

UO Trackmen Tip Husky Thinclads

The University of Oregon track and field team roared to a decisive 74-57 win over the Washington Huskies at Hayward field Saturday afternoon in the first dual meet of the season for the two teams.

The Ducks grabbed an early lead in the meet and held it throughout. Bill Bowerman's Webfoots garnered 10 first places in the 15 event program.

The first event of the day gave an indication of what was to come. Wayne Reiser and Bill Dellinger, the Duck distance men, started the day off right by placing one-two in the mile run to give their team an 8-1 lead. Later on these same two performers finished in second and third place behind Washington's Denny Meyer in the two-mile run. Reiser's winning time in the mile was 4:25.

Meyer Sets Record

Meyer, who is one of the best two-milers in the country this season stepped off a new record in his specialty when he galloped the two-mile distance in the sparkling time of 9:22.9.

Dahlquist Wins

Dahlquist pulled the surprise of the day when he came from behind on the final turn to over take the leaders and win the quarter-mile run in 50.5. Ted Anderson, the favorite in this event, faded badly and failed to place.

Springbett scored his first double victory since he came to Oregon when he won both the 100 and 220-yard dashes. His time for the latter was a very neat 22.6.

Fawcett upset favored Emery Barnes in the high jump as he sailed over the bar at 6'4". Barnes tried to clear at this height but couldn't quite make it.

Higdon Shows Class

Higdon continued to display unlimited class for a rookie as he tossed the javelin 191'9" to edge favored Darrell Skarvedt of the Huskies.

In the two hurdle races Sorsby and Sogge dominated the pack. Sorsby finished first in the lows in 25.9 seconds and Sogge took the top prize in the highs in 15-5 seconds.

Hickenbottom showed his best performance of the season in the pole vault as he cleared 13'4" to defeat Bob Reid of Oregon and Hilton of Washington, his nearest competitors.

The Huskies picked up their first places in the two-mile, already mentioned, the discus, shot put, broad jump, and mile relay.

Skarvedt was very impressive in the broad jump, going 23 feet. Ben Johnson of the Ducks placed second in this event.

Washington picked up all three places in the discus as Terry Strom, Duane Wardlow, and Jerry Langer placed one-two-three. Wardlow later won the shot put also.

The Ducks see their next track action next Saturday afternoon when they have another dual meet. The Washington State Cougars, favored by many to be one of the top teams in the Northern Division this year, will offer the opposition.

Duck Diamond Crew Splits With Washington State Nine

Buck Bailey's Washington State Cougars took good advantage of costly Oregon errors last Saturday afternoon on Howe field to down the Ducks 11-8 and earn an even two game split with Don Kirsch's favored nine. The Webfoots won the first game on Friday by a 10-1 score.

Five Duck errors were the big contributing factor as the visiting Cougars pushed over nine runs in the first three innings of action and continued to lead throughout the ball game as the host diamond force fought furiously to catch up.

Two towering home runs by George Shaw helped the Kirschmen creep up to within shouting distance of the Staters late in the game but the Ducks didn't have quite enough push to equalize the early inning scoring onslaught by the Cougars.

Blodgett Loses

Bill Blodgett started on the mound for the Ducks and was charged with the loss although he only lasted until midway in the second frame. Trent Huls, Farrell

Albright, Bill Garner, and Norm Forbes all succeeded Blodgett to the pitching hill.

In the Friday game it was a much different story as the Ducks ran roughshod over their opponents, 10-1. Paced by two home runs by Shaw and the fine two-hit pitching of Norm Forbes, the Webfoots completely outclassed the visiting nine.

Shaw, who connected for four round-trippers in the series, hit his first on in the fourth inning with Neil Marlett on base and this gave the Ducks their third and fourth markers of the game. His second came in the sixth when he powered a 380-foot drive to left field. In all for the day, Shaw drove in six runs and scored three himself to be the main factor in the decisive Oregon win.

Schlosstein Hits

Another first game four-baser was clubbed by first-sacker Dick Schlosstein. For the series Schlosstein hit very well, getting four hits in eight times at bat.

John Keller and Neil Marlett hit triples during the two games for the Ducks and Bob Wagner, Schlosstein, Jerry Ross, and Forbes all connected for doubles.

By virtue of their split with the Cougars, Oregon rests in third place in the Northern Division standings. Washington and Oregon State are tied for the league lead with two wins each without a loss.

Webfoot Netters Lose to Portland

Portland university scored their second straight shutout win over the University of Oregon tennis team Saturday when they downed the Ducks 7-0 on the Duck courts.

The Pilots had far too much class for the host of Webfoots and during the afternoon of play the netters of Bob Laurence could win only one set. Dick Gray and Don Bonime managed to pull one set out of the fire from the Pilots' Jerry Doyle and Dick Walsh before going down to defeat.

IM Postponement

Assistant Intramural Director Earl Ferguson, announced Friday that Tuesday afternoon's intramural softball games will be cancelled.

Ferguson said that the IM department intended to reschedule the games for some time in May.
