frosh went into a full floor press early in the final period and, led by John Lundell and Bob Anderson, they began to pull up on the leaders. At one point in the quarter the Rook lead had been cut to a mere four points at 42-38. But a pair of clutch baskets by the hosts' Fred Kroush sewed the game up for the Rooks.

Kroush led the winners in scoring with 11 points while Lundell with 13 took pointmaking honors for the Ducklings.

The box score follows:
 Ducklings (49) (55) Rooks
 Bingham, 3 F 9, Smart
 Moore, 6 F 7, Allord
 Werner, 4 C 7, Shadoin
 Lundell, 13 G 3, Frederick
 McHugh, 8 G 10, Goldman

Subs: Ducklings — Anderson, 3; Barnes, 2; Costi, 9; Linger, McClain, 1; and Tyberg. Rooks — Kroush, 11; Ferise, Hart, Brown, 2; Van Arsdale, and Hunt, 6.

Billiard Tryouts

Tryouts for the University of Oregon straight-rail billiard team will be held Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 p. m. in the Student Union.

All those interested in trying out for the team are asked to contact Lou Bellissimo some time Tuesday to get further details on the team.

Bellissimo announced that three men would be picked from the tryouts to take part in the intercollegiate billiard tourney which will get underway Wednesday afternoon by telegraph with 22 of the top college teams in the country taking part.

USC Tops UCLA For Southern Glory

Southern California earned themselves a place in the Pacific Coast Conference basketball playoffs over the last weekend as they twice upset the favored U.C.L.A. Bruins, 79-68 and 69-67.

The Bruins went into their final series of the season with a one game lead over their rivals but the Trojans refused to go along with the form sheet and proceeded to knock the Uclans off their perch.

Forward Chet Carr was the big Trojan hero in the Saturday night game. Carr fired in a last second field goal from the side to give his team their narrow 69-67 win.

Southern Cal finished their Southern Division schedule with an eight won and four lost mark while the Bruins wound up in the second spot with a seven and five slate.

The Trojans will host the Oregon State Beavers, Northern Division champions, Friday and the winner of this two out of three series will enter the N.C.A.A. Western Regional Tournament at Corvallis the following weekend.

● A meeting of Order of the O will be held at Alpha Tau Omega Wednesday noon. Plans will be made in regard to sponsoring opening day for the baseball season, according to Doug Clement, president.

Frosh Wallop Rooks In Lop-Sided Fracas

The Oregon Frosh slapped a tight man-to-man defense on the Oregon State Rooks and held them to two field goals in the first half Friday night as the Frosh won 60-47.

The Ducklings jumped off to a 12-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and lengthened it to 27-10 at halftime. The Rooks' only field goals in that time came in the first two minutes of the game on a shot by Ron Smart and midway in the second period on a lay-in by Bob Allord.

Meanwhile, John Lundell and Ed Bingham were pouring in 14 points between them.

Coach Don Kirsch began pouring in his reserves in the third quarter, but the Ducklings continued to gain ground, running the margin to 47-24 at the end of the period.

The Rooks caught fire against the Oregon reserves in the last period and closed the gap to 55-43, but the rally died there.

Bill Moore and Lundell led the Oregon State Rooks and held them to two field goals in the first half Friday night as the Frosh won 60-47.

The victory gave Don Kirsch's Ducklings a two to one lead in the four game series between the two teams and sent the Rooks and Frosh into the final game of the season at Corvallis Saturday night with the pressure on the OSC five.

Rooks (47)	(60) Ducklings
Allord, 6	F 0, Barnes
Smart, 10	F 10, Moore
Shadoin, 13	C 7, Werner
Goldman, 4	G 4, Anderson
Fredericks, 4	G 4, McHugh

Subs: Rooks: Kroush, 4; Hunt, 5; Van Arsdale, Brown, 1. Ducklings—Tyberg, 5; Costi, 7; Linger, 2; McClain, 1; McClenahan, Borrevik, Bingham, 9; Poole, 1; and Lundell, 10.

Shack Rats Fall To Brass Railers

The Oregon State "Brass Railers" downed the Oregon "Shack Rats" in a close basketball contest at Corvallis last Saturday afternoon by a score of 40-37.

Playing in Men's Gym the visiting journalists from Eugene pressed their opponents all the way but could never quite wrestle the lead away from the Staters.

The "Brass Railers," who boast an undefeated record for this season, encountered a much rougher game than they expected and were forced to play their very best to come out on top.

Leading lights for the "Shack Rats" in the tussle were Al Martin, Gordon Rice, Sam Vahey, and Al Karr.

The close score of the game indicated a terrific improvement of the Oregon team over the previous year. In a game between the two teams during the 1953 basketball season the Brass Railers rolled to an easy 50-23 victory.
