

Kwama Petitions Must Have Photo

A picture of each applicant must accompany petitions for Kwama, sophomore women's honorary. President Janet Gustafson has announced. The petitions are due at 5 p. m. Friday.

All freshmen women who will be sophomores at the beginning of next fall term are eligible to petition. Petitioners must have a minimum of a 2.00 grade point average for fall term, and at least a 2.00 GPA for winter term.

The standard ASUO petitions forms are to be used. No suggestions are to be submitted, and activities are to be listed in order of their importance.

The petitions may be submitted to Miss Gustafson at Kappa Kappa Gamma, Dorothy Iler at Carson hall, or to any other Kwama member.

Members of Kwama will visit the freshmen women's living organizations this evening to explain petitioning procedure and to answer any questions about procedure.

Visiting Carson 3 will be Sonia Edwards and Barbara Johnson; Carson 4, Roberta Hackworth and Paula Curry; Carson 5, Lucia Knepper and Phyllis Pearson; Hendricks hall, Barbara Wilcox and Sally Ryan; Orides, Germaine LaMarche, and Ann Judson house, Jean-Owen and Patty Teale.

Photo Contest Deadline Set

Entries are now being received for a snapshot contest sponsored by the YMCA. All University students are eligible to enter pictures pertaining to campus life.

A $15 first prize will be awarded the winner and the runner-up will receive $10. Money for the prizes was given by Coburn's film shop, Dot Dotson's camera store, Fehly's studio, Wiltshire's camera store and Kennell-Ellis studio.

Snapshots must be turned in to the YM office in the Student Union by May 3. All pictures will become the property of the YM. Only black and white pictures may be entered and they must be on the subject of campus life.

An entry blank for the contest will appear in the Emerald later this week.

University Singers Set Final Concert

Clyde Keutzer, associate professor of music, will direct the University Singers in their final concert of the year, Tuesday at 8:15 p. m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Soloists for the program will be Dorothy Anderson, James Baker, Tamson Breese, Audrey Mistretta, Ann Stearns and John Mosely. Miss Anderson will also sing a duet with Douglas Stobie.

A girl's trio and a male quartet will also appear on the program. Those in the trio are Patricia Hartley, Jackie Densmore and Kathleen Harris. Larry Swanson, Robert Kelly, William Veatch, and Raymond Hill comprise the quartet.

Professor Keutzer has been head of the school of music at the College of Puget Sound and head of the voice department at the University of North Carolina.

Swanson is the president of the University Singers and Joyce Sinner is the accompanist.

Preview Housing Lists Available on Tuesday

Women's housing lists for Duck Preview will be available at the office of Mrs. Golda P. Wickham, associate director of student affairs, in Emerald hall at 1 p. m. Tuesday, according to Lucia Knepper, women's housing chairman.

Each women's living organization is to have a representative pick up its list Tuesday. Additional lists of seniors assigned to the living organizations will be available by 1 p. m. each day until April 23.
