

UT Plans Reunion Sunday Afternoon

The University theater will hold a reunion program Sunday, according to Clarence Suiter, president of National Collegiate Players, sponsors of the event.

Planned for the program are scenes from current and past University theater productions. Tentatively scheduled are scenes from "Finian's Rainbow," "One Touch of Venus," "The Crucible," "Our Town" and a scene by Gerda Brown.

Queen Janet

Queen and Princesses Are Active UO Coeds

Members of this year's Junior Weekend court, of which Janet Wick was crowned Queen Janet I last night at the intermission of the Junior Prom by University President O. Meredith Wilson, are as follows.

The queen reigning over weekend events is blonde, blue-eyed Janet Wick, a member of Pi Beta Phi. She is president of AWS, president of Phi Theta Upsilon, general chairman of the Junior Prom and was chairman of the campus Community Chest drive and secretary of Homecoming.

Princess Dorothy Kopp, the brown-haired and green-eyed candidate of Carson 3, served as counselor on Carson 3, co-chairman of Homecoming weekend and information editor of the Pigger's Guide. Dorothy is the newly-elected president of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Princess Janet Miller, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was sponsored in the queen race by Campbell club. She was a member of the Homecoming court last fall, and attended Portland State college winter term. She was treasurer of her house fall term, and in her sophomore year was a sophomore representative and a member of Kwama.

Princess Nancy Murrow is a member of Gamma Phi Beta and was their candidate for queen of Junior Weekend. She is a transfer student from the University of Washington, having come to Oregon at the beginning of winter term. She is song leader of her house, as she was at Washington. Nancy was a member of the sophomore honorary at Washington.

Princess Alma Owen, a blonde member of Alpha Chi Omega, is president of her house. Her sponsors for the title included Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Nu and Sigma Phi Epsilon. Miss Owen is secretary of Heads of Houses, and was promotion chairman of the Associated Women Students' Christmas tea.

Three Judges Announced For Press Essay Contest

Judges for the Peter Pauper Press essay contest have been announced by Bernice Rise, Student Union browsing room librarian. They are James B. Hall, assistant professor of English; E. R. Bingham, assistant professor of history, and Carl Hintz, University head librarian.

Hintz will announce the winners of the essay contest Saturday at the All-campus Sing.

Ten books from the Peter Pauper Press "collector's editions" will go to the student who submitted the best essay on great books. Second prize will be five Peter Pauper classics. Entries were turned in May 1.

The Josephine Evans Harpham silver cup also will be awarded at the All-campus Sing to the living organization with the best recreational reading program.
