

Speedy Ted

TED ANDERSON, Oregon sprinter, will be one of the Duck runners who will be counted on to score some much needed points in this Saturday's meet in Portland. Anderson's specialty is the 440-yard dash.

Linksmen Set Sights On Palo Alto Tourney

by Doug May
Emerald Sports Writer

Coach Sid Milligan's varsity golf aspirants have been qualifying the past week for a chance to play in the Northern California Invitational tournament to be held on Stanford university's golf course, Apr. 15-17.

Milligan has set next Monday as

Schedule:

- April 26 Seattle U at Eugene
- 30 Wash. State at Eugene
- May 1 Idaho at Eugene
- 7 Washington at Seattle
- 8 Seattle U at Seattle
- 15 Oreg. State at Eugene
- 22 Northern Div. at Eugene

the deadline for the four rounds or 72 holes of golf to be completed on the difficult Eugene Country Club course. The four low qualifiers will compose the team which will leave Eugene, Tuesday, for Palo Alto.

Some of the low scorers thus far are Justin Smith, 75-75-150; Howard Zenger, 75-75-150; Al Mundle, 74-77-151; Bob Takano, 79-73-152; Bud Cross, 74-81-155; and Neil Dwyer, 75-81-156. Team captain Don Kreiger is far ahead, having completed three rounds, his first two 70-71-141, and his third a 74.

The Duck divoters, defending Northern Division match play champions for the past five years, open the defense of their title Apr. 23 at Corvallis where they meet Oregon State. The Oregon linksmen will be riding on the crest of 26 consecutive dual match play victories when they meet the Beavers.

Indians May Sign Hal Newhouser

By Associated Press

It looks as if Hal Newhouser has been successful in his comeback attempt with the Cleveland Indians.

Newhouser is scheduled to meet with General Manager Hank Greenberg of the Indians in Cleveland on Sunday. Presumably, Greenberg will offer Newhouser a contract.

Newhouser was granted his outright release last summer after pitching for 14 years with the Detroit Tigers. Only 32, he asked the Indians for spring trial and pitched well. He showed no sign of the arm ailment that bothered him in his last few seasons with Detroit.

At present, Newhouser is in Detroit visiting his family. He hinted that Cleveland would sign him when he explained his visit to newsmen. He said he had asked manager Al Lopez of Cleveland for a few days to visit with his family and added: "During the season I'll be spending all my time either in Cleveland or on the road."

Ecklund Named Gresham Coach

Former Oregon football great, Brad Ecklund, has been named as head football coach at Gresham high school it was learned Wednesday night.

Ecklund, who lettered three straight years for the Ducks in 1947-48-49, is probably best remembered for his outstanding play for Oregon's Cotton Bowl eleven of 1949-50. Ecklund anchored the Oregon line at his center position.

BRAD ECKLUND
Now a Coach

During this same season Ecklund was given further honors when he was named to the All-Coast football team.

This will be Ecklund's first crack at the coaching ranks. After his graduation, he went immediately into professional football where he spent five very successful years as a player for the New York Yanks, Dallas Texans, and the Baltimore Colts.

Duck Cindermen Await 4-Way Run On Portland Oval

The University of Oregon track and field team will be in the thick of some good competition this Saturday afternoon in Portland when they take part in a four-way meet with Oregon State, Lewis and Clark, and Portland university.

The Ducks will take a full team of participants to the affair and hope to come home with the first place award.

According to coach Bill Bowerman, the Webfoots will need to score very heavily in the running events to have a chance for the victory. Oregon has a few good field men but all-around strength in the field events is lacking.

Strong Runners

On the other hand the Ducks are expected to be quite tough in the running events, especially in the sprints and the distance races.

Leading the Oregon dash men are Bruce Springbett and Ted Anderson. Springbett is being counted on to score points in both the 100-yard dash and the 220. Anderson will make his bid for honors in the 440-yard dash.

In the middle distance runs Doug Clement, if his leg is healed enough, is expected to be hard to beat. Clement was one of the top 880 men in the northwest last season.

Good Milers

Al Martin, Ken Reiser, and Bill Dellinger are all very capable distance runners and should give the Ducks plenty of strength in both the mile and two-mile runs. Martin and Reiser are both lettermen and Dellinger is up from last year's Frosh team.

In the hurdle races the Ducks will pit Chan Sogge, their new find from the Willamette relays, against the field. Sogge ran a very good jaunt at Salem last Saturday.

Other Ducks who are expected to perform well in the Portland meet are Emery Barnes and Bob Fawcett in the high jump, Ken Hickenbottom in the pole-vault, Jim Jones in the shot-put, Doyle Higdon in the javelin throw, and Bob Reed in the pole-vault and broad-jump.

Patton, Harrison Snare Golf Lead

By Associated Press

Veteran Dutch Harrison of Ardmore, Okla., and amateur Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., have taken the first round lead in the Masters Golf tournament being played at Augusta, Ga.

Each shot a two-under-par 70 Thursday on an opening day that saw many of the touted players hampered by a heavy rainstorm that hit the Augusta National Golf Club in mid-afternoon.

Patton shot his sub-par round early and avoided the storm. Harrison had to play five holes through the worst of it, but he was about the only one who did who came out with anything resembling a good score. Patton blazed to a 32 on the front nine and then took 38 strokes coming in. Harrison had a 34 on the front side and a 36 coming in when the storm struck.

The co-leaders and Jackie Burke of Kiamesha Lake, N. Y., and Lloyd Mangrum of Niles, Ill., were the only players among the 79 entries to break par. Burke and Mangrum tied for third with 71's. Defending champion Ben Hogan and lanky Dave Douglas, now registering from Gossingers, N.Y., matched par of 72 to tie for fourth place.

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis and Tommy Bolt of Maplewood, N.J., were among those to tie at 73, and Sam Snead was bracketed with several others at 74. The tournament's only three-time winner, Jimmy Demaret, shot himself out of contention with an 80.

Bruce Cudd, amateur from Portland, Ore., had trouble with his iron shots and wound up with a 76 for the first day of action.

Vandals Seek Al Brightman

By Associated Press

Seattle university basketball coach Al Brightman says he plans to confer this weekend with University of Idaho officials. The Idaho head coaching spot was left vacant by Chuck Finley's shift to Mississippi Southern. Brightman saps his visit will be only to talk over the situation.

Others mentioned for the Idaho job include Steve Belko, the Idaho State coach, and Jim (Mush) Torsion, who resigned recently as basketball coach at Portland university.
