

Oregon Trackmen Stop Idaho, 92-38

The University of Oregon track and field team roared to 14 first places in 15 events to score an easy 92-38 win over the Idaho Vandals Saturday afternoon at Moscow.

Idaho, completely outmanned by the powerful Webfoots, managed only one win during the entire meet. This came in the mile run when Emerson Clark edged Oregon's Wayne Reiser in the meet record time of 4:24.5.

One other meet record fell during the afternoon of events when the Ducks' Bill Dellinger handed Idaho's Lou Gourley his first loss of the season in the two-mile run by galloping home the winner in the excellent clocking of 9:34.5.

Springbett Stars

Oregon had three double-winners. Bruce Springbett won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Bill Sorsby grabbed first in the low and high hurdles and Ben Lloyd won the shot put and discus throw.

Other winners for the Ducks were Bob Faucett in the high jump, Doug Clement in the 880, Don Jacobs in the 440, Bob Reid in the pole vault, Ben Johnson in the broad jump and Doyle Higdon in the javelin.

Despite their high point total, the runners of Bill Bowerman were able to annex only one sweep. That came in the high jump where Faucett, Walt Badorek and Johnson placed one-two-three.

Dominate Sprints

Best individual performance of the day was by Springbett who won the 100 in 10.1 seconds and came back later to win the 220 in the neat time of 22.7 seconds. Doug Talbot of Oregon took second place in both races as the Ducks completely dominated the sprints.

Another bright spot for Oregon in the meet was the performance of their mile relay team. Bowerman, who has been having trouble finding a winning quartet, came up with a dandy Saturday. A team composed of Jacobs, Reiser, Talbot and Clement toured the mile distance in the good time of 3:26.2.

Ducklings Divide Weekend Games

The Oregon Frosh baseball team split a pair of games over the just completed weekend. The Ducklings fell to the Oregon State Beavers on Friday by a 10-8 score but came back Saturday afternoon to squeak by Eugene high, 5-4.

Ray Coley's nine, seeking a revenge win over the baby Beavers, found the OSC bats a little too potent to handle. The Rooks tallied eight runs in the first two innings and then coasted to an easy victory.

In the Saturday encounter the Frosh had to go one extra inning before edging a determined Eugene team. The Axemen tied the score at 4-all in the seventh only to see the Ducklings erase this with a run in the eighth.

Chucks Win

BILL BLODGETT, Duck pitcher, rallied after a shaky start to hurl his Oregon teammates to a 10-7 win over the Alumni All-Stars Saturday afternoon.

Duck Baseballers Schedule ND Trip

Oregon's Ducks are scheduled to leave late Monday for their all-important invasion of the Inland Empire and a slate of games that will have them playing six tussles in seven days.

The Webfoots, in second place in ND standings behind the Oregon State Beavers, must win at least half of their games on the trip to stay in the running for the league championship.

OSC, which is on its northern venture at the present time, split a pair of games with Idaho last weekend to remain well in front of the field. On Friday the Bea-

Friday afternoon and then came back to down the Alumni All-Star team by a 10-7 count in a Saturday afternoon game. Oregon home runs were responsible for both victories. Bob Wagner connected with a 370 foot circuit smash with the bases loaded in the Seattle game and his hit eventually resulted in a Duck victory.

In the Saturday game it was shortstop John Keller who provided the four-base wallop. Keller's blow came in the eighth frame of the alumni game with the score all knotted up, 7-7.

George Shaw also picked up a homer in the Saturday clash. Shaw smashed one over the right-fielder's head in the third inning.

Pitching duties against Seattle were split up between Norm Forbes, Bill Garner and Trenton Huls. Forbes, who pitched the first four innings, was credited with the win.

Right-hander Bill Blodgett, starting his first game in nearly a month, went all the way for the Ducks on Saturday. Blodgett got off to a very shaky start as he gave up four runs in the first frame and three more in the fourth but he came back strong in the late innings to become almost invincible. In many innings he set the alumni down in order.

Oregon will play their next games Wednesday and Thursday afternoons when they take on Idaho in the first games of their trip.

vers were handed their first conference loss when the Vandals won 4-0. But Ralph Coleman's nine came back strong Saturday to score an easy 10-5 victory. The split leaves the Orangemen with a two game lead over second place Oregon.

Don Kirsch's Webfoots took a rest from division warfare over the past weekend to take two non-conference victories at Howe field. The Ducks tallied five runs in the first inning and then held on for a 5-3 win over Seattle university
