Webfoot Dualmen Schedule BC Meet

Bill Bowerman's Oregon track and field team will take a rest from Northern Division warfare this weekend as they tangle with the University of British Columbia and the Vancouver Arctic Club in a triangular meet at Vancouver, B.C. The Ducks move into action Saturday afternoon. Bowerman and his charges left for the northern city early Thursday morning and they plan to return Sunday to start preparations for their coming dual meet with the Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis the following Saturday.

Little is known of the strength of either of the Vancouver teams so the Ducks will go into the meet with no idea of just how they will fare in the different events.

Two Webfoot performers who will be especially eager to make a good showing will be half-miler Doug Clement and pole-vaulter

Bob Reed. Both of these boys call B.C. their home. Clement participated in many meets in B.C. not too long ago so Vancouver fans will no doubt be well acquainted with the Oregon 880 runner.

Oregon will bank on top performers from Ken Hickenbottom in the pole vault, Clement in the 880, Bruce Springbett in the dashes, Bill Sorby and Chan Sogge in the hurdles, Bob Faucett in the high jump, Wayne Reiser and Bill Dellinger in the distance runs, Ben Johnson in the broad jump and Doyle Higdon in the javelin throw for their main scoring strength. All of these men have been consistent performers in meets to date.
