Southwell Named Oregana Editor

VOL. LV

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, THURSDAY, APRIL 22, 1954

NO. 120

BUT NONE ON THE FLOOR

High Schoolers to Fill Houses

"No one will have to sleep on the Friday in the Student Union, and partment will also be featured Satfloor this weekend, unless Univer- will be handled by members of urday morning following the assity students have sleeping bags!" Skull and Dagger. Each visitor sembly. This will be partly a conaccording to Si Ellingson, director registering will pay a fee of $5, tinuation of the "What to take?" of men's affairs. All houses are filled to capacity, he continued, the weekend. estimating that 1300 to 1400 high school seniors will register for Duck Preview.

Yell King Bids Called by ASUO

Petitions for yell king for 1954-55 are now being called for by ASUO President Tom Wrightson. The deadline is Wednesday, May 12 at 5 p. m.

Any male student, regardless of year in school, who has a minimum of a 2.00 accummulative grade point average and 2.00 for winter term, is eligible to petition.

Regular ASUO petition forms should be used, says Wrightson. The king will be selected at the 1954-55 ASUO senate meeting, Thursday, May 13.

The senate has expressed the opinion that the position of rally king should be one highly respected by University students. For this reason, they will consider not only each candlidate's yell leading ability, but also his leadership

Board Interviews Seven at Meeting Co-op Meets at 4 P.M.

Interviews of candidates for sophomore member-at-large of the Student Union board was the main item of business of the board meeting Wednesday. Those interviewed were Sonia Edwards, sophomore in liberal arts; Barbara Johnson, sophomore in art; Barbara Wilcox, sophomore in speech; Valeria Cowls, sophomore in liberal arts; Bob Porter, sophomore in pre-law; Jack Socolofsky, sophomore in pre-law and Lucia Knepper, sophomore in English.

The board has one sophomore and two junior member-at-large vacancies. The board fills the appointive position if it feels that a standing work in the program. The sophomore member's term is for two years, while the junior is for one.

In other business Klaras Deitmeier reported on the annual Student Union awards banquet which has been set for May 20. Addresses from Dick Williams, SU director, and Andy Berwick, board chairman, will be features of the eve-

YW Soph Cabinet Sponsors Dessert

A dessert for freshmen women sponsored by the sophomore cabinet of the YWCA will be held to- ing roles. night in the Carson living room from 6:15 to 6:30 p. m.

is scheduled to explain the voting system. The Duckling counseling program will be explained, and Ann Stearns will sing and play the piano. ,

Ten cents will be charged for refreshments.

which will include all expenses of sessions, and will include addition-Included in the material will be urday-night dance, according to events beginning at 2 p. m. They Registration will begin at noon Bob Maier, registration chairman. are the Amphibian water show at The high-school students will also the men's pool, a track meet, and be assigned housing when they register, he said.

If any of the guests go directly to the house where they are staying before registering, members of the house should make sure they register before the deadline, Maier said.

Saturday morning from 9 a. m. to noon registration will be continued. Transportation to houses will be furnished by members of Alpha Phi Omega, men's service honorary, according to Jerry Farrow, weekend co-chairman.

The WUS-sponsored auction will be held at 4 p. m. Friday in the fishbowl, and dinner Friday will be from 5:30 until 7 p. m. The "What to take?" sessions, to be held in each department, will be held from 8 p. m. to 9:30 p. m., and the WUS-sponsored vodvil show will be at 10 p. m., in Mc-Arthur court.

Adviser meetings, also in each department, will be held from 9 a. m. to noon Saturday. The orientation assembly will be in the SU ballroom from 10 a. m. to 10:30, and will be followed by campus tours led by members of Kwama and Skull and Dagger.

Educational exhibits in each de-

Nominations for members of the next years Co-op board will be made at today's annual meeting of the group. The meeting will be held in Condon hall at 4 p.m. Names of the nominees for the board will appear on the May ASUO general election ballot.

Some 'Venus' Ducats Left

A few seats are still available for next Monday and Tuesday's person has done particularly out- production of "One Touch of Venus," according to Dick Hiatt, University theatre box office manager. All the other nights of the eight performance run have been nearly sold out, he said. The box office will be open all week from 1 to 5 in the afternoon. Tickets are $2 each.

"One Touch of Venus," a modern musical comedy, will open Friday under the direction of Frederick J. Hunter. Featured in the cast are Larry Swanson, senior in music, and Verla Thompson, sophomore in speech, who play the leads. Paul McMullen, graduate in speech, and Audrey Mistretta, junior in music, have leading support- of his trip.

The show contains much of the ASUO President Tom Wrightson the lyrics of Ogden Nash. "Speak Low" is the most popular song housed in the wings of the giant from the show. Other musical building. Barney had the opportunpieces include "West Wind," "Way Venus," "Very, Very Very," and Kremlin at a party sponsored by 'Wooden Wedding."

al exhibits.

Lunch in the houses will be at tickets to the vodvil show and Sat- 1 p. m. Saturday, followed by three a baseball game with the Salem Senators.

Shepherd Drops From UIS Slate

Tom Shepheard, senior in political science, Wednesday night issued a request to Bob Funk, ASUO vice-president, that his name be removed from the senator-at-large ballot for the May elections. Shepfor the post last week with 35 votes, fourth highest total received by the UIS senator-at-large candidates.

According to section nine of the ASUO primary amendment to the ASUO constitution, if a nominee presents a written resignation to the vice-president by noon of the fifth day prior to the general election, his name will be withdrawn and the name of the person who was last defeated for that position shall have his name placed on the ballot as nominee.

The name of the person last defeated for the position is in records in the office of student affairs, according to Funk, and was not available Wednesday evening.

The defeated UIS senator-atlarge candidates were Carole and Roberta Stenkamp.

Emerald Increase In Budget Approved

Bob Southwell, junior in busi- editor of copy on the 1954 book by the publications board. Bob worked as an Emerald reporter.

McCracken, sophomore in liberal McCracken took over the post arts was selected as business man-

Only other petitioners for the two posts were Paul Keefe for editor and Alan Oppliger for business manager.

Southwell served as associate

Voting Ends Today For Junior Court

Voting for the five finalists on the Junior Weekend court ends at 5 p. m. today. Booths, with pictures of the 12 candidates displayed nearby, are located in the Student Union lobby and Ce-op.

The members of the court will be introduced at intermission of the Ali-Campus Vodvil show Friday night.

The 12 candidates for the Junior Weekend court are Anne Johnston, Ann Hopkins, Dorothy Kopp, Shirley Katz, Janet Miller, Nancy Murrow, Nancy Moore, Alma Owen, Jean Paulus, Joanne Morrison, Laura Sturges and Janet Wick.

WUS Hostess Vote

Voting for the World University Service hostess will be held University Service fund drive. The herd received the UIS nomination today along with Junior Weekend Queen selection, according to Jean day night's Vodvil. Fay and Sharon Snyder, WUS hostess co-chairmen.

Booths for both the Junior Weekend Queen and WUS hostess selection are located in the Student Union lobby and the Co-op.

Pictures of the foreign student candidates are on display near the booths. Candidates are Ana Klugatch, Argentina; Namiko Ikeda, Japan; Miyeko Ohno, Japan; Judith Pederson, Denmark; Demetria Pujante, the Philippines; Omneyo Souelem, Egypt; Agnes Weitz, Germany, Gertrud Wirgler, Austria; Marjeha Haavio, Finland; and Ingrid Meijling, Sweden

Selection of a foreign student hostess for the Vodvil show this year is an attempt o "promote international feeling at the Vodvil," Beech, Shirley Knox, Pat McCann Ted Goh, WUS general chairman,

Wednesday evening was He was assistant copy editor in named editor of the 1955 Oregana his sophomore year, and has McCracken took over the post of sales manager of the annual winter term upon the resignation of Martin Brandenfelds.

The publications board also approved a recommendation from a subcommittee on fnince to request an, increase in Emerald funds for the coming year to pay salaries to four additional staff members. The board's request for an additional $866.25 is subject to the approval of President O. Meredith Wilson.

The additional funds would supply salaries for the Emerald managing editor, advertising manager, news editor and office manager. The requested increase would come from a re-allocation of the educational-activity fee.

Schuck Leads Ugliest' Men

Lowell Schuck, sponsored by Delta Upsilon, is leading the field of contestants for the title of Ugliest Man on Campus with a total of $19.93.

The ten finalists for the title were determined Wednesday night by Alpha Phi Omega, men's service fraternity, sponsorers of the event. Proceeds go to the World winner will be announced at Fri-

Other finalists are, in order, John Krone, Alpha Phi, $15.24 Gordon Ross, Pi Kappa Phi, $13.80; Harry Johnston, Phi Delta Theta, $11.34; Walt Gaffney, Chi Omega, Carson 3 and 4, Delta Delta Delta and Hendricks half, $11.19; Jack Fenton, Tau Kappa Epsilon, $8.72; Bob Kelly, Alpha Delta Pi, $8.72 (tie for sixth) Don Monte, Orides, $8.38; Jerry Cach, Alpha Tau Omega, $8.34, and Trent Huls, Gamma Phi Beta and Sigma Phi Epsilon, $7.25.

Vodvil Tickets On Sale Today

Tickets for the World University Service Vodvil show Friday in McArthur court are now on sale in the Student Union, the Co-or and living organizations. Price for college students is 50 cents.

High school seniors will be admitted free to the show, "Hands Across the Sea," as a part of the Duck Preview weekend. Edna. Humiston, Vodvil chairman has announced.

The annual Vodvil will begin at 10 p. m. Friday and will feature acts from five women's and five men's living organizations.

Doors to McArthur court will open at 9:30 p. m. and the WUS carnival will be held from 9:30 to 10 p. m. preceding the Vodvil show. Souvenirs from several foreign countries will be on display and many articles will be on sale.

Debate Team Wins At Corvallis Meet

Defeating four other Pacific coast schools in a "round robin" the University of Oregon debate team took first place in the Pa-Jan. 19, they flew out of Russia cific Forensic league tournament Tuesday at Corvallis.

Winners for Oregon were Bill Cheek, junior in political science, and Bruce Holt, sophomore in speech, who make up the Univerand Pi Sigma Alpha, political sci- sity's second debate team. The ence honorary. was born in Eu- first team of Don Mickelwait, jungene. He spent two years at the ior in economics, and Karl Harsh-University of Oregon before en- barger, senior in speech, are now tering the army. Majoring in poli- at West Point, New York, competical science at Reed, he is 27 ting in the National Invitational Debate tournament.

Barney Talks Tonight On Travels

College Editor Dave Barney, recently returned from three weeks in the Soviet Union will give his impressions of Russia when he speaks today in the Student Union at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

As editor of the Reed college Quest, Barney was selected along with six other American student editors to visit Russia. They arrived in Moscow Dec. 28 and spent five days in the Russia capital before continuing on their 5000 mile tour of the country.

Although the editors received what is known in the west as the 'red carpet, champagne and caviar tour," they were still able to speak with literally hundreds of Russian people, and thus form a comprehensive picture of today's Russia.

With the exception of airplanes and factories, the visitors could photograph anything they pleased. Barney will show moving pictures

In Moscow Barney visited the lin. new Moscow university. This huge music of Kurt Weill, paired with 36 story building holds 18,000 students. Six thousand students are ity to speak personally with many Ou West in Jersey," "The Trouble of the students. The seven editors With Women," "One Touch of even spent New Year's Eve in the young Moscow communists.

Leaving Moscow the party traveled to Baku on the Caspian sea. Then they went by train to Tiflis, the capital of the Georgian republic. Their next stop was the great industrial center of Kharkov in the Ukraine.

From Kharkov they went to Odessa, a seaport on the Black sea. This city was just recently opened to foreigners and Barney's party was the first group of Americans to visit the city in many years. From Odessa they went to Kiev and then back to Moscow.

Although their time was strictly limited, the editors had opportunities to sample many types of Russian life. They visited farms, factories, schools and the ballet. They were able to form opinions on Russian economics, politics, education and culture.

When the group left Moscow on via Minsk, Warsaw and East Ber-

Barney, who is sponsored jointly by the University Press Club, the International Relations club years old.