

Floats, Bands, Skits, Units, Posse to March in Parade

A total of 60 units, including 22 floats, 5 bands, 4 humorous skits, 3 queens' cars and a sheriff's posse, will comprise the combined Junior Weekend float parade and the Armed Forces Day parade, which will be held at 3 p.m. today.

The parade will assemble at 2:15 p.m. at McArthur court. Any float arriving after 2:30 won't be eligible for judging but will be able to be in the parade. However, any floats arriving after 3 p.m. will be completely disqualified.

The parade will travel from McArthur court to the Student Union and then follow E. 13th ave. west to Willamette st., north on Willamette to Broadway, east on Broadway to High st., south on High to E. 13th ave., east on 13th to University, and will disband on the original site.

The judges will be located at the SU and will judge the floats on originality, adherence to the theme "College Capers," and quality of workmanship. Judging will be done as each float first passes the judges' stand.

Permanent trophies will be presented to the first, second, and third place winners at the All-campus sing. An additional rotating trophy will be presented to the first place winner. Campbell club and Highland house won first place last year.

Four to Judge

Acting as judges will be Bill Baker, of Bill Baker's Men's Wear; Melvin G. Gustafson, president of the Eugene Dads' club; Mrs. Bill Bowerman, and D. P. Hatch, instructor in art.

First in the parade will be the Wilson and Roosevelt Junior high school bands; next will be the Gold Star mothers; Spanish-American war veterans, Disabled American Veterans, Daughters of the American Revolution, National Guard units, Marine Corps reserve, Navy reserve, Army reserve; Float 2, Alpha Delta Pi and Lambda Chi Alpha, with the theme "Sunshine and Rain"; float 3, Alpha Bamma Delta and Alpha Tau Omega, "Campus Carousel"; float 4, Alpha Omicron Pi and Hale Kane, "Campus Luau"; humorous skit 1; float 5, Alpha Phi,

Stitzer hall and Phi Delta Theta, "Coffee Time," and float 6, Alpha Xi Delta and Theta Chi, "Spring Sports."

Court Follows ROTC

Next in line will be the Army ROTC, followed by the three cars for the Junior Weekend princesses; ROTC Band Color Guard; Air Force ROTC; Eugene-Spring-

Ralph Bunche To Talk Tuesday

A Nobel peace prize winner will be on campus Tuesday to address a University assembly. He is Ralph Bunche, director of the United Nations trusteeship division, who will speak at 1 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Bunche will also be featured in a coffee hour forum at 4 p.m. the same day. His appearance on campus is being sponsored by the Failing Distinguished Lectures committee.

A professor of government at Harvard university, Bunche won the Nobel peace prize for his work in the Arab-Israeli armistice in 1949. He was acting U.N. mediator on Palestine in 1948-49.

Bunche was educated at the University of California and at Harvard. He has done post-doctoral work in this country, in England and in South Africa. He has also held several fellowships in the study of anthropology and colonial policy.

During World War II, Bunche worked with the Office of Strategic Services and was a territorial expert for the U.S. State department. He was also a member of the American delegation to the Dumbarton Oaks conference in 1944.

ROTC Men to March

Approximately 1000 University of Oregon ROTC cadets, representing both Army and Air Force units, will march in the Armed Forces day parade today. The Oregon units are marching in the Eugene parade as part of national Armed Forces Day, an event observed by all the nation's armed forces.

Both units will assemble at 2:30 p.m. on the ROTC drill grounds. The air force will assemble in its regular location on the intramural track; the army will group on the upper drill field behind the ROTC buildings. The band and color guard is scheduled to meet along with the air force on the intramural track.

Roll call will be taken at 2:30 p.m., as at a regular drill. Only those cadets who have been excused, by the ROTC department will be allowed to miss the parade in order to work on house floats for the Junior Weekend parade. These cadets will not have to make the drill up, according to Col. Edwin B. Daily, professor of air science and tactics.

The two groups will form into a single marching unit on the lower (fresh) baseball diamond after roll call has been taken. From there they will march out 18th ave. to join the Junior Weekend float parade on University street.

Songs, Awards and Tappings To Highlight Sing Tonight

The 14th annual All-campus sing will be held tonight at 8 in McArthur court. Eight women's and eight men's living organizations previously chosen at eliminations will compete for several trophies to be presented at the end of the evening.

First place rotating-cups; first, second, and third place permanent cups; and song leaders trophies for the winning organizations will be awarded both the women's and men's groups. The two first place trophies have been donated by University jewelers.

The University orchestra under the direction of E. A. Cykler, will perform from 7:30 until 8, at which time the sing festivities will begin with the entrance of the queen and her court.

Following is the order of performance of the groups, their songs and songleaders:

Two 'Weekends' Honor Mothers

Two big weekends are being rolled into one as Oregon mothers participate in this 27th annual Mothers' Day weekend and are also guests of honor at Junior Weekend events.

Mothers' Weekend begins at 8:30 this morning with the traditional Mothers' breakfast and business meeting in the Student Union. O. Meredith Wilson, new president of the University, will address the group, and greetings will be extended by Donna Lory, general chairman of Mothers' Weekend; Gordon Wilson, president of the Oregon Dads; and Tom Wrightson, ASUO president.

Mrs. Elmer C. Carlson, president of the Oregon Mothers, will preside at the business session and give a report on the work of the executive board during the past year. A check for scholarships will be presented to President Wilson by Mrs. Carlson at this time.

Court To Be Presented

At noon visiting mothers may attend the All-campus luncheon, which will be held under the firs on the Old Campus. At this time campus honoraries will tap new members. Also appearing will be the new Junior Weekend queen and her court in the traditional queen's procession.

Later in the afternoon students and their mothers will be guests at an informal tea sponsored by the Eugene Mothers' club, AWS and the YWCA from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at Gerlinger Hall.

Parade This Afternoon

At 3:00 p.m. Mothers may view the combined Junior Weekend float parade and Armed Forces Day parade as it passes Gerlinger hall. The all-campus sing at 8 p.m. in MacArthur court will be the final Saturday event.

On Sunday the Mothers will have dinner at the various living organizations at 1 p.m. The Sunlight Serenade, presented by the winners of the All-campus sing, will be held at 3 p.m. in the open-air auditorium east of the music building on the same day.

All mothers are urged to register, as trophies will be awarded to the men and women's living organizations with the highest percentage of mothers present. The trophies will be presented at the All-campus sing. Last year the trophies were won by Chi Psi and Alpha Xi Delta.

Registration headquarters are located on the second floor of the SU today from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., and on the first floor of Gerlinger hall from 1 to 5 p.m.

3000 Expected to Attend Campus Picnic Today

Nearly 3000 students, mothers and guests are expected to attend the All-campus luncheon this afternoon, according to Marcia Hodgson and Corky Horton, luncheon co-chairmen. Tickets at 47 cents each will be on sale at a booth at the luncheon.

The luncheon will be held on the Old Campus, north of 13th avenue and between Friendly, Fenton, Dady and Villard halls. If it rains, the luncheon will be transferred to McArthur court.

Hot dogs, potato salad and all the trimmings will be served by members of Kwama, Phi Theta Upsilon and Skull and Dagger, beginning at 12:15.

The Junior Weekend queen and her royal court will enter at 12:30 and will be seated on a decorated stage on the Old Campus. The court will enter through an arch formed by the raised swords of members of Scabbard and Blade.

Dugan to Emcee

Seating for visiting mothers and guests will be near the stage. Jack Dugan will be master of ceremonies for the luncheon; the Four Shades of Rhythm will entertain with their band.

Also on the agenda for the luncheon program are tappings by various honoraries. The tapping schedule is as follows: Asklepiads, medical honorary, 12:35; Scabbard and Blade, military honorary, 12:45; Friars, senior men's honorary, 12:55; and Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, 1:05.

Working on the committees along with Miss Hodgson and Miss Horton have been sub-chairmen Margaret Tyler and Val Mottram on the decoration committee, assisted by Joy Strogen; Rae Bergeron and Rick Redfern, assisted by Terry Sullivan on the food committee; and sub-chairmen Miriam Vaaler and Carol Adams, assisted by Edith Lunde on the ticket sales.

Serenade Ends Week

Bringing Junior Weekend and Mothers' Day weekend to a close, the sunlight serenade will be held at 3 p.m. in the open-air amphitheater behind the music school.

The afternoon program will feature the winning women's and men's living organizations in the All-campus sing, musical numbers by the University Singers male quartet, and selections by Pat Viles and Donna Trebbe.

Planned to follow Sunday dinner for the visiting mothers in the living organizations, the serenade is free to everyone. In case of rain, the music school auditorium will be used for the program, according to Rosemary Hampton and Phyllis Pearson, co-chairmen.
