

SU Currents

Coffee Hour Sets Poetry Discussion

James B. Hill, assistant professor of English, will speak on "E. E. Cummings and Modern Poetry," at tonight's coffee hour to be held in the Student Union browsing room at 7:45 p. m.

Cummings is a contemporary poet noted for his use of lowercase lettering for all names except God. Hill is to show the relationship between Cummings and other contemporary poets and the poetry of the period which preceded them.

A recording of Cummings reading some of his own poems will

History Professor To Speak on Jazz

William Williams, professor of history, will speak on jazz in Kansas City, Chicago and New York in the Peter Howard listening room of the Student Union Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m.

Williams played the drums in a Chicago dance band before he came to Oregon.

'Streetcar' Slated As Sunday Movie

The triple-Academy award winner "A Streetcar Named Desire" will be shown in the Student Union ballroom at 2:30 and 5 p. m. Sunday, according to Barbara Wilcox, SU movie committee chairman. Admission price will be 30 cents.

In 1951 the show won the best actress, best supporting actor, and best supporting actress awards for its stars, Vivien Leigh, Karl Malden and Kim Hunter. The film version was adapted from the Pulitzer-prize winning stage play of the same name.

WUS To Award Prize for Sketch

A prize will be awarded to the person turning in the best black and white drawing of an emblem to use during the World University Service drive, April 19-24.

The emblem must center around the theme "Hands Across the Sea" and also must emphasize the idea of the university and peace. The drawings are due Friday, March 12 in the YM office, Student Union 318.

Friday at Four Ends Til April

The last of the Friday at Four programs for winter will be presented at 4 p. m. today in the Student Union Fishbowl. Stan Smith will be the emcee.

Entertainment scheduled features Zy Lower, with a ukulele act, and Don Finlay, magician.

Denise Kenyon and Don Smith are in charge of the program.

Organist to Present Afternoon Recital

Josef Schnelker, assistant professor of music at Willamette university, will give an organ recital Sunday at 4 p. m. in the music school auditorium.

Schnelker, presented by the Eugene chapter of American Guild of Organists, will play works by Bach, Frank and Schumann, as well as modern pieces.

Condon Renovation Nears Completion

The renovation of Condon hall to make additional classrooms for the psychology and geology departments is expected to be completed during the summer, according to J. A. Shotwell, director of the Museum of Natural History.

The museum has been removed and the space will be used for classrooms and offices.

UO Library Forum To Hear Economist

An instructor in economics, Edwin G. Robbins, will speak on "Now If I Were A Librarian" at a library forum at 7:45 p. m. this evening.

The lecture will be held in the staff room of the library. Coffee will be served.

Freshman Dance Set for Saturday

The Frosh Snowball, annual dance presented for the freshmen by their class officers, will be held Saturday night from 8:30 p. m. to midnight in the Student Union ballroom.

Don Smith, class president and chairman of the dance, has announced that a definite theme has not been set. "Decorations are not built around a central theme," according to Janice Gleason, a member of the decorations committee.

Tom Charters and the Candlelighters, a band from Oregon State college, will provide music for the dance, which will be semi-formal with men wearing dark suits and women wearing formals, Miss Gleason said.

Corsages for the dance, which is for freshmen and their dates only, are not in order, according to Smith.

Committee chairmen are Doug Basham, decorations; Darrell Britsan, publicity; Marcia Mauney, invitations; Dorothy Barker, programs, and Gary West, intermission entertainment.

Sigma Chi Idea Helps Fund Drive

The Red Cross fund drive Thursday was richer by $8.95 — the price Chi Omega paid for the sophomore class of Sigma Chi. The fraternity offered the class to the women's living organizations, with the sophomores going to the highest bidder.

The men washed cars and cleaned the yard at Chi O. Bob Pollock, Sigma Chi president, reported Thursday afternoon that the fraternity has set a house goal of $50 for the drive. Their assigned quota was $9.

Pollock suggested that the whole campus follow the idea, perhaps by carrying out a work program of their own and donating the money that would have been used to pay for it.

Librarians to Offer $150 Scholarship

Applications for the Marsha M. Hill scholarship should be submitted to Eleanor Stephens, State Librarian, Salem, Oregon by April 15.

This scholarship for $150 awarded to a college graduate who is able to satisfy University of Washington School of Librarianship entrance requirements for one year's study at the University of Washington. The applicant must also indicate his intention to take a library job in Oregon for at least one year after receiving the library degree.

Winner of this scholarship will be announced at the annual meeting of the Oregon Library Association, held April 30 and May 1.

Art Educator To Talk Here

Viktor Lowenfeld, chairman of art education at the University of Pennsylvania, will be guest lecturer at the school of architecture and allied arts next Thursday and Friday.

A public address "Art and the Creative Life of the Child," will be given by Lowenfeld on Thursday night in his only public appearance here. The remainder of his time will be spent assisting students in art education.

Lowenfeld will also be honored at a reception Thursday to which faculty and students in psychology and education have been invited.

Following his visit to the West Coast, Lowenfeld will return home to begin a sabbatical leave which will take him to Europe for a similar lecture tour.

Campus Calendar

Noon	Supvsry Nurses Luch	110 SU
	Lib Arts Luch	111 SU
	Ital Tbl	112 SU
1:00	Supvsry Nurses Meet	315 SU
4:00	Fri at 4	Fishbowl SU
5:30	Livingston Din	112 SU
7:00	Livingston Lect	123 Sci
7:45	Fri Eve Cof Hr	Brs Rm SU
8:00	Newcmrs Brdg	214 SU
9:00	Fishbowl Mixer

4,000 RECORDS ON SALE

'Richard II' Production Termed 'Difficult Task'

(Continued from Page One)

any University theater production, Ramey said. Crew for the production includes carpenter, Sylvia Hill; electricians, Ula Mae Hostetler and Helene Robertson; flymen, Dace Sherman and Tom Gaines; props, Spencer Snow; and crew, Phillip Sanders, and Delese Peterson.

The costume department of the University theater will accomplish one of its most difficult jobs of costuming tonight when the audience sees the production of "Richard II." Wilma Sundahl, graduate assistant in speech, says this is the largest costuming job she has ever done. Mrs. Sundahl, who came here after four year at Chico State college, says, "The costumes are as authentic as we can make them, using modern patterns."

Marlene Jewell, freshman in liberal arts, has assisted Mrs. Sundahl in the construction of many of the costumes. According to pic-heralds, Larry Wyman, Bob Kirkpatrick and heralds, servants and soldiers, Larry Wyman, Bob Kirkpatrick, Stanley Grout, Henry Wedemeyer, Don Brown and Bob Mars.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Deadline for items for this column is at 4 p. m. the day prior to publication.

● "The Legal Concept of Property" will be discussed by Kenneth J. O'Connell, professor of law, at a meeting of the faculty social science club scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Faculty club.

● Pacific coast conference basketball playoffs between Oregon State college and the University of Southern California will be broadcast over radio station KEX direct from Los Angeles Friday and Saturday nights. The series will be heard at 8:30 p. m.

● Jack S. Young, airman, USNR, and a 1953 graduate of Oregon, recently completed a voyage around stormy Cape Horn aboard the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt. The 45,000 ton carrier is the largest warship ever to round the southern tip of South America.

● The deadline for religious news notes next week is Wednesday at 4 p. m. because there will be only one issue of the Emerald next week, which will be published Thursday. All news should be turned in to the news office at the Shack.

● Dr. William K. Livingston, professor of surgery at the University of Oregon medical school, will speak on "Visual Perception" tonight at 7 p. m. in the science amphitheater. The lecture is open to the public and is sponsored by the school of architecture and allied arts.

● "Faith of the College Student" will be discussed from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Sunday in Gerlinger hall. Free coffee will be served, according to Rose Warner, chairman of the YW religion committee which sponsors the affair.

● The Sophomore Skip planned for today and Saturday has been postponed until April 16 and 17 because of the number of conflicts, according to Janice Fortner, publicity chairman.

MRS. OTILIE SEYBOLT Shakespeare Veteran

tures the costumes the University theater is using for "Richard II" are more authentic than those used on Broadway in the production headed by Maurice Evans. Several cast members also worked on their own costumes.

Cast

The cast for the University theater's production of Shakespeare's "Richard II" is one of the largest to appear on the theater's stage this season. Cast members are as follows:

Richard, Don Van Boskirk; John of Gaunt, George Harding; Bolingbroke, William Hathaway; Mowbray, John Jensen; Duchess of Gloucester, Carol David; Lord Marshall, Dan Frank; Aumerle, Wade Eaton; Bushy, Paul Minty; Bagot, Pete Plumridge; Duke of York, Winston Rust; Queen, Loanne Morgan; Willoughby, Kermit Scott; Ross, Gary Alden; Northumberland, Ben Schmidt Henry Percy, John Jensen;

Berkeley, Joe Malango; Salisbury, Kent Parsons; Welsh Captain, Henry Wedemeyer; Bishop of Carlisle, Gerry Pearce; Scroop, Don Holt;

Surry, Dan Frank; Fitzwater, Cyrus Faryar; Abbot of Westminster, Dale Banks; Duchess of York, Jo deLap Pearce; Exton, Jack Bronson; groom, Joe Malango.

Keeper of the prison, John Buchanan; murderers, Gary Alden and Stanley Grout; Ladies in Waiting, Pat Johnson, Bev Bellarts, Nolen Wade, Johanna Unkeles, Sonia Dalton;

A WORLD OF MUSIC

30 MINUTES OF FINE MUSIC MON.—FRI. AT 9:30 P.M.

AT THE STARS ADDRESS CBS FOR EUGENE

KERG

MAYFLOWER
DIAL 5-1022

— NOW PLAYING —

"MELBA"

Dazzle Darling of a Fabulous Era

with PATRICE MUNSEL ROBERT MORLEY

in Technicolor

THIS THEATER HAS BEEN SELECTED FOR LIMITED ENGAGEMENT OF THIS MAGNIFICENT MUSICAL SPECTACLE!

HEILIG
DIAL 4-9311

— NOW PLAYING —

"THE GLENN MILLER STORY"

JAMES STEWART JUNE ALLYSON

STARTS TONIGHT!

78 & 45 — 7 FOR A DOLLAR

— GRAVES —
1235 WILLAMETTE

OUT OF REGULAR STOCK!

78 & 45 ALBUMS FOR 75c

— GRAVES —
1235 WILLAMETTE

SALE