Luther House

This Sunday the Luther house will host the Oregon Lutheran group. Guest speaker for the evening will be Arnold Nelson of Silverton, who will speak on the work of the Lutheran world federation in relocating and replacing European refugees in this country. The evening program will begin with a supper at 5:30 served by Mari Griffiths, Bruce Irvin, Mary Lou Sunderland and Chuck Dahlen.

Lutherans are reminded of the Wednesday luncheons from 12 to 12:50 p.m. Last Wednesday there were over 50 present. All Lutheran students are invited to attend this Wednesday, at which time prayer will be discussed.

Bible study groups will meet Monday at 3 p.m., Wednesday at 9 p.m. and Thursday at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., and 9 p.m.

May 29 is the date set for a deep-sea fishing trip. Anyone interested should see Jim Kallas at Luther house or call 4-7373.

Canterbury Club

Canterbury will meet at Oregon State college this Sunday for a dinner meeting with the group there. Cars will leave the Student Union between 5 and 5:15 p.m.

Next Wednesday there will be the celebration of the feast of the Holy Ascension, Holy Communion, at Gerlinger hall, beginning at 7 a.m. Ascension day is one of the great feasts of the Christian year.

Newman Club

The Oregon Newman club will join with the Oregon State club for their annual picnic this Sunday. The group will leave from Sacred Heart hospital at 6:30 a.m. for the trip to Corvallis. There they will attend 8 o'clock mass, and then continue on to Fogerty creek. Refreshments will be taken by the group at a cost of

Inter-Varsity

Inter-varsity Christian fellowship will conclude its regular meetings for the school year with a weiner roast at the Harlow Baptist camp grounds this Tuesday. Transportation will be provided from the Student Union, with cars leaving at 4:30 and 5:30 p.m. A brief discussion-worship period will climax the picnic.

Channing Club

Alburey Castell, philosophy department head, will speak at Channing club's meeting this Sunday, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Unitarian church. The topic of his address will be "The Church, School and State." Castell will examine the question of why Americans are willing to allow the state to take such an active part in academic education and no part in religious education. The meeting is open to the public and refreshments will be served.

Wesley Foundation

Wesley foundation has been challenged by Westminster foundation to a softball game at Hendrick's bridge tonight. A picnic, volleyball and other recreation is scheduled. Cars will leave Gerlinger hall at 6 p.m.

This afternoon and tomorrow, Wesleyans are having their annual "Odd Job day." Money received will be used to help pay tuition and expenses for Namiko Ikeda, junior in physical education from Tokyo, Japan.

The Koinonia Klass will meet Sunday morning at 9:45 at the First Methodist church. The entire group will participate in the discussion of Leslie Weatherhead's book, "The Will of God," which has been discussed in parts by various persons, during the past weeks of the class. For those wishing rides to the church, cars will leave Gerlinger hall at 9:30. Following refreshments at the usual 6 p.m. meeting on the Gerlinger hall sunporch, Marilyn Fullerton, sophomore in education, will speak on "The Apostle Stephen: His Writing, Thinking and Influence on the Early Church."

H. R. Taylor, psychology department head, will speak Tuesday following the 5:30 p.m. potluck supper on the Gerlinger sunporch. His topic is "We Were Born to Believe."

Stan Heth, junior in sociology, will lead the chapel service Thursday at 12:30 in Gerlinger hall.

Christian House

Christian house is holding its annual retreat and planning conference this weekend at Harmony lodge at Nelscott, on the coast. Cars will leave the house throughout this afternoon, with Orville Carroll as transportation chairman. Betty Myers is general chairman for the affair. She is assisted by Shirley Goff, food chairman; Chuck Brownlow, recreation, and Lyle Spears, program. The conference theme is "Ever by Thy Spirit." Special guest leader will be Rev. Kenneth Peterson, director of Wesley foundation.

Wesley foundation services will be held as usual at Christian house, beginning with the 9:15 a.m. doughnut hour, followed by Bible study led by Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business. There will be no other Sunday services this week because of the retreat.

Married students are planning a picnic at Richardson's point on Fern Ridge lake for this Tuesday at 6 p.m., according to Preston Bradley, president. Each couple should bring their own weiners and buns, table service, and either a salad or a dessert. The annual election of officers will take place during the evening. Family groups are welcomed by the group. For further details, call 5-3491.

Westminster Foundation

Tonight at 5:45 Westminster will meet Wesley in a softball game at Hendrick's bridge park. A weiner roast after the game is planned.

This Sunday at 9 a.m. coffee and doughnuts will be served, after which the Bible study class will continue its discussion of the "Brief Statement of Reformed Faith," article eight. Sunday afternoon a picnic at Paradise park on the upper McKenzie river, is planned, with cars leaving the house at 4 p.m. The evening worship service will be led by Betty Gillum and Keith Heller, following which Rev. Thom Hunter will give an exposition entitled "The Test of Discipleship."

Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. there will be a chapel service at the house. In the evening at 5:30 the fellowship supper will feature a student panel, moderated by Jerry Melone, whose topic of discussion will be "Should We Be Concerned About Discrimination in Student Living Organizations."

First Baptist Church

The Palermo brothers, Italian musicians and evangelists, will be present during the morning worship at 11 a.m. this Sunday at Eugene First Baptist church. The brothers have held evangelistic crusades throughout the world under the auspices of Youth for Christ international. At the 7:30 p.m. service, the Christian businessmen's committee of Eugene will take charge of the program. Participating will be Fred Rady, president of CBMC and manager of Burch's Shoe store, and Herb Jauchen, manager of William's department store.
