

36 Instructors Added To Summer School Staff

'Red' Sanders To Assist P. E.

Visiting instructors will supplement the regular faculty members in eight University departments during the 1954 summer session.

The 36 additional teachers will be on the staffs of the education and physical education schools, and the departments of art education, mathematics, English, geography, history and speech.

Visiting professors in the education school will include Alden Blankenship, superintendent of Tacoma, Wash., public school; Clarence Hines, superintendent of Eugene public schools; Beatrice J. Hurley of New York university; Elizabeth Irish of Santa Barbara college; Donald Kruzner, deputy superintendent of King County, Wash., schools;

James Longdon, principal of Shorewood, Wis., high school; Herman Shibley, general superintendent of education, Indianapolis, Ind.; John G. Fowlkes of the University of Wisconsin; W. Virgil Smith, assistant superintendent of Seattle public schools, and Harold Spears, assistant superintendent of San Francisco united school district.

Educators to Visit

Associate and assistant professors visiting the education school will be Charles Dean, assistant superintendent of schools, Billings, Mont.; Lester Kerkendall of Oregon State college; Lottie Lamb, librarian at Eugene high school; Dean Lobaugh, assistant superintendent of Eugene public schools, and William Nutting of the University of Utah.

The education school will have as visiting instructors, Joy Gubser and Verna Hogg of the Oregon State college department of education; Erwin Julfs, principal of Eugene's Woodrow Wilson junior high school; Charles Knight of Stanford university; Drayton Marsh, principal of Culver City, Calif., junior high school, and Ruth Farnham, Osborne, Hinsdale, Ill., Township high school.

Sanders to Teach

Four coaches will be visiting faculty members for the physical education school this summer. They are "Red" Sanders, head football coach of UCLA; Robert Feerick, head basketball coach at Santa Clara university; Robert Newland, track coach at Medford high school, and Pete Susick, football coach at Marshfield high school in Coos Bay.

Acting as a visiting professor of art education will be Walter Hook, chief of the division of technical illustration for the Atomic Energy commission at Richland, Wash. Alexander Masley of the University of New Mexico will also serve in that department.

Math Gets 3

Three visiting professors will work in the mathematics department. They are David Bourgin of the University of Illinois, Hans Rademacher of the University of Pennsylvania and Henry Van Engin of Iowa State teachers college.

The English department will have as visiting faculty members, Rose Coffman of Portland's Roosevelt high school and Charlton Laird of the University of Nevada.

Hazel Newhouse of Gresham high school will be an assistant professor of geography during the summer session. The history department will have one visiting professor this summer. He is Vernon Carstensen of the University of Wisconsin.

The two visiting instructors in the speech department will be Upton Palmer of the University of California and Robert West of Brooklyn college.

Dictator Discussion On Forum Tonight

"What Makes Dictators?" will be the topic of the University Radio Forum broadcast Monday night over radio station KOAC.

Moderator for the discussion will be R. A. Littman, associate professor of psychology. Members of the panel will be Leona E. Tyler, associate professor of psychology; Ivan G. Nagy, assistant professor of political science, and J. V. Berreman, professor of sociology.

The problem of dictators and dictatorship will be approached from what psychologists call the "authoritarian personality," according to W. J. Robert, associate professor of business administration.

Cake Sale Planned By Football Wives

The University Football wives organization is sponsoring a cake sale, to be held in the public market from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturday. Cakes will be made by members of the organization and wives of members of the coaching staff.

Contributions from the sale will go to the Pearl S. Buck home, according to Mrs. Jack Patera.

Steel Interview Friday

Representatives of Bethlehem Steel company will be on campus Friday, April 30, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to interview for their loop training program. Interested students should contact the graduate placement office, 206 Emerald hall.

Campus Calendar

10:30	Rel Dir Asso	315 SU
11:00	Journ Fac	114 SU
Noon	WRA Cab	110 SU
	UIS	111 SU
	Drama Staff	112 SU
	Non Part	113 SU
2:30	Newman Cl Exec	111 SU
4:00	AWS Dk Prv Let	111 SU
6:30	IFC	111 SU
	Alpine Cl	112 SU
	Anthro Cl	113 SU
	Chaplains	315 SU
	ASUO Senate	334 SU
	3BuB
7:00	Hardy Cof Hr Art gal	SU
7:30	Air Com Sqd Init	214 SU

Honorary Initiates Ten at Ceremonies

Ten women were initiated by Chi Delta Phi, national literary honorary for women, at ceremonies Tuesday evening in Gerlinger hall.

New initiates are Loanne Morgan and Jean Smith, sophomores in speech; Joanne Johnston and Mary Alice Allen, sophomores in journalism; Betty Chatterton and Mary Ann Mowery, juniors in English; Pat Sykes, sophomore in sociology; and Dixie Miller, Linda Shumaker and Joyce Noeth, sophomores in liberal arts.

Job Opportunities

E. G. English, executive assistant to the president of the Bethlehem Pacific Coast Steel corporation will be on campus Friday to interview seniors interested in training for a career in the steel industry.

Appointments for interviews with English may be made at the graduate placement office in Emerald hall.

Lt. (jg) F. J. Kreles, Wave officer of the procurement division from Seattle, will interview junior and senior women desiring information about the Wave program in the Student Union today.

Lt. H. E. Winters, naval officer of the procurement division, will interview senior men and others wishing information.

CAMPUS BRIEFS

Deadline for items for this column is at 4 p.m. the day prior to publication.

● The YWCA conference committee meeting in Gerlinger hall at noon today, according to Sally Stadelman, publicity chairman.

● The U of O Alpine club will meet today at 4 p. m. in the Student Union, according to John Vazbys, vice-president.

● The United Independent Students will meet at 12:15 p. m. today in the Student Union. Hollis Ransom, president, has urged all party candidates for office to attend the meeting.

Classifieds

Don Wenzl, Classified Advertising Mgr.

Unusual house dance favors. Ph. 4-3714. 4-29

FOR SALE — '37 Ford, needs brakes, new battery, ignition lock broke. $20. Ph. 5-1275 eves.

1949 PONTIAC "8" sedan, $835. Hydra. All extras. Professor Robert. Ext. 303. 54

● The WUS fund executive committee and committee chairmen will meet today at noon in the YMCA, according to Ted Goh, general chairman.

● The YWCA conference committee will meet at 4 p. m. today in Gerlinger hall, according to conference chairman Germaine LaMarche.

This summer formal won't stain or wrinkle!

WITH EXCLUSIVE "STAIN SHY" FINISH

Holds its press evening after evening ... "Stain Shy" finish resists stains, repels most liquids.

26.95

Midnite Blue Dress Trousers, 12.50

Cummerbund and Tie Sets, 7.50 to 15.00

See Your Local AFTER SIX Dealer

Your Local Arrow Shirt Dealer On The Campus

860 13th

Ph. 5-1363

'Mystie' Sale Dates Picked

Wednesday and Thursday of next week are the days to get the "Mysties" offered at booths around the campus.

The sale of "Mysties" is sponsored each year by Phi Theta Upsilon under chairmanship of freshman girls to raise funds for scholarships. This year's sale chairman are Sally Jo Grieg and Betty Anderson.

Traditionally, the identification of the "Mystie" is not given until the day of the sale. The price of a "Mystie" is one dime.

Cosmo Club to Sell WUS Displays Fri.

Items displayed at the WUS Carnival during the all-campus Vodvil last Friday will be sold at a Friday meeting of the Cosmopolitan club, according to Lee McGary, president of the group.

The meeting will be held at Plymouth house, 13th and Ferry sts., from 8 p. m. to midnight Friday.

The program will feature games led by students of various foreign countries, Miss McGary said. There will be dancing and refreshments during the social hour.

Today's Staff

Make-up Editor: Kity Fraser
Copy desk: Joy Bellarts, Dick Lewis, Anne Ritchey.
Make-up Assistant: Sam Vahey
Night Editor: Sally Ryan

GET IN THE SWIM!

You'll Find

It Pays

To

READ AND USE CLASSIFIEDS

The Smart Way to BUY-SELL-RENT-HIRE CALL THE EMERALD

Ext. 219

(Afternoons)