The Ducks trimmed the Cougars 19-8 and won over the Vandals by a 121/2-51/2 tally. The two victories were the seventeenth and eighteenth straight ND victories for the Webfoots.

Al Mundle of the Ducks took medalist honors in the Cougar match with an even par 72.

The Webfoots took a 6-3 lead in the best-ball matches against WSC and then held onto their lead to score the win. Captain Don Roger Boyd of the Cougars got his team off to a good start in singles action when he upset Krieger 21/2-1/2 in the first match of the first and second innings, but the afternoon. But Oregon was not to be denied and within a few minutes the Ducks had clinched the match with some great clutch playing.

Mundle, Howard Zenger and Neil Dwyer were the leading lights as the Webfoots piled up their final winning margin.

Against the Vandals it was little Bob Takano who became the Duck star as he checked in with a 72 for medalist honors. Bill Weitz of Idaho was close behind with a 73. Oregon all but clinched the affair in the morning's best-ball action as they took an 81/2-1/2 lead. Mundle and Zenger teamed up for a 66 to lead the way.
