

SHAW RANKS HIGH

ND Pitchers Put Skids on Hitters

The pitchers have applied the brakes to the runaway pace of the hitters in the Northern Division and Jack Pinion of Oregon State has taken the batting lead in games through May 8, statistics reveal.

Pinion is clubbing the ball at a .471 rate and holds a slim lead over Washington's Jack Ballard, who now is hitting .469. Jay Dean of the Beavers is third with .438, Oregon's Norm Forbes moved into fourth place with .435 and the top five is completed by Chuck Fisk of Oregon State, who has an even .400 average.

Washington's Huskies took a narrow lead in the team race, .314 to .313 and appear to have the field pretty well outdistanced. Oregon maintained its edge in the fielding, .956 to .943 for the Beavers.

There were also a few changes in the leadership of the various slugging departments. Jay Dean of the Beavers moved into a tie with Chuck Fisk in runs batted in with 16 each and George Shaw holds third spot with 14 to his credit.

Shaw still holds the top spot in homers with four and his teammate, Neal Marlett is second with three. Ron Overby of Washington State has three triples and Dean tops the doubles with 5, two more than Norm Forbes of Oregon and Terry Sparks of Washington State. Roland Halle of the Huskies is again the leader in stolen bases with 11, two more than Larry Watson of the same club.

Huskies Trim Webfoots, 9-7

The Washington Huskies took advantage of Oregon's shaky pitching and defense at Seattle and beat the Ducks 9-7 Tuesday in the final game of their home and home Northern Division series. The loss dropped the Ducks a full game behind the leading Oregon State Beavers who were idle.

Oregon got a four run lead in the first inning but couldn't hold it. Washington tied up the game in the fourth and got four more runs in the sixth.

Washington Earns 16th Straight Title

The Washington Huskies rolled to their sixteenth dual meet tennis championship in a row last Saturday afternoon as they downed the Oregon Ducks by a 7-0 score on the Seattle courts.

The Webfoots, although trying hard throughout the match, were unable to match the speed and skill of their smooth opponents. Dick Gray of Oregon was the only one to come close to scoring a win over the Huskies. Gray won his first set from Jim Getchell of the hosts, 8-6, but couldn't hold his lead and went down to defeat in the next two by 2-6 and 3-6 scores.

In the number one match of the day flashy Bill Quallian of the hosts outlasted Oregon's Ron Lowell, 6-2, 6-0.

Singles: Quillian (W) def. Lowell (O) 6-2, 6-0; Perkins (W) def. Baker (O) 6-1, 6-0; Smetheram (W) def. Hamilton (O) 6-3, 6-1; Getchell (W) def. Gray (O) 6-8, 6-2, 6-3; Hanson (W) def. Magi (O) 6-4, 6-0.

Doubles: Quillian-Perkins (W) def. Hamilton-Baker (O) 6-1, 6-1; Emetheram-Hanson (W) def. Lowell-Bonime (O) 6-3, 6-2.

Golfers Sew Up ND Championship

The University of Oregon golf team sewed up the Northern Division dual meet championship and also gained some sweet revenge in two links matches last weekend.

Sid Milligan's divotmen clinched the ND toga on Friday when they edged the Washington Huskies 19-8 in a close match. Both teams had gone into the meet with undefeated records.

Kent McLachlan of the losing Huskies and Don Krieger of the Ducks staged a two man battle for medalist honors and both wound up with 71's to tie for the honor.

On Saturday the Webfoots moved over to Seattle university's course and downed the Chieftans 12-6 to even the score with the Seattleites who upset the Ducks earlier in the season on Oregon's home course.

Krieger was once again the Ducks' sparkplug, rolling up a sub-par 67. Jud Smith, drawing the embarrassing assignment of playing the Chief's girl linkster, Pat Lesser, came through with an outstanding round also. Smith easily won over Lesser 2½-½ by carding a 68.

The Webfoots see their next golf action next Saturday morning and afternoon when they play a return match with the Oregon State Beavers at the Eugene Country club.

Sigma Delta Phi Slates Workouts

Work outs of Sigma Delta Phi, national athletic honorary fraternity, have been scheduled daily from 3 to 5 o'clock. There are approximately 25 aspirants who are presently working out. Five will be nearing completion of the 15 necessary athletic achievement tests before the end of the week.

Phi Kap Hurler Quiets ATO Bats

Phi Kappa Sigma's Gene Beck outpitched Alpha Tau Omega's Bob Altman in a tight mound duel Tuesday afternoon as the ATOs, defending IM softball champions, were eliminated from this year's tourney by a 3-2 score.

Beck was nearly invincible as he slammed the door in the faces of the supposedly unstoppable ATO batters. Only Max Anderson was able to get a solid blow off Beck's slants. Anderson homered in the fifth inning with no one on.

The winners jumped to the fore in a hurry by marking up two runs in the first inning on a triple by Bob Hinman after two men had walked.
