

Five J-Students To Publish Weekly

Five students from the University school of journalism will publish the March 25 edition of the Dallas Itemizer-Observer. The visiting journalists will spend a week of spring vacation putting out the Oregon weekly.

Going on the annual "spring trip" will be Albert Martin, senior; Virginia Dailey, senior; Martin Jurgenson, senior; Jerry Harrell, junior, and Ron Miller, senior.

Miller, Harrell and Miss Dailey will work on the editorial and news phases of the paper. Martin and Jurgenson will handle the advertising.

The regular staff of the Itemizer-Observer will go on a week's vacation while the Oregon students take over the publication of that edition.

ASUO Primary Set for April 14

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

Students who plan to enter the ASUO primary election spring term should be thinking about the office they wish to run for and making preliminary campaign plans, according to ASUO Vice-President Bob Funk, who is in charge of the elections.

The primary will be held April 14, and petitions are due April 7, only 10 days after spring term opens. The general election will be May 5.

New System Planned

The coming election will be the first trial for the new primary election system passed in the general election last year. The election dates were adopted by the ASUO senate Feb. 25.

Petitions for office will be available in the ASUO office, and any student, who is a member of a campus political party, may file for the primary. The only essentials are the name of the petitioner, office sought, and party to which he belongs.

Petitioners may form new parties. Last year a group of law students united to form the "Peon" party with Funk as its standard bearer.

Qualification Needed

After the primary the ballots for the general election will be made according to those who qualify in the primary. However, anyone defeated in the primary, or even candidates who did not enter the primary, may still run in the general election by filing petition in the ASUO office on the fifth day prior to the general election.

At the ASUO senate meeting of March 4, the senate adopted a by-law governing the method of balloting in the primary. The six provisions of the by-law follow:

Provisions Listed

- 1) Each political party will have a separate ballot for president, senators-at-large, and class officers.
- 2) The ballot will be divided into four parts, one part for each class participating.
- 3) The poll attendant will mark the ballot according to the voter's class, and the voter will use no other division except in the ASUO election.
- 4) The voter will be given ballots for all political parties.
- 5) After voting, the voter will hand the attendant both the unmarked and marked ballots, which will be placed in separate boxes.
- 6) Only the ballots in the "marked" box will be counted.

DID YOU KNOW??

Quite a few students are using Glutamic Acid Tablets?

WHY?

- Because this harmless protein from wheat often peps up thinking.
- Because it can sharpen one's I. Q.
- Because many perform more brilliantly when using it
