Summer Work Open for Women

Summer jobs for women 18 and over who enjoy living in the out-of-doors and working with young people are available through the Portland Girl Scout council.

Nettie Castle, of the Camp Wind Mountain staff, will be on campus on Thursday, April 15 to discuss summer employment with girls who are interested in applying.

Application blanks and further information are available in the graduate placement office in Emerald hall.

Camp Wind Mountain is located sixty-five miles northeast of Portland on the Washington side of the Columbia River. It offers an opportunity for students in the recreation, education, and psychology fields to gain valuable first-hand knowledge of children of varying age levels, according to Miss Castle.

PE Group Plans Conference Here

The Northwest District of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation will open its 23rd annual convention on the campus Wednesday.

The theme of the four-day convention will be "Harmony in Action." The conference, under the direction of Margaret Poley, associate professor of physical education, will be held in the Student Union and at the Eugene hotel.

Only one session of the conference will be open to the public. This is a Thursday night address in the SU ballroom by Delbert Oberteuffer, professor of health and physical education at Ohio State university. He will speak under the joint sponsorship of the convention and the University Lectures committee on the topic, "Conservation of Human Resources."

Physical education and health instructors, as well as recreation personnel from throughout the Northwest are expected to attend the meetings. Sessions have been scheduled on recreation, health education, high school athletics for both boys and girls, swimming and dance.

Application for Kwama scholarships may be obtained now at the office of Mrs. Golda Wickham. Freshmen women are eligible to apply.

Hayward Field Site of Easter Sunrise Service

Hayward field will be scene of this year's University Easter Sunrise service, according to Dorothy Iler, chairman of the service.

The annual church service, sponsored by the University Religious council, is scheduled for 6:30 a. m. Easter morning, April 18. It is open to all University students and Eugene townspeople. In previous years the service has been held indoors, but this year's committee felt that an out-door service would be more effective, Miss Iler said.

Charles J. Armstrong, new president of Pacific university, will deliver the Easter sermon. His topic will be "The Power of Belief." Other functions of the service will be performed by members of the Eugene Ministerial association and the University religious council.

Others working on the sunrise service are the YWCA, the YMCA, campus religious foundations and the religious directors association.

Monday Is Deadline

All applications for the Kwama scholarships must be submitted by next Monday, Kwama President Janet Gustafson has announced. Only freshmen women are eligible for the awards.

Petitions Due to Fill SU Post Vacancy

Virginia Dailey, vice-chairman of the Student Union board, Monday called for petitions for SU personnel committee chairman.

John Shaffer, former chairman, became ineligible when he failed to make a 2.00 for winter term.

Petitions may be turned in to the SU office. No deadline has been set yet, according to Miss Dailey.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason... enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco... light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

It's not surprising Luckies lead in college circulation—These better-tasting cigarettes Are tops across the nation!
