Dorm Chaplains Sponsor Services

Lenten services sponsored by the chaplains of Veterans dormitory number one and the YMCA began Monday and will continue through Thursday, according to Russ Walker, executive secretary of the YM.

Today's speaker will be the Rev. Thom Hunter, Presbyterian pastor for students. The service will begin at 7 p. m. and last for 20 minutes.

The services are built around the subject of "The Last Days," which deals with the final week of Jesus' life on earth. Wednesday, the Rev. Robert Ellis, Episcopal pastor for students, will speak and the Rev. Kenneth Peterson, Methodist pastor for student will close the services Thursday.

All University students may attend the services in the Lounge of the dormitory, Walker said.

The first outdoor University is open to all University students

In previous years, the sunrise service has been held indoors, but this year's committee felt that an outdoor service in the early morning hour would be more effective and more inspirational, said Dorothy Her, general chairman of the annual event.

Charles J. Armstrong, president of Pacific university will deliver the Easter sermon. Armstrong Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Chi was recently appointed president of Pacific. He was previously dean Saturday morning, but only one of of the faculty at Whitman college, the burglaries has been reported to Walla Walla, Wn. He has a varied background in the educational field and has been listed in "Who's Who in America" since 1948.

The Eugene high school a capella choir, under the direction of Weston H. Brockway will present traditional Easter music. Easter anthems will also be sung by the congregation.

Organizations taking part in and planning the service are URC, the Eugene Ministerial association, and the Religious Directors asso-
