

Junior Prom Tops Friday Activities

Luncheon Tickets Selling At Student Union, Co-op

Tickets are still on sale at the Co-op and the Student Union for the All-campus luncheon, but are selling rapidly, according to Marcia Hodgson and Corky Horton, luncheon co-chairmen. If there are any left, they will be sold in a booth on the old campus Saturday morning.

The luncheon will begin at 11:45 a. m. Saturday and will continue with the entrance of the Junior Weekend queen and her court, music by the Four Shades of Rhythm, and tappings by various honoraries.

The lunch will consist of hot dogs, salad and relishes and will be served by members of Kwama, Phi Theta Upsilon and Skull and Dagger.

Students are urged to buy their tickets while on sale at Co-op and the Student Union to guarantee a lunch for Saturday. Dormitory residents will receive free luncheon tickets for themselves through the dorm cafeterias.

Thetas, Sig Eps Get Prizes for Cleanup

Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Phi Epsilon won the All-campus cleanup, opening event of Junior Weekend. The awards—large green and yellow garbage cans—were presented at "Cleanup Cut-ups," terrace dance, held immediately after the cleanup, Friday afternoon.

Gary West, freshman in liberal arts, won the Alpha Phi Omega trophy, which is presented annually to the most outstanding underclassman. West is freshman class representative and was recently elected senator-at-large to serve on the ASUO senate next year. The award was presented at the dance by APO President Ben Schmidt.

Tug-of-war to End Week of Traditions

A week of Junior Weekend traditions ends today with the freshman-sophomore tug-of-war behind the Kappa Sigma house at 4 p. m.

In this annual event, the two classes face each other across the millrace and the contest is won by pulling the opposing team into the millrace. In the past, freshmen have almost always turned out in larger numbers to win the tug-of-war.

Laura Languishes In Lazy Lagoon

It just doesn't pay to be helpful.

Laura Sturges, publicity chairman for Junior Weekend, has been busy this week writing stories for the Emerald on the various activities of Junior Weekend, including traditions and the dunking of violators in Fenton pool by members of the Order of the 'O.'

Thursday, on her way to the Emerald shack to turn in the day's Junior Weekend stories, Miss Sturges was seized by a group of strong arms and most ingloriously dunked in the pool twice.

"But I thought only freshmen would be dunked," exclaimed Miss Sturges, a junior in journalism, as she went under.

Frosh Women Offered Asylum

Today, the "Alphaholics Unanimous" (Alpha hall) have issued a blanket invitation to all freshman women tradition violators to seek refuge in their hall. A sign over the door proclaims that "asylum" may be found within.

The action came after the proclamation by freshman men that today is to be the first "all frosh day" in the University's history, as a result of lively freshman class spirit and Junior Weekend traditions.

Thursday afternoon, the frosh managed to retaliate against some of the members of the Order of the O by pushing them into the green waters of Fenton pool.

Another "O" man was tubbed Thursday night at Sherry Ross. Freshman men also milled around Hendricks hall Thursday night for about two hours. It was reported that the men were there at the request of the women, who asked to be "liberated" from study table.

Freshmen Revolt; Switch Traditions

A Proclamation:

Today shall be the first "All Frosh Day" in the University's tradition. We, the delegates of the freshman class proclaim this in pride and nobility.

Yesterday, the Men of "57," under the leadership of some of the able Sherry Ross men, dem-

(Please turn to page three)

Fields to Furnish Music; Wilson to Crown Queen

See Page 6 for stories on the All-campus Sing and the Mother's Tea, both Saturday events, and Page 3 for the story on the Saturday float parade deadlines.

Tonight at 9 in the Student Union ballroom one of the biggest events of Junior Weekend, the Junior Prom will begin.

The coronation of the queen will highlight the evening at inter-

Queen and her princesses will lead off the dance beginning the last half of the evening.

Presentation of the two honor cups for juniors will also be made at intermission. The Gerlinger cup which goes to an outstanding junior woman will be presented by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, and the Koyl cup which is presented to an outstanding junior man will be presented by Charles W. Koyl, class of 1911. Druids, junior men's honorary, will tap new members at the intermission, which will be

(Please turn to page seven)

ERNE FIELDS
 Music-maker

mission. One of the biggest honors a junior woman can receive, being voted Junior Weekend Queen, will befall one of the five girls on the court — Dorothy Kopp, Janet Miller, Nancy Murrow, Janet Wick, or Alma Owen. University President O. Meredith Wilson will crown the queen.

Following the coronation the Queen's dance will be held. The

Sign-up for Mom Starts Today at 2

Students are urged to have their mothers register for the 27th annual Mothers' Weekend, according to Donna Lory, general chairman. The men's and women's living organizations with the largest percentage of mothers registered will receive trophies at the All-campus Sing Saturday night.

Registration will be held on the second floor of the Student Union today from 2 to 5 p. m. and from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m. Saturday. Mothers who arrive later may register on the first floor of Gerlinger hall from 1 to 5 p. m. on Saturday.

Mothers are invited to attend the Junior Weekend events, according to Jim Light, general chairman of the weekend. Tickets for the All-campus luncheon and All-campus Sing should be bought in advance, he advised.