Wesley Foundation

Sunday morning at 9:45 the Koinonia Klasse will meet at the First Methodist church. Continuing the discussions from Leslie Weatherhead's book, "The Will of God," Cris Hecker, freshman in nursing, and Tom Warnock, junior in physics, will speak on "The Circumstantial Will."

For those wishing rides to the church, there will be cars leaving Gerlinger hall at 9:30. Following the 6 p.m. light supper, Rev. Ken Peterson will speak on the first of a series of programs on the apostles' lives after the death of Christ. His topic will be, "What If They Had Quit?" discussing the possibilities of what might have happened had the apostles disbanded.

A potluck supper will be held Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. Joan Passmore, freshman in liberal arts, will lead chapel Thursday at 12:30 p.m. Choir rehearsal is scheduled for Thursday evening at 6:30.

Christian House

There will be an informal open house at Christian house tonight from 8 to 12 p.m.

The Sunday program will begin with the usual donut hour at 9:15 a.m., followed by Bible study led by Clarence H. Elliott. The 5:30 p.m. meeting will be devoted to preparation for leading the 7 p.m. service at the First Christian church. JoAnne Flanders is in charge of the service. A panel of students will speak on, "How I Can Serve God Through My Vocation." Speakers include Sherman Holmes, law; Joan Wilson, nursing; Gene Lowrance, radar; Winona Fishback, business; Dorothy Iler, journalism; Nancy Daniels, teaching; Janice Milton, music; Lyle Spears, architecture; Libby Briscoe, homemaking, and Jim Ma-whirter, social work. The worship service is being planned by Rosalind Lowrance.

A reception is being given the church people by the students, with Mary Lou Watts, graduate student in music, in charge. The evening's activities are the initial events of Christian family week at the church. People of all age groups are invited to participate.

Through-the-week activities include the executive council meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday and several committee meetings, to plan for participation in Junior Weekend events. Evelyn Studenicka has been appointed chairman of the annual Mother's breakfast to be held at Christian house Sunday, May 16, at 8:30 a.m.

Luther House

Sunday evening supper and worship will be held as usual beginning at 5:30 p.m. with a student-served supper.

Lutherans are reminded of the Bible study groups which meet on Mondays at 3 p.m., Wednesdays at 7 and 9 p.m. and Thursdays at 9 a.m., 11 a.m. and 9 p.m.

Attendance at the Wednesday noon luncheons has been increasing since the contest to get new members started. As of last Wednesday, Roger Danielson's team was still leading Carol Beech's team. About forty were present last week, and all Lutherans are invited to join the group.

The coast retreat is to take place next weekend. It is an all-Oregon student retreat with students attending from all over the state. Plans have been made for coast recreation, evening firesides, study programs and plenty of free time. Any students interested in going should contact the student house at 4-7373 for further information.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 7 the annual seniors' banquet and formal dance, honoring seniors and graduates, will be held. Tickets are $1.25 per person. Dress is formal, and everyone is invited to attend, with or without dates.

Sunday at 9 a.m. the coffee hour will take place, followed by the Bible class studying Christian doctrine. Jerry Melone will lead the study of the fifth article of the statement of reformed faith, "Of the Sin of Man." At 12:30 p.m. a council retreat is scheduled. A picnic at Leaburg lake for all Westminsterites will begin at 5:45 p.m., after which there will be a vesper service led by Don Shreve.

Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. there will be a chapel service led by Jerry Melone. That evening at 5:30 the regular fellowship supper will feature a panel, moderated by David and Mary Bussard, which will discuss "Advantages and Disadvantages of Marrying While in College."

Committee Tells Cleanup Pairings

Pairings for the All-campus Cleanup have been announced by co-chairmen Lynn Boddling and Jeanette Kimball. The cleanup will kick-off Junior Weekend festivities on Thursday afternoon, May 13.

Only freshmen are to take part in this event. As all freshmen pledges will be working for their own houses, the dorm cleanup crews must include only independent freshmen.

A map showing the areas where each group is to work will be published in the Emerald later.

The paired groups and the section they are assigned to are: 1. Alpha Xi Delta, Phi Kappa Sigma; 2. Alpha Omicron Pi and Chi Psi; 3. Gamma Phi-Beta and Delta Tau Delta; 4. Ann Judson, Lambda Chi Alpha and Merrick hall; 5. Delta Delta Delta and Beta Theta Pi; 6. Carson 5 and Susan Campbell; 7. Delta Gamma and Campbell club; 8. Sigma Kappa and Pi Kappa Alpha; 9.
