Luther House

The last social of the term, "Le Meilleur Que Nous Avons," will be held tonight at 7:30 at Luther house, 1376 Alder street. In charge will be Gary Peterson and Ken Degermann.

The ladies of the Luther house auxiliary, who have been serving the Wednesday noon luncheons, will be feted at a student-prepared and served pancake supper Sunday, starting at 5:30 p. m. A program of entertainment and an address by Pastor Ed Svendsen, director of the Oregon Lutheran Student Foundation, are planned.

Election of officers will be Wednesday at the weekly noon luncheon. Lenten meditation is held every Wednesday from 7:30 to 7:50 a. m. at the house.

There will be Bible study as usual Thursday at 9 p. m.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 10 p. m. there will be an after-studies party with games, dancing and refreshments.

Sunday at 9 a. m. there will be a coffee hour, after which the Bible class will continue its study of Christian doctrine under the leadership of Bob Dean in the absence of Thom Hunter. Transportation to local churches for the 11 a. m. service will be available. The 6 p. m. vesper service will be led by Nancy Woodruff and Marten Oosterkamp. Jerry Malone will give an exposition entitled, "Adequate Gods." Special music will be provided by Carla Taylor. A social hour with refreshments will follow.

Bonnie Bracken will lead the chapel service Wednesday at 12:30 p. m. At 5:30 that evening, at the fellowship supper, the guest speaker will be Rev. D. Hugh Peniston, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Cottage Grove, who has as his topic, "Of Men, Mountains and Missions, in Alaska." He will show slides of Alaska from his personal collection.

Christian House

Doughnut Hour begins as usual at 9:15 a. m. Sunday, followed by two Bible classes, taught by Victor Morris and Clarence Elliott. At 5:30 p. m. Sunday, "Vacation—So What?" will be the discussion topic, with Eileen Lindblad, campus YWCA secretary, serving as discussion leader. The discussion will center around how to invest one's summer.

At 7:45 a group of students will lead the assembly period of the Christian World Friendship night at the Junction City Christian church, presenting the Christian house program. Bob Randall is in charge of arrangements. Guest speaker at the 9 p. m. International Fireside will be a girl from France.

Election of officers will be held Sunday and Monday. Polls will be open at the house on both days, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The regional DSF conference is scheduled for April 2 to 4 at Menucha, an estate just east of Portland on the Columbia River highway. JoAnne Flanders and Kammy Chun, both regional officers and members of the Eugene group, are in charge of publicity.

Newman Club

The final meeting for winter term will be held Sunday at 7 p. m. at Sacred Heart hospital. The meeting will commence with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and will be followed by a social hour.

During the Lenten season, set aside for contemplation of the suffering of Christ, emphasis is put upon man's soul and his ability to raise himself spiritually towards God. This can be done by penance, prayer and good works. A special Lenten schedule has been provided as follows: dialogue mass week-day mornings at 6:55; Benediction followed by Rosary, Wednesday at 7 p. m.; Station of the Cross, Friday, 7 p. m.; Confession, Saturday afternoons, 4:45 to 5:30 p. m. All services will be held at Sacred Heart hospital.

Canterbury Club

Rev. Robert Ellis, campus chaplain to Episcopalian students and faculty members, will present a lecture in the series of inquirer's forums. These forums are following the order of instruction for confirmation on an adult level. The topic this Sunday at 6 p. m. will be "The Effect of the Continental Reform on the Church of England." He will speak at St. Mary's Episcopal church, Thirteenth and Pearl streets, following a service of Evening Prayer and an informal supper.

Throughout Lent there will be a daily celebration of the Holy Communion at 7 a. m. in St. Mary's church, with the Wednesday morning service being held in Gerlinger hall.

Duck Preview Heads Ask for 200 Workers

Over 100 committee workers, sub-chairmen and chairmen are needed for Duck Preview, Jerry Farrow and Don Bonime, co-chairmen of the weekend, have announced.

Petitions for the positions must be turned in at the ASUO petition box on the third floor of the Student Union. Freshmen particularly are urged to petition for the posts, Farrow reports, for they are best acquainted with the high school seniors, he explained.

Four chairmen will be selected to work with the general chairmen of the weekend. These include heads for the promotion, program, housing and hospitality committees.

Promotion sub-chairmen posts are for publicity, campus promotion and invitations.

Needed for program sub-chairmen are heads for vodvil, orientation assembly, educational exhibits exchange dinner and dance.

Sub-chairmanships to be filled under hospitality include registrations, transportation and program.

The sub-chairmen for housing will be in charge of men's housing and women's housing.

Actual arrangements for the weekend, scheduled for April 23 and 24, will not start until term, the co-chairmen have stressed. Only organizational work will be done this term, they said.
