Luther House

The all-Oregon retreat at Camp Westwind, near Otis, on the Oregon coast will take place this weekend, beginning tonight and lasting until Sunday noon. Christian fellowship, Bible discussions, recreation and free time are in store for those attending.

Tonight's program will include an introduction and recreation, and Saturday will feature a radio play directed by Mike Gotter and a summary of the Bible discussions.

Luther house has been invited to spend Sunday evening after the retreat with the Lutheran group at Oregon State college, so there will be no Sunday evening program at the house here.

Any student planning to go should sign up at the house so that transportation may be arranged. There will be cars leaving Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

Bible study will continue as usual this week, and there will also be a Wednesday noon luncheon. There were forty at last week's luncheon, and Carole Beech's team gained to within two points of Roger Danielson's.

Christian House

Christian house is going to Armitage park on a picnic tonight. Cars leave the house at 5 p.m., 5:15 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. Each person is to bring 60c for food. The picnic is open to all students interested in joining the group. Evelyn Studenicka is in charge of the event.

The Sunday program begins with the 9:15 a.m. donut hour, after which Victor P. Morris leads a Bible class. At the 5:30 p.m. fellowship hour the annual "Love, Courtship, and Marriage," series will open with the co-chairmen of the program committee outlining plans. These chairmen are Dorothy Iler and Joan Wilson. The first program will be a student panel on dating, with Jo Hutchon, Danforth Fellow, as moderator.

Wednesday at 6:45 there will be an executive council meeting.

Thursday at 5:30, a potluck dinner will be held, featuring Dr. Royal J. Dye, famous former missionary to the Belgian Congo, as the special guest. Dinner arrangements are being made by Maxine Molkie. Dr. Dye, who pioneered in Africa in the early days of Christian missions there, was the recent recipient of a fying trip back to his former field of service. He will bring the group up-to-date on changes in the Belgian Congo.

Students are busy at work on the annual Mother's Breakfast, to be held during Junior Weekend, on Sunday, at 8:30 a.m. The theme for the morning program is "Spring Song." Students are urged to procure tickets for their mothers and for themselves early, inasmuch as the limited space necessitates limiting the number of students who can attend. Ticket chairman is Phyllis Bates. Reservations may be made at Christian house. (5-3491).

Society of Friends

Eugene people will have an unusual opportunity Sunday at 8 p.m. to hear a lecture on Chinese life, by a man who has lived and worked in North China for more than six years, returning only a year ago. The lecture will be held on the second floor of the Congregational church.

William Hinton, a graduate of Cornell University in 1940, with a degree in Animal Husbandry, went to China in 1947 in a tractor technician unit recruited by the Church of the Brethren for UNRRA. The unit had 1200 American-made tractors to demonstrate and service. Their job was to teach the Chinese farmers to handle and maintain the equipment.

When UNRRA folded up, Hinton decided to stay in China as an independent technician. He lived with the people, ate their food, wore their dress, and learned their language. His first service was under the Nationalist government, but he was assigned to areas under control of Communist guerrillas who had been fighting the Japanese. He is one of the few Americans who has had first-hand experience with the changes taking place in Chinese agriculture under the new regime.

Hinton has also traveled widely in sections of North China and Manchuria. Since returning to the United States he has lectured widely in the East and the Middle West. He comes to Eugene from lectures in Portland colleges and churches. The Eugene Friends Meeting (Quakers) is sponsoring the lecture.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 8 p.m. there will be a skating party. Cars will leave Westminster house for the rink.

Sunday at 9:30 a.m. the Bible study class will continue its discussion of the Statement of Reformed Faith, article six, entitled, "Of the Grace of God." Coffee and doughnuts will be served. That evening at 6 p.m. the group will go on a picnic to Armitage park. Frank Roth will lead the vesper service which follows.

The usual Wednesday chapel service will be held at 12:30 a. m. At the fellowship supper at 5:30 p.m. the guest speaker will be E. G. Moll, professor of English, whose topic will be "Jonah of Nineva."

Wesley Foundation

At 9:45 Sunday morning the Koinonia Klass will meet at the First Methodist church. Navarre Davis, senior in business, and Harriet Hornbeck, freshman in liberal arts, will discuss, "The Ultimate Will," from Leslie Weatherhead's book, "The Will of God." For those wishing rides, cars will be leaving Gerlinger hall at 9:30.

At 3 p.m. in the afternoon, Wesleyans will leave Gerlinger hall for Armitage park for games and a picnic, followed by the evening program. Dick McDaniel, sophomore in pre-law, will speak about the Apostle Peter and his influence on the early church. This is the second in the series of "Apostles' Lives After the Crucifixion of Christ."

The regular Tuesday potluck supper will be held at the home of Helen Hall. Wesleyans will meet at Gerlinger at 5:30 p.m. for transportation.

Dixie Miller, sophomore in writing, will lead chapel Thursday at 12:30 p.m.

Tonight all Wesley "cats" will meet at Gerlinger hall at 7 p.m. for the Alley Cat Serenade. From Gerlinger they will go to Mopse park near Fern Ridge lake. The evening will feature dancing, games and refreshments.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

A series of three discussions concerning the topic, "I'm a Christian—Now What?" will be held at the next three meetings of Inter-Varsity Christian fellowship, each Tuesday at 7 p.m. on May 11, 18, and 25. Location of the meetings will be announced in the Emerald.

Members have voted to resume daily noon prayer meetings from 12:30 to 1 p.m. in Library 202. The prayer sessions are open to all students.

A scholarship fund has been established by the chapter to assist students toward attending the IVCF summer camps at Campus-by-the-Sea at Catalina Island, Cal. Persons considering attendance at the camps should contact Shirley Knox at Rebec house for further information.
