

'WE PRIME PUMP'

WUS Drive Starts Today

Today is the opening of the annual fund raising drive for the World University Service on this campus. It is through WUS that students from throughout the world help other students to help themselves.

As Gladys Lawther, Northwest regional WUS secretary, describes it, "we provide the pump priming money to get them started." Working with the United Nations commission, UNESCO, the university organization is currently active in some 32 countries.

This country and Western Europe do most of the giving, with India, Pakistan, Japan, Korea and other Asian countries on the receiving end. Student health centers, dormitories, books, and clothing are among the many projects being carried on by WUS with money collected in this country.

Satellites Withdraw

Yugoslavia is the only country behind the Iron Curtain receiving help from WUS. The other Russian satellites were formerly in the program, but have withdrawn from it. They have not been excluded by WUS, Mrs. Lawther emphasized.

Last summer, Mrs. Lawther spent the summer in India under a Ford Foundation grant, and visited many of the WUS projects there. She found the student center at the University of Gauhati, Assam, India of particular interest.

WUS is helping the students build a health center there. The Assam medical association is providing the doctors, the students of the university, the building, and WUS is supplying the medical equipment.

The first floor of the center, already in operation, is a kind of miniature Student Union. Many students study there because it has electricity, she said.

Students Help Themselves

These people are proud to be part of a world organization, Mrs. Lawther said. They also like to help themselves as much as possible. Giving them a start in this direction is part of the objectives of WUS, she said.

In Seoul, Korea, home of many of the schools before the war started, students now have no place to live because of the heavy damage. Recently, WUS purchased one of the larger buildings in the city and is converting it into a place to live. The UN has promised to equip and furnish the building.

WUS projects in these countries are carried on mutually. The WUS committee decides what needs to be done and the organization helps them get started.

In India, the Communists are concentrating with their heaviest propaganda on the universities where WUS is active. In Mrs. Lawther's eyes, this is a sign that the organization is a success in helping the people in a concrete way and winning them away from the Communist line.

Luncheon Co-Chairmen List Committee Heads

Members for the Junior Weekend all-campus luncheon committee have been announced by Marcia Hudson and Corky Horton, luncheon co-chairmen.

Chairmen of the decoration committee are Margaret Tyler and Val Mottram. Also working on the decoration committee is Joy Strogen.

Rae Bergeron and Rick Redfern are chairmen of the food committee. Terry Sullivan will assist them in planning the menu for the luncheon. Miriam Vaaler and Carol Adams, sub-chairmen for the ticket committee, are assisted by Edith Lunde.

Luncheon committee members will meet at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Student Union. After that meeting, a regular weekly schedule of meetings will follow.

The luncheon will be held outside on the old campus if weather permits, Miss Hudson announced. At that time the Junior Weekend queen and her court will be presented.

Skull and Dagger, Kwama and Phi Theta Upsilon members will serve at the luncheon.

Cadet Newburn Heads UO Wing

Cadet Col. Bob Newburn, senior in business, is cadet commander for the AFROTC wing spring term, replacing Norm Webb, senior in political science, who headed the wing winter term.

Staff assignments have been changed at the beginning of each term this year, with seniors holding the top positions for the wing.

Newburn's staff includes Tom Paulus, wing executive, and Rollin Watson, wing operations officer, both cadet lieutenant colonels, and Charles Bucklin, wing adjutant, who holds the rank of cadet major. All are business majors.

The air force wing is divided into four groups this term, each one further divided into two squadrons. The unit drills on Tuesday, with one additional squadron drilling on Thursday with the army unit.

Group commanders, all cadet lieutenant colonels, are Jim Hershner, third-year law student; Bill Hail, senior in psychology; Joe Kennedy, senior in geology and geography; and Jim Lancaster, senior in business, commanding the first through fourth groups, respectively.

This term the air force wing is drilling on massing movements, inspection and wing review procedures and the graduation ceremony.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

Late for your date? She hates to wait? Need something nice to soothe her? Give her a round, firm Lucky Strike—They're cleaner, fresher, smoother!

W. T. Donoghue University of Virginia

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason...enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco...light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better... always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

My roommate was a grouchy soul—No person could be meaner; But Luckies made him change his tune—They're smoother, fresher, cleaner!
