

ASUO Constitutional Amendments

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ASUO CONSTITUTION

I. The following amendment would add an additional section to: ARTICLE VI so that it will read ARTICLE VI, section VI. (Nomination of Candidates) Each political party shall present a slate of candidates for the general election. These candidates shall be selected as each of the several parties chooses. This amendment shall become effective September 1, 1954, and shall take precedence over any article or section of this constitution dealing with candidacy for office, including section V of this article.

II. As the constitution now reads: ARTICLE VI (Elections) section III: Class positions. The same election procedure will be followed for each class. They will each return a president, vice-president, and two representatives.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT: Class positions. The same procedure will be followed for all classes except for the freshman class, in which each candidate shall designate the office sought (president or representative), and after the election of president and vice-president all remaining ballots will be credited to candidates for representative positions in subsequent transfers.

III. As the constitution now reads: ARTICLE VI (Elections) section IV: Dates of Elections. ASUO elections shall take place after the first and prior to the eighth week of spring term. Freshman election shall take place after the fifth and prior to the eighth week of fall term.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT: Dates of elections. ASUO elections shall take place after the first and prior to the eighth week of spring term. Freshman elections shall take place after the fifth and prior to the eighth week of fall term. The graduate student election shall take place after the fifth and prior to the eighth week of fall term.
