Rules for 'Sing' To Be Discussed

Rules concerning the All-Campus Sing will be discussed at the first meeting of song leaders from all participating living organizations at 4 p. m. today in the Student Union.

Names of the songs must be turned in at the meeting, according to Ann Gerlinger, chairman of the Sing. In case of duplication of songs, the group first submitting the name will keep it.

Due to construction complications in McArthur Court, it is as yet uncertain whether the Sing will be held there or outside.

Sororities Entertaining High School Seniors

Panhellenic executive council has listed the series of dinners to be given this month by sororities to entertain Eugene high school senior girls, according to Carol Wenner, Panhellenic president.

Dinners started Tuesday evening, April 6, with Kappa Alpha Theta and Alpha Delta Pi hosting girls with last names from A to M, and Alpha Phi and Zeta Tau Alpha those from N to Z.

Unlike previous years, only two dinners can be held on the same night. Both the dates on which the dinners will be held and the alphabetical groups of girls were designated by the executive group.

Other sororities yet to entertain: Thursday, April 8, Delta Gamma and Alpha Omicron Pi, A to M, and Gamma Phi and Alpha Xi Delta, N to Z; Tuesday, April 13, Kappa Kappa Gamma and Sigma Kappa, A to M, Delta Zeta and Alpha Chi Omega, N to Z; Thursday, April 15, Pi Beta Phi and Delta Delta Delta, A to M, and Alpha Gamma Delta and Chi Omega, N to Z.

The same schedule will be followed April 20, 22, 27 and 29, with a reversal in the alphabetical groups from which girls are to be invited.

Petitions Due Fri. For Arts Program

Petition deadline is this Friday at 5 p. m. for chairmanships in the various divisions of work on the Student Union - sponsored Creative Arts Workshop program, including music, dance, literature, drama, art, and for help in general continuity. The program will be presented Friday evening, May 21.

Petitions may be picked up on the third floor of the Student Union and returned there or to general chairman Valerie Cowls at Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Police Slate Auction

The Eugene police department will hold an auction of unclaimed automobiles and bicycles Friday at 10 a.m. at the municipal jail parking lot, according to Ted Brown, chief of police.

Thirteen cars ranging in age from a 1930 Ford to a 1945 Chevrolet will be auctioned, in addition to eight bicycles.

Frosh Women Eligible for Posts

Only freshmen women are eligible to petition for chairmanships of the annual Phi Theta sponsored "Mystie Sale," President Janet Wick has announced. The petitions are due at 5 p. m. Monday and may be turned in to Miss Wick at Pi Beta Phi.

Positions open for the sale include general chairman and chairmen of publicity, distribution, house sales, booth sales, collections, decorations and promotion. Committee reports from previous years are available at the office of Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, associate director of student affairs.

The "Mystie Sale" dates have been set for May 5 and 6. Traditionally, the item to be sold is kept a secret until the first day of the date.

An annual moneymaking project for the Phi Theta scholarship fund, the sale was begun in 1949. Candied apples, doughnuts and apple turnovers have been sold by the group.
